

FLIM FLAM SWINDLE TRIED

NIGHT EDITION
WAS FOUND DEAD

Frank Hawes Passed Away Suddenly This Morning

Deceased Was a Well Known Resident of Centralville — A Former Assistant Assessor and a Member of Post 185, G. A. R.

The many friends of former assessor Frank Hawes, well known in G. A. R. and political circles, will be pained to learn of his death which occurred very suddenly early this morning at his home, 105 Eleventh street.

The deceased was 73 years of age and had been a resident of Lowell for many years. In days gone by he was quite prominent in politics and held the position of assistant assessor from 1893 until 1895. In the days when the assistants were employed throughout the year, some time after leaving city hall he retired from the active affairs of life. Yesterday morning he took breakfast in Putnam's restaurant and was apparently in the best of health and spirits. He mowed his lawn yesterday afternoon and retired early last night as was his custom, feeling finely. About 2 o'clock this morning he went to his wife's sleeping apartment and awakened her, complaining of pains in the region of his heart and coughing slightly. Mrs. Hawes prepared him a warm drink, after taking which he said he felt better and went back to bed. About 5:30 o'clock this morning Mrs. Hawes awoke and going to her husband's room to inquire as to his condition, found him dead in bed. Heart disease was the probable cause of death. The deceased was a veteran of the Civil war and a member of Post 185, G. A. R. He leaves only his wife, Mrs. Nellie A. Hawes.

GOV. DRAPER

NAMES THE "WHITE SLAVE" BOARD

BOSTON, July 1.—The commission that is to determine whether or not the intelligence office bears any relation in Massachusetts to the "white slave traffic" was named yesterday by Gov. Draper. Howard V. Brown of Brookline is the first member, and Nathan L. Higgins of Boston are the others.

The commission is the result of a resolve passed by the last legislature, after a long series of committee hearings.

The main intent of the act under which the commission is created is to formulate a set of regulations by which the business will be brought under state control. These will deal with the question of fees, and it will be sought to render it impossible to tax the employer and the employer for the same position.

GIFT OF $1500

WAS PRESENTED TO A LAWRENCE PRIEST

LAWRENCE, July 1.—Parishioners of St. Lawrence's church presented Rev. C. M. Driscoll, O. S. A., the pastor who leaves today to assume a pastorate in the Bronx, New York, a purse of $1500 last evening with the expressed wish that he should enjoy a European trip.

The presentation was made in the church before a large congregation. John P. S. Mahoney acting as spokesman. Fr. Driscoll responded appreciatively.

The committee in charge comprised, beside Mr. Mahoney, Hon. J. J. Flynn, Cornelius J. Corcoran, Cornelius A. McCarthy, Edward L. Barrett and Hon. C. F. Lynch.

BOY RESCUED

COMPANION LEAPED FROM BOAT AND SAVED HIM

MANCHESTER, N. H., July 1.—Charles Lange, 16 years old, of Goff's Falls, was rescued from drowning at Pine Island park yesterday afternoon. Everett E. Crum of this city, a companion, dragged him ashore after jumping from a boat.

The two young men and a third named O'Brien, who lives in Haverhill, Mass., went out rowing. They went across the pond and visited friends at one of the cottages on the east side. About noon they started to row across the lake again. While Crum was at the oars Lange tumbled accidentally out of the boat. He could not swim. Crum dived for him.

O'Brien held out an oar and tried to pull both of them in, but after a hard struggle the rescuer gave up the oar and swam ashore with the boy.

CHILD CONFERENCE

WORCESTER, Mass., July 1.—Conditions surrounding the poor children in New York city, were described by Roy Smith Wallace, executive secretary of the New York Children's welfare committee at today's session of the child conference for Research and welfare at Clark university.

Dr. Charles W. Stiles, scientific secretary of the Rockefeller military commission, spoke upon the hook worm disease among children.

HE WAS FINED $25

Man Was Found Guilty of Stealing a Roll of $33

There was a variety of cases in police court this morning and as is usual when the weather is the warmest and the humidity high, the session was a long one.

What proved to be a rather amusing case in which the defendant was discharged was that of Margaret Sullivan charged with assault and battery on Catherine Curley. The woman in question are neighbors and reside in the rear of 269 Worthen street.

According to the testimony offered Mrs. Sullivan's boy placed an "accident" egg in the pocket of Mrs. Curley's boy's clothing and then smashed the egg. Needless to say the clothing had to be removed and cleansed.

Mrs. Curley then went to Mrs. Sullivan's house and told her what she thought of her boy and incidentally told her what she thought of her (Mrs. Sullivan). This followed a wordy battle and it is alleged that Mrs. Sullivan struck the Curley woman.

Mrs. Sullivan said that when she was told of what her boy had done she told Mrs. Curley she was sorry, and she said that Mrs. Curley called her a vile name and she pushed her off the step.

The court after considering the evidence found the defendant not guilty and ordered her to be discharged.

Stole a Pocketbook

William Jackson, a man who, it is said, calls any place he hangs his hat "Home, Sweet Home," came to Lowell yesterday afternoon from Montreal; but he had been in the city but a short time when he was gathered in by the police and looked up on a complaint of larceny of $33 from James Dolan.

Dolan was drinking in a saloon when Jackson entered. Dolan then entered a rear room and Jackson followed him. While the pair were there Dolan dropped a pocketbook containing $33 and Jackson, it is alleged, picked it up and walked out of the place. Dolan a few minutes later discovered his loss and happened to think that the man who was in the room with him might have taken it and he rushed into the street. He saw Jackson and charged him with the theft, but the latter denied the allegation.

About this time Patrolman Patrick

Sullivan happened to be passing by and upon complaint placed Jackson under arrest. When searched at the police station the pocketbook and $31 were found on his person, the $2 having disappeared in a very mysterious manner.

Jackson admitted that he picked the pocketbook up when he saw it lying on the floor but denied that he knew to whom it belonged. He said that he was on his way to Boston when he felt thirsty and got off the train "just to get a few drinks."

He was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $25.

Case Continued

In the cases of Benjamin Shapiro, charged with assault and battery on Claudia Belanger and Celine Hubert, a continuance was granted till July 8.

Stole Two Milk Bottles

Glendon Matie was arraigned in court on two separate complaints of larceny. It being alleged that he stole two milk bottles at the value of five cents each. One bottle was the property of John Hanlon and the other that of William J. Burbeck. Matie was drunk when arrested, and it is said admitted to Patrolman Joseph Lamoreaux that he had taken the bottles and drunk the contents. He was sentenced to one month in jail. The court in passing sentence in the case spoke of the prevalent stealing of milk bottles by both men employed by dealers and thieves.

Drunken Offenders

James Gallagher, who gave the name of Flaherty when placed under arrest, denied that he had been drinking yesterday. Patrolman Daniel Cogger said that he assisted in arresting the man and that the latter was lying behind the counter in a fruit store at the corner of Gorham and Sumner streets. Gallagher is on parole from the state farm and he will be returned to that institution.

Michael Dennigan was fined $5, and one first offender was fined $2.

FUNERALS

TALBOT.—With simple funeral services the body of the late Mrs. Leabolt was consigned to its final resting place Wednesday afternoon.

The funeral took place from the home of the deceased in Mount Pleasant street in North Billerica. Rev. Paul Revere Frothingham, pastor of the Arlington street church of Boston, officiated at the service in the house, and there was singing by the choir of that church, several appropriate selections being rendered.

There was a profusion of floral offerings. Burial was in the Lowell cemetery under the direction of Undertakers J. B. Currier Co.

During the afternoon the Talbot mills shut down and the stores of the North village were also closed out of respect to the deceased.

GRAY.—The funeral of Mrs. Harriet A. Gray took place yesterday afternoon from her residence, 2 Loring street. The services were conducted by Rev. E. Victor Bigelow, pastor of the Eliot Congregational church. The bearers were George S. Hull, Edward E. Sargent, Caleb L. Smith and James Sykes. Burial was in the family lot in Westlawn cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

WIGHT.—The funeral of William H. Wight took place yesterday noon from the Lowell cemetery chapel and was largely attended. Rev. A. St. John officiated at the service. There were many beautiful floral offerings. Burial was in the Lowell cemetery under the direction of J. A. Weinbeck.

ROBINSON.—The funeral of Miss Agnes Austin Robinson took place from her residence, 88 Lawrence street, on Thursday afternoon and was largely attended. There were many beautiful floral offerings. The services were conducted by Rev. C. T. Billings, pastor of the First Unitarian church, and there was appropriate singing by the Unitarian choir, consisting of Mrs. Leathie Mrs. George S. Loring, Mr. C. D. Page and Mr. A. Munn.

The bearers were Frank Goodall, Henry Fay, Dr. Leonard Huntress and William Fayar. Edward Spaulding had charge of the arrangements, and the burial was in the family lot in the Lowell cemetery, under the direction of Undertakers L. B. Currier Co.

Sagamores at Breezy Point tonight.

DEATHS

HAWES.—Died July 1, in this city, very suddenly, Frank B. Hawes, aged 73 years, at his home, 105 Eleventh street. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Nellie A. Hawes. Mr. Hawes was a member of Post 185, G. A. R. Funeral services will be held at 105 Eleventh street Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Friends are invited to the services without further notice. The burial will be private. The funeral arrangements are in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

FORREST.—Mrs. Pamela M. Forrest, formerly of this city, the beloved wife of Mr. William M. Forrest, passed away Friday morning at her home on the Turnpike road, Billerica, aged 74 years. She is survived by her husband, four sisters, Miss Ellen I. Harmon of South Frammingham, Mass., Mrs. B. K. Lane of East Westmoreland, Mass., Mrs. E. O. Worthen of Newton Lower Falls and Mrs. Martha Adams of Brunswick, Me., also one brother, George A. Harmon of Franklin, N. H. Funeral notice later. The funeral is in charge of Undertaker J. B. Currier Co.

FARIHA.—Manuel Fariha, infant son of John and Virginia Fariha, died last night at the home of his parents, 3 Union street. The funeral took place this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the home of his parents, 3 Union street. The cortege proceeded to St. Anthony's church where at 4 o'clock Rev. Fr. Percot conducted the services. Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertaker Thomas J. McDermott.

McBRIDE.—Miss Sarah J. McBride, a well known resident of Centralville, and a devout attendant at St. Michael's church, died this morning at her home, 105 Fulton street, aged 42 years. She was an esteemed member of the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Michael's church and leaves to mourn her loss besides a host of friends, two sisters, Mrs. Michael Carroll and Miss Mary A. McBride and one brother, Joseph T. McBride, all of Lowell. Funeral notice later.

PERRIN.—Fernand Perrin, an old and respected resident of Granville, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Hyacinthe LeDuc in this village on Thursday morning after a lingering illness, aged 74 years. Besides his sister, Mrs. LeDuc, he leaves two brothers in northern Canada. The deceased was a devout member of St. Catherine's church and a member of the Holy Name society.

GOODWIN.—The many friends of Mr. John Goodwin, the well known grocer on Appleton street, will be pained to hear of his death which occurred at his home, 197 Appleton street. He was a well known member of St. Peter's parish. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife.

FUNERAL NOTICES

SULLIVAN.—The funeral of Daniel Sullivan will take place Saturday morning from his late home, 53 North street at 8:15, and a high mass of requiem will be sung at St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock. Undertaker Savage in charge.

FLIM FLAM GAME

Same as Used on Wheelock
Tried at No. Chelmsford

An alleged film-flam artist tried to work his little game on O. M. Green, aged 82 years, of North Chelmsford, about two hours after the local police the day before yesterday, but the cleverness of Mr. Green's daughter prevented the former carrying out his scheme.

Owing to her dainty tactics in notifying the police, however, the man made his escape.

The man, who is described as being tall, dark complexioned, smooth faced and young, called at Mr. Green's house and represented himself as Mr. Harry Pollard. He said that his father had a couple of volumes of historical works which he was going to give away, one being for Mr. Green and the other for another friend.

The daughter, who knows Mr. Pollard by sight, immediately detected that something was wrong and said that her father was not ready to go out at that time, but that if he would call around a couple of hours later her father would be ready.

The man then drove away, after promising to return at the hour designated by the daughter, but the stealer failed to put in an appearance at the appointed time.

About two hours after the local police the daughter notified the local police. Several inspectors were sent out to try to locate the man and it was learned that the horse and carriage which he had used had been hired at Peabody's stable in Warren street, but that the man had returned with the horse and put it up almost an hour before the inspectors arrived.

When he hired the outfit he gave the name of Bailey. The police are of the opinion that "Bailey" was going to take Mr. Green for a ride to Lowell, and on the way which he was going to give away, one being for Mr. Green and the other for another friend.

The daughter, who knows Mr. Pollard by sight, immediately detected that something was wrong and said that her father was not ready to go out at that time, but that if he would call around a couple of hours later her father would be ready. The man then drove away, after promising to return at the hour designated by the daughter, but the stealer

SERIOUS LABOR TROUBLE

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Demands of the conductors and trainmen on the railroads in the southeastern territory, directly involving about 10,000 men, may develop a serious labor disturbance within the next 24 hours. The situation is regarded as extremely acute. For fifteen days the mediators under the Erdman act, Chairman Knapp of the interstate commerce commission, and Dr. Charles P. Neill, commissioner of labor, have been laboring with the general managers' committee of the roads and with the representatives of the men. After the conference between mediators and representatives of conductors and trainmen of the southeastern roads, it was announced this afternoon that no definite arrangement had been effected. Hope still exists of adjusting the controversy without a strike.

HE KILLED HIMSELF

Frank Weber of Lowell a Suicide
in New Bedford

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 1.—Frank Weber, a brewery worker, who came to this city this week from Lowell, committed suicide this afternoon by shooting himself in his room at a north end boarding house. Weber, who was apparently despondent, stated in a pool room at the north end this morning that he was going to kill himself, but no one believed him. An hour later he went to the Oxford House where he had a room and shot himself through the right temple, death being instantaneous.

FORMER ALDERMAN

Says That He Was Offered Bribe of $2000

SALEM, July 1.—All of the time of the superior criminal court yesterday was occupied in the trial of Mayor William P. White, George Smart, Matthew Burns, Samuel Kress, Ernest Dube and Thomas A. Keegan, charged with a conspiracy to bribe aldermen of the city of Lawrence in connection with the attempted removal of Fire Chief Hamilton last December.

Ex-Alderman Carl A. Woelke testified that Kress and Smart had each offered him $1000 and police appointments to vote against Hamilton and he had refused to consider it and that in the aldermanic chamber Keegan came to him and said there was $1000 to vote to oust Hamilton and said "think it over to see on which side there is the most in it for you."

Alderman William Moss, Jr., testified that at a meeting of the aldermen, while waiting in the city clerk's office, Keegan had come to him and said: "I know where there is $1000 to vote to oust Hamilton." He had refused, and a few minutes later Keegan came and said they would double the amount and add appointments of policemen.

This was the first time in his life that an attempt had been made to bribe him. He did not call the police as he had no proof. Keegan was a stranger to him, he only knowing him by sight. Keegan said he would produce the money in five minutes and place it in anyone's hands he chose.

Ex-Alderman Xavier Legendre testified to Kress coming to his place of business and offering him at different times $200, then $50 and finally $1000, and when he asked him why he did not go to Moss and Woelke, he had said you have not got anything out of it this year yet, and the mayor wants you to get this money. The trial gives promise of lasting for several days.

14 NEW NAMES Added to Board of Trade Membership Roll

The membership committee of the board of trade held a midday lunch and business meeting at the Park hotel yesterday noon, 14 of the 20 members being in attendance. The committee voted to meet at lunch weekly until the annual outing Aug. 24.

Fourteen new names for membership were brought in at the meeting yesterday. Secretary Murphy had a card list of business men who are not members, and these were distributed among the members present to be interviewed before the meeting to be held next Wednesday. As only members will be given tickets for the annual outing on Aug. 4, it is probable that this will be an inducement to join. The dues are one-half regular rates from now until Jan. 1st. The committee has adopted the slogan "1900 members" and an effort will be made to bring the membership list up to that figure.

Henry Shultz, 330 Middlesex street; E. H. Diekey, 321 High street; Frank A. Mulroy, North Chelmsford; R. E. Judd, 70 Merrimack street; G. H. Edwards, manager Colonial store; A. Lamontague, 606 Merrimack street; A. Parent, 16 Sargent street; John E. Kearns, 24 Brooks street; E. B. Barlow, 35 Smith street; George E. Marchant, 8 Brackett avenue; Anthony Walsh, 737 Lakewood avenue; W. S. Watson, William F. Foye, Park hotel; Irving Barlow, 17 Chelmsford street; William T. Davis, 629 School street.

FELL TO DEATH

The Parachute Failed to Open

MUNCIE, Ind., July 1.—The parachute in which he was descending failed to open, Ray Bradley, 25 years, dropped 1500 feet to death at Albany, Ind., yesterday. Bradley used two parachutes. With the first he jumped 500 feet from 2000 feet elevation and started earthward in the second, which stuck.

Happy, Happy, Use TIZ

A Marvel For Sore Feet. Acts Right Off

Sore Feet! Never After Using TIZ—Good-bye sore feet, aching feet, swollen feet, sweaty feet, smelly feet, tired feet.

Good-bye corns, callouses and bunions and raw spots.

You've never tried anything like TIZ before for your feet. It is different from anything ever before sold.

It acts at once and makes the feet feel remarkably fresh and sure-footed.

TIZ is not a powder. Powder and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous exudations which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—your feet.

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person.

If you don't find all this true after trying a box of TIZ, you can get your money right back.

TIZ is for sale at all drug stores at 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct if you wish from Walter Lather Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.

NEW MUSIC ROOM

Dedicated at Home of Organist French

A high class and most delightful musicale was held last evening at the beautiful home of Albert F. French, for many years organist of the First Baptist church, in Parkview avenue. The occasion marked the completion of what he modestly terms his new "music room." This "music room" is something of which perhaps no other residence in Lowell can boast. It consists of a large room and fine organ and in design and appointment is superb.

The music room and organ were conceived and planned by Mr. William L. Goodwin of this city, many details drawings being executed by Mr. Jones of Boston, a relative of Mr. French, who is to be congratulated on being the owner of this ideal spot for musical study and entertainment.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. French very generously threw their doors open to their neighbors and friends, among them being many of the organists and musicians of the city. The rare beauty of the instrument was displayed in the following program, which had been informally arranged, but was none the less enjoyable for its impromptu character:

The program:
Organ, Andantino.....Lemare
Mus. Harriet Leo.
Anthem, "Sing Alleluia".....Buck
Kirk Street Quartet:
Mrs. Sweeney, Mrs. Evelyn Messrs.
Wirt and Howard, with Mr.
Spaulding at the organ.
Organ, Improvisation,
Mr. Wilfred Kershaw.
Recitations.....Selected
Solo, "Gloria".....Buzzi-Pecchia
Miss May Fowler.
Anthem, "Sun of My Soul,"
Kirk Street Quartet.

Duet,
"Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah,"
Mrs. Pugh and Mr. Hardy with Mr. French at the organ.
Organ, "March Religieuse".....Gullmant
Mr. A. C. Spaulding.
Recitation,
Miss Esther Stocks.
Baritone Solo, "The Two Grenadiers,"
Schumann
Mr. Gen. Drew with Mrs. Drew at the organ.

Organ,
Freis Lied from "Die Meistersinger,"
Mr. S. R. Fleet.
Piano Solo, Etude.....Liszt
Miss Caroline White.
Soprano Solo,
"The Penitent".....Vanderwater
Mrs. French Accompanist.
Organ, Largo.....Handel
Miss Drew.

At the close of the recital refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. French received the hearty congratulations of their friends.

NEW OFFICERS

INSTALLED BY CERCLE ST. LOUIS LAST EVENING

The new officers of Cercle St. Louis were formally installed at the club rooms in Centralville last evening with most interesting exercises.

The officers installed were: President, Adelard Lequin; vice president, E. P. Chaput; secretary, J. A. N. Chretien; assistant secretary, Hector Dupont; treasurer, Albert Dery; collector, Alfred Eli; master of ceremonies, Geo. Chaput; honorary president, Alphonse Laundry; guard, Alfred Harvey.

The speeches and musical program followed the installation of officers. Refreshments were served under the direction of Caterer William Rousseau.

The committee in charge was: President, Alfred Eli; vice president, Hector McDonald; secretary, Antonio Trudeau; aids, William Gagnon and Leo Lusselle; chaplain, Rev. R. A. Fortier.

MRS. VANDERBILT

DECIDED YESTERDAY TO TAKE AN AIR TRIP

NEW YORK, July 1.—Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt went up with Clifford B. Harmon, the amateur aviator, in his aeroplane at Mineola, L. I., yesterday. The flight was very brief, cut short because a squatter got in the way. Harmon purposely kept close to the ground for safety, and had gone half-way around the course when a man cut across ahead. To avoid a possible accident, Harmon rose sharply and attempted to make a long turn and go back to his starting point. But, looking ahead, he saw a tree in his path, and was forced to make a quick descent.

Both he and Mrs. Vanderbilt were jarred in coming down, but neither was injured. The shock loosened several bolts in the machine and slightly damaged the rudder. Mrs. Vanderbilt, startled by the experience, walked smilingly back across the field and joined the enthusiastic spectators.

Yesterday Harmon took his wife as passenger.

MONSTER BONFIRE

The residents of Ayer City are to have a monster bonfire on the Fourth. The monument pile which is to be burned is 50 ft. high and has been under the process of construction for several days. It is located in the vacant lot bounded by Main, Plain, London and Turner streets. The frame is constructed by railroad ties. The ties have been placed in log cabin style and a few hours before the match is to be applied the interior of the hollow square will be filled with combustible material.

At 12.05 o'clock on the morning of the Fourth the lighter will be applied and there will be an illumination which will be seen for miles around.

At Graduation of Commercial College in Associate Hall

The first annual graduation of the Lowell Commercial college was held last night at Associate Hall. The formal decorations were profuse and artistic and the hall was filled with relatives and friends of the graduates and members of the school. Lavigne's orchestra rendered pleasing selections during the evening.

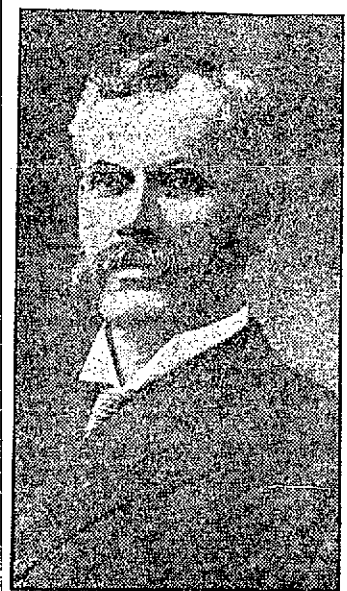

It is a sad sight to see a young man of 24 or 25 with no special training for life; and in nine cases out of 10, he goes down to ruin. In England, this difficulty is met very largely by the system of apprenticeship, in which the problem is solved more effectively than in any other country, by the introduction in later years, of trade schools—vocational schools. That accounts for Germany's successful competition with England and with us commercially. If we are to hold our own we must adopt some such method of training in our public schools.

The Lowell Commercial college is doing much toward meeting this need for vocational training.

Rev. Caleb E. Fisher, pastor of the First Universalist church, gave the address of the evening. He said that he believed in practical education and he advised the graduates to act their own lives, and think their own thoughts, not an easy thing, he said, to do in this world; but those who do it are the marked men and women today, who are leading in their vocations.

It is a good thing, he said, to do something outside of the regular vocation—to carry a side line. While this is an age of specialization, yet the man or woman who knows but one thing is to be pitied when he goes out into the world.

He believed that in education today we are building too much on the structure, and forgetting to lay the foundations. All college men are not educated. We talk about self-made men, but there is no such a man must grasp the world as he finds it, and enter into other people's lives. Too many colleges and schools send out graduates who have no conception of what life is.

"Make your word a blessing and not a curse," he said to the graduates; and he proposed as a class motto "Love Service Sacrifice." "It is a good thing to have an ideal; and don't leave out the greatest thing in education, which is common sense."

Miss Frances G. Kane, the class president, made the presentation for the class of the picture which will be hung on the school wall. It was accepted by Mr. F. A. Spence, treasurer of the school.

Mayor John F. Meehan presented the diplomas and said that to his mind education, in its best sense, is the highest development of the faculties of the mind and heart.

He said that for 50 years the Lowell Commercial school has been doing a great and good work in the city. The standard set by the school is very high, and its diploma is a passport to any business house in Lowell or any other city. Hundreds of its graduates are among our most valued citizens. He felt assured that the class of 1910 will measure up to the standard set by those who have preceded.

The officers of the class of 1910 are as follows: President, Frances G. Kane; vice president, Aiden C. Plagg; treasurer, Helen M. Winn; secretary, Mae V. Wade; sergeant-at-arms, William Nebes; assistant sergeant-at-arms, Elizabeth A. Scannell.

Following is the full list of graduates:

BOYS' SUMMER SCHOOL

A new day school will be opened on July 6 in the Lowell Young Men's Christian Association to continue six weeks, closing on August 16.

The principal will be Mr. Elmer F. Harris, educational director of the Somerville Y. M. C. A. and principal of the Chelmsford Center High and grammar school. Somerville and other cities have had similar summer schools in successful operation for several years.

In addition to the instruction by Principal Harris, there will be recreative games and physical training in the gymnasium on three afternoons each week. The shower baths will also be enjoyed by the members of the school after the gymnasium class drills. A number of other helpful attractions will also be provided for members of this class.

Corn never looked better at this season.

FIGHTERS ARE READY

Jeffries and Johnson Have Finished Their Training

RENO, Nev., July 1.—At last the long, hard grueling training seems to be at an end in the camps of both Johnson and Jeffries. Both declared last night that they had done their last bit of strenuous work before the fight. Until the call of time on July 4 they say, they will devote themselves entirely to amusement and very light exercise such as walking.

Each says he is fit. Jeffries, happier, apparently, than he has been since he began the laborious process of making himself physically sound, sixteen months ago, romped like a school boy at his camp at Moana Springs today.

Johnson, smiling as usual, joked with his trainers and reiterated his statement that he is in condition to put up the battle of his life.

Jeff was in good humor last night when a party of friends called upon him. He insisted that they trot down the road with him. But as the majority of them were not in shape to keep up with the swift pace he set, they affected a compromise by one of the party taking a walk with the fighter.

As the two strolled up the road Jeffries talked at length about his prospects in the battle. "I am going to win this fight," he said. "I never was in better shape in my life. I will go right after my opponent and knock him out as soon as possible. I expect to take a lot of punishment in order to get to him quickly. But you may depend upon it, I will inflict a greater amount of more severe punishment in return."

Nobody at the Jeffries camp knows just what he weighs. It is said he does not know himself. Jim Corbett believes Jeffries will tip the beam between 220 and 225 pounds.

"Jack Johnson," said Tom Flanagan, his manager, "is an excellent boxer and weighs 200 pounds. He will win. First because he is the craftiest man in pugilism, and second, because neither Jeffries nor any other living man can come back after being out of the fighting game as long as he has been."

Both fighters are fit, according to Dr. W. S. Porter, family physician to Jeffries. Although it was a strange thing for him to do, Dr. Porter examined Johnson at his camp yesterday. He went out to see the negro work and while there was spied by the colored man.

"I'm glad to see you, doctor," said Johnson, addressing the physician when he saw him at the ringside just before the beginning of the workout. "Can I do anything for you?"

The fighter and the physician talked for a few minutes, and then Dr. Porter examined the negro's heart action. After Johnson had gone through his exhibition paces the physician made a second examination. He said he found no signs of palpitation and thought Johnson was in good condition.

Later at Jeffries' camp, Dr. Porter expressed the opinion that Jeffries was in fine fettle.

"He has the appearance of a perfect athlete in the white of his eye," said the doctor. "No man's eyes can look as Jeffries do and not be fit for the battle of his life."

That Johnson thinks mighty well of his chances in the fight is shown by his statement last night that he had $5000 to bet on himself.

Betting is extremely light. Several men with money to place are said to be bidding about because they are of the belief that the winner of the battle has not been named finally.

There is warfare on between the two sets of houses where bets may be placed, and this has led to the naming of some peculiar odds. At Tom Roberts' place, officially recognized by the promoters as betting headquarters, the best odds offered are 16 to 6 1-2 on Jeffries and even money that Jeffries does not knock Johnson out within 25 rounds.

But up the street a few doors in an independent house, odds of 10 to 7 1/2 on Jeffries are being magnified to the crowd and even money is offered that Jeffries will not knock his opponent out in 15. But neither place is doing any large amount of business. Several bets of $100 to $50 and $75 have been placed. A few have been made at $500 to $350.

Just because there is little betting on the fight is no sign that money is not being spent about the city of Reno in abundance however. The play at the roulette wheels, faro and craps tables has been so good that the limits are being raised. These games of chance run day and night except on Sunday.

The reason Jeffries is so anxious to have the boxing platform of the arena absolutely immovable, is assigned to the experience he had during his fight with Bob Fitzsimmons nearly a decade ago in San Francisco. The platform built for the contest was hurriedly constructed and it was a bit unstable and shaky for a man of Jeffries' weight. Fitzsimmons being a lighter man and shiffler on his feet managed to use the flexible floor as a kind of spring board from which to launch himself on the champion, but with Jeffries the "give" and general insecurity of the structure interfered seriously with his footwork and, as he described it afterward, he felt as if he were wading through a sand pile with every movement he made. As a consequence the active "lanky" Bob contrived to get in many telling blows on his adversary that, Jeffries thinks, would not have reached their mark but for the springy flooring.

PERSONALS

Dr. Joseph Grady, the Boston specialist and wife, formerly of Lowell, sailed today on the Prince Arthur for Yarmouth, N. S. During their month's absence they will visit Halifax, Sydney, C. B., St. John's, N. B., Charlottetown, P. E. I., Quebec, and Montreal and return home by way of Burlington, Vt., reaching Boston on Tuesday, Aug. 2nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Ready and Master Willie and Miss Helen will spend the Fourth with friends in Hallowell. They went over the road in an automobile.

The Hillside church in Dracut, can boast of the youngest organist in these parts and the proud distinction belongs to Miss Minnie Tucker, of 36 Orleans street, this city. She is 13 years old and was only 11 years old when she took charge of the organ at the Hillside church. She has played here into the hearts of the congregation and those who attend that church are very proud of their youthful organist. Miss Tucker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John George Tucker. She began the study of the piano when only seven years of age with Miss Minnie E. Davy and after four years' instruction under Miss Davy she took up the study of the organ with Mr. Wilfred Kershaw. Miss Tucker possesses a beautiful soprano voice. She will enter the New England Conservatory next year.

The family of Mr. Thomas E. Foley of 136 Warren street, left today for Revere beach where they will enjoy the next two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis N. White and daughter Viola, of 139 Tremont street, have gone to Westford, Mass., for the next two weeks.

IF SHE GOES TO CONGRESS, PROMISES TO RESIGN IF NOT GOOD

KATE RICHARDS O'HARE

KANSAS CITY, Kan., July 1.—If Mrs. Kate Richards O'Hare is elected to congress from the Second Kansas district she promises to tender her resignation if the voters of her district think she votes in the interests of the trusts. Mrs. O'Hare has already written out her resignation, leaving it undated, the date to be supplied by any of her following who think she should have voted "another way on any bill before congress." It doesn't look as though Mrs. O'Hare would hold her seat for long even if she gets enough votes to take a seat by Uncle Joe. Mrs. O'Hare is a member of the Socialist party. She does the family washing between making speeches. She has fifty of these talks to be made within the next month.

SULTAN OF SULU

Is on His Way to New York

NEW YORK, July 1.—The sultan of Sulu, who is credited with wanting to marry Alice Roosevelt, is on his way to the United States, accompanied by a body guard of 19 servants. Incidentally the sultan has $250,000 in pearls to adorn his person. The sultan left Manila two weeks ago and after a brief visit in England will head direct for New York and promises to make a tour of the country. The sultan of Sulu claims descent from that valiant Dyak Borneo chief, Pagulan Tindig, who early in the 16th century conquered the Sulu archipelago, founded the sultanate and opened the way for the introduction therein of the religion of the

For The Day We Celebrate

WHEREVER YOU SPEND THE DAY, WHETHER AT HOME OR AWAY, YOU WILL NEED MANY "SUMMER THINGS" TO HELP MAKE YOU COMFORTABLE. WE PRESENT TODAY A SEASONABLE LIST OF HOT WEATHER GOODS WITH SEASONABLE PRICES. IN MANY CASES BIG SLICES HAVE BEEN TAKEN FROM THE REGULAR PRICE MARKS, AND IF YOU WILL COME HERE FOR YOUR OUTFIT FOR

The Glorious Fourth

YOU WILL BE SURE TO FIND IN OUR LARGE ASSORTMENTS JUST WHAT WILL PLEASE YOU, AND YOU WILL PAY SO MUCH LESS THAN WHAT YOU EXPECTED THAT THERE WILL BE LOTS OF MONEY LEFT FOR MONDAY'S CELEBRATING.

Make the Fourth a Pleasure

By wearing comfortable shoes. When a man buys shoes he buys them for comfort and style, that is, most men do. But women want style first and comfort after. Now we want to tell you that the new oxfords we are just receiving this month combine both these desirable features of style AND comfort. Come and see them—try them on and you will buy, that is, if you have any possible need for a new pair of shoes.

We speak first of all of the Queen Quality Oxfords and Pumps in Patent Leather, Black and Tan Calf—these are beauties at $3.00 and $3.50. No old styles, every pair brand new and up-to-date.

Boston Favorites are hardly equalled by any other shoe at anywhere near the same price. All kinds at $2.00 and $2.50.

White Canvas Pumps and Oxfords are especially good this summer. . . . 98c and $1.49.

Misses' and Children's Pumps, tan and black, $1.25 and $1.49.

Barefoot Sandals, 49c and 59c up to $1.49.

New Dutch Collars

It is July weather now and time to put away the hot, uncomfortable, laundered collars, and enjoy the pleasures of the loose fitting lace or lingerie neckwear. Dutch Collars are certainly the proper thing for warm weather.

The most beautiful designs in Venice Lace have just been received, all especially priced for Fourth of July week, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00.

We never have shown such an attractive line of Linen Dutch Collars with edges wide and narrow of baby Irish lace. One special lot of 25 different styles, many of them regular 50c kinds, are marked for this week's sale only. . . . 25c.

These are really such exceptional values at this price that our advice if you want one is to come early.

See special display in doorway.

All the New Things In Belts

There is more snap and style to our Belts for a quarter than we have been able to give before for many a day—of course you know that the Patent Leather ones are the latest notion and ours at a quarter are equal in appearance to many at double the money we have seen on the street lately. It is the wide style with big brass buckle, pointed end, and comes in black and red. These are scarce, but we have plenty for the Fourth at . . . 25c.

Never saw such a variety of Wash Belts, as we are showing just now. There is a style to please every taste, in either linen, pique, crash or mercerized canvas. Some are plain tailored, others embroidered or beaded, and you can choose from either lot at . . . 25c or 50c.

All have pearl buckles.

Some extra good things in White Belts at . . . 10c each.

VACATION WEAR

You can't thoroughly enjoy your vacation unless you are properly clothed for it. At the seashore, the mountains, or in the country your wardrobe will add much to the satisfaction and pleasure of your outing. A visit to our department will help in suggesting needs—it will also show you the thought and care we have given to "Vacation Wear." Just a few hints of some of the good things this week.

TUB SUITS

We can only say of our line of Tub Suits that you will do yourself an injustice if you buy your vacation outfit before seeing the large variety of linen and crash suits we carry. Every grade of all linen, crash, ramie cloth and repp is here with a price range of $2.98 to $13.00.

Junior Suits of all pure linen, natural, white and combination colors, modeled for growing girls of 13, 15 and 17. A new departure in wash suits, $2.98, $3.98 and $4.98.

At $5.98—All pure linen suit in natural color, with collar and cuff of some or contrasting color, full pleated skirt. The best value for many seasons.

At $7.98—Heavy Linen Suit with 36 inch coat, pearl buttons; also linen crash suit with full pleated skirt, Persian collar and cuffs. Actually worth $10. Our two big leaders this year.

At $10, $11.50 and $12.98—We show the noblest suits in the city; exclusive style to be found nowhere else. If you want your suit to be different from the ordinary come here for it.

WASH SKIRTS

Your vacation is probably still ahead and you will be delighted with one or more of the attractive wash skirts we are showing today. Some are pure linen, some are mercerized, white and colors. All are smartly tailored in latest style and neatly finished. Values are remarkable.

At $1.00—The very best tailored skirt ever in Lowell at the price. Tab trimmed with cluster pleats, in plain white, natural linen and navy blue. Extra size waistbands in this same skirt and 50c extra.

At $1.98—Several different styles, all pure linen, with new tunic and overskirt effect, or fine tailor made with cluster pleating. Very attractive models in both white and natural linen.

At $2.98 and $3.98—Over 15 different styles in pure white linen,

WASH DRESSES

You will hardly find in the city a larger or better line of Wash Dresses for your Fourth of July outing than those we show. White and Colored Lawns, Percales, Gingham, Batiste and Linen. You can be sure of being cool and comfortable in any one of them. Prices. . . . 98c to $17.98.

At $3.98—We have a very attractive dress, linen color, lace yoke pointed front and back, tunic skirt, with narrow braid embroidery. Women's and misses' sizes.

At $5.98—We show a Two-Piece Gingham Dress, blue, pink and lavender checks, pointed Dutch neck, three-quarter sleeve, long tunic effect; very exclusive style.

At $6.98—Handsome Lay 2-Piece Dresses, waist with low neck, three-quarter skirt extra full skirt with effect; all colors.

Commencing Next Week Our Store Closes Every Thursday at 12.30 Until October 1. ON THURSDAY, JULY 14, WE CLOSE ALL DAY, to allow our Association to enjoy the entire day at their Annual Outing at Nantasket Beach.

A NEW HAT FOR THE HOLIDAY

If you are looking for a place where a dollar can buy two cents worth of merchandise you will find it right here in our Millinery Department. We take every trimmed hat on our counters at Fourth and will endeavor to make them still busier by prices of the past weeks nothing has equalled those we make today. This is the time you have been looking for—buy your outing and vacation hats this week at the lowest prices of the entire season.

Splendid Shirt Waists for Your Holiday

Shirt Waist comfort in the hot weather depends largely on the kind of shirt waists you wear. The comfort giving kind—waists that are crisp, fresh, stylish and perfect fitting—waists that not only look cool but are cool have been gathered together for a grand two days' sale, gathered from the best makers in such numbers and at such prices that you simply won't be able to resist. We call attention to the waists we have to sell at $1.98 (many are regular $3.00 numbers)—they are extraordinary values, but not more so than waists we have marked at 98c, $1.49 and $2.98 for this week's sale.

SPECIAL AT $1.98

Waist of Sheer Lawn—Entire front fine valenciennes insertion and blind embroidery in narrow panels, cross way panel in center. Back of baby tucks and insertion. Sleeve extra length of lace and tucks. One of our regular $3.00 numbers. Special this week. $1.98.

HAMMOCK WEATHER

And there will be plenty more of it. What greater comfort than to swing in a cool cosy Hammock? The porch now becomes the living room so make it attractive with one or more of our specially good Hammocks. We have a large variety to choose from with a price range of 79c to $10 each. Here are two numbers that are of more than ordinary value—

SPECIAL HAMMOCK AT 79c

OUR HAMMOCK LEADER $1.98

Large line of colors, strongly woven bed, loose pillow, spreader and set of ropes—a particularly good number.

Hot Weather Comforts

For the Man of the House

High Class Negligee Shirts of fine quality, colorings and designs, to please particular men. Dressy and cool—the proper shirt for any occasion that does not call for evening dress. A great opportunity for vacation goers. Regular $1.00 numbers. This week. . . . 69c.

Soft Collar Negligee Shirts in white, champagne and blue chambray. Wear one of these on the Fourth and be comfortable. All sizes. This week. . . . 45c.

Jersey Combings, with short sleeves, a very exceptional value. . . . 45c.

Thin Underwear

There's cool comfort being retailed in big packages from our underwear counter these warm days. This section has gathered over a hundred different kinds of the silky, gauzy underwear that mean only comfort for the wearer. Come and take your pick; you will surely be suited in both quality and price, for you know we never sell the trashy kind at any price, and the reliable, well fitting and good wearing kinds can be bought here at prices that will always appeal to prudent buyers. Our window today shows some very attractive numbers—see these and others at the counter. Don't be so uncomfortable these hot days when just a little money can secure comforts such as these.

Gauze Lisle, all kinds, plain and fancy yokes, 12 1-2c, 19c, 25c, 50c.

Silk Lisle, hand crocheted yokes. 75c, $1, $1.25 and $1.50.

Summer Hosiery

There is comfort in knowing that one wears fine hosiery, tasty, perfect fitting, fit to be seen any time. It is gratifying too, to know that it is possible to get fine hosiery of this character at moderate cost. We ask particular attention to the variety of kinds of Fine Gauze Lisle Hose we sell at 50c. Beautifully mercerized, so they look and feel just like silk and the triple heel and toe and garter tops give them wear equal to the less attractive cotton hose at the same price. Black, Tan, White and colors, plain gauze and lace ankle patterns, all at . . . 50c.

great prophet. This sultanate, politically regarded as an integral part of the Philippines, came into the possession of the United States as the result of the Spanish-American war. Under the old regime the group of about 140 islands constituted a vassal domain in the suzerainty of the king of Spain. The authority of the sultan is nominal, but the devotion of his subjects is unquestioned. In a material sense he is wanting in nothing. He receives an annual income from the British North Borneo company in lieu of his sovereign rights in Brunei and owns a fine collection of pearls. He is short and thick set. He wears a slight, black mustache, and his hair is closely cropped. His eyes are small. His attire is picturesque. He can be extremely affable, particularly when the subject of his diminishing power is avoided.

BUILDING COLLAPSED

Falling Into Street in New Bedford and Catching Fire

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 1.—At 9.30 this morning the brick wall of the store house occupied by the Weber Lumber company, its trusses weakened by the collapse of the floor last night, crashed into the street, carrying with it a quantity of lumber which was stored on the second floor, the roof caving in on top of the heap. Intensity was added to the excitement when smoke was seen issuing from the building but the blaze, which was caused by burning insulation, was quickly extinguished by the department.

The room in which the lumber was stored was originally intended for a molding room and the floor was not strong enough to bear the weight of three carloads of stock which were yesterday piled on it. At 8.30 last night the floor fell through, pulling the trusses out of position and causing a sag of two or three feet in the roof. The wall was so weakened by the falling of the floor that this morning it collapsed, bringing the roof down with it.

Fortunately no one was injured, though there were several persons in the immediate vicinity of the building when the crash occurred. At the time of the collapse of the floor last night workmen had not been out of the building more than fifteen minutes. The fire which resulted from the accident amounted to little in itself, though a quantity of cotton waste stored in the basement made a serious blaze possible. The estimate of the damage which was confined to the building itself has not been made but it is expected that it will be considerable.

BIRTHDAYS CELEBRATED

EAST NORTHFIELD, Mass., July 1.—The birthdays of the United States and of Canada were celebrated today by the several hundred delegates attending the Northfield conference here. It has been the custom of the American delegates at the convention to observe the patriotic celebrations on the Fourth of July, but this year many early commencements have necessitated the ending of the conference on July 3rd. Because of the early ending of the convention the American delegates decided to join the Canadian delegates in their celebration of the Canadian dominion on July 1 by celebrating the Fourth today.

PRICE OF COAL ADVANCING

The coal dealers have announced an increase of 25 cents per ton in the price of coal. They offer two reasons for the increase. On one reason is that they have agreed to advance the wages of their teamsters $1 a week, and the second reason is that the wholesale price of coal has been advanced 30 cents per ton, the advance taking effect today. The dealers claim the price of coal. They offer two reasons for the increase. One reason June of the present year than in any previous year.

CAPITALIST KILLED BY ELEVATOR

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—John William Hallahan was caught between the floor and car and killed late last night when he stepped from a hotel elevator at Cape May, N. J., after the car had started. He married Florence O'Day, a daughter of the late Daniel O'Day, the Standard Oil millionaire. She is spending the summer at New London, Conn.

MAY BE SUICIDE

MEDFORD, Mass., July 1.—The body of C. S. Sargent, of Somerville, was found today in front of West Hall, Tufts college. A medical examiner said death was due to poison. It is believed he committed suicide.

REDUCE YOUR COST OF LIVING

How? By following out what Ben Franklin said: "A PENNY SAVED IS A PENNY EARNED." We can help you save many a penny if you come to this store where you will get more for same money than elsewhere.

In as convincing a way as it is possible for us to tell you, in all sincerity we say to you if you will take a little time and compare the values we give with what you get elsewhere you will agree with us when we make the claim of being the store for a big dollar's worth. As makers of the majority of all the clothing we handle you buy direct from manufacturer to purchaser, there being no middleman's profit, hence you save this difference.

BOY SHOT DEAD

Accident in Camp Near Stroudwater

PORTLAND, Me., July 1.—Robert Stanley Dufresne, a boy of 13, was shot and instantly killed yesterday afternoon by John Pickett, a boy aged 12, at a camp near Stroudwater, where they had been camping out with two other boys for several days. The Pickett boy had an old revolver and withdrew the cartridge, but when the Dufresne boy said teasingly, "You couldn't hit me," he slipped in a cartridge and, as he thought, moved the chamber so as to bring the hammer opposite a blank space, and said, "What will you bet?" The Dufresne boy said, "My life!" He pulled the trigger there was an explosion, and to his horror his friend dropped dead. Police Chief Dresser notified Coroner Martin and Asst. County Atty. Bodge, and an inquest will be held as a matter of fact.

AIRSHIP AT LAKEVIEW

The unusual picture of an enormous airship flying through the air at the rate of 20 or more miles an hour will be presented at Lakeview park every afternoon and evening during next week, arrangements having been made by the Boston & Northern Street Railway company with Mr. Strobel, who is generally known as the King of the Air, for the exhibition of one of his famous dirigible balloons. Mr. Strobel has, under his management, some of the most famous navigators of the air in the country and one of the best of them, Mr. E. J. Parker of Rochester, N. Y., will be present to operate the machine. Mr. Strobel himself has made many sensational flights but as he has taken on years he has also taken on flesh, which is not particularly conducive to expertness in the operation of the modern airship. Mr. Strobel has perfected the dirigible balloon to the extent that with anything like ordinary weather he is practically sure of making the flight. Of course, in a gale he would not be able to do so. Under ordinary conditions the ship will travel at least 20 miles an hour and has a record of over 100 miles beyond that. It is under the most absolutely perfect control and presents a very unusual and interesting spectacle.

The ship which Mr. Parker will operate and which will be at Lakeview park is one of the largest that has been made in this country, being 55 feet long and 14 feet in diameter. It is however extremely light, the whole outfit including the weight of the operator being not over 250 pounds. If the conditions are right Monday afternoon it is quite probable that the airship will take a little pleasure tour over the city of Lowell itself, although this has not as yet been definitely decided. It will certainly make a flight above Mescalup lake and the neighboring territory.

HARVARD'S DAY

Crimson Oarsmen in Good Shape at the Finish

NEW LONDON, Conn., July 1.—Harvard's varsity crew rowed steadily under the railroad bridge at the end of the four mile course late yesterday afternoon a winner by six lengths over eight tired Elis pulling their oars on sheer nerve. The powerful beat of the Harvard stroke hardly varied from the time that the first start of the racing start settled down into the steadier grind. Nor did Yale's efforts, always a trifle faster, let up until the last few hundred yards of the distance. Harvard simply rowed away, winning by power and persistent sticking to a careful plan of action. Yale was beaten, although no one really knew it, when the Harvard shell nosed a trifle ahead at the two mile mark. Yale was really out of the race at the three mile flag, when a length and a half open water rippled between the boats.

Even then Ben Wallis, stroking the Blue crew, kept them at it, driving them as fast as they could stand and as fast as his own waning strength would permit. After the boats crossed the line Wallis' hands left the sweep. His arms and back kept up on in the

MAN IS MISSING

F. M. Burke of 528 Walnut street, Cincinnati, Ohio, is anxious to find Nathaniel H. White, and has written to the local police to endeavor to locate him. The writer says that White is about 52 years of age, bald, stands about five feet, eight inches, and had a brother, William White, in this city.

TRYING TO FIND FATHER

Annie Butler, aged 12 years, residing in Skowhegan, Me., has written to the police asking them to endeavor to locate her father, John Butler, a spinner by occupation. She said that the last time she heard from him he was residing at 15 Linson, Linden or Lincoln street in this city. She writes that she is in a destitute condition and would like to have her father care for her.

Man Charged With Robbing Lowell Man

BOSTON, July 1.—James P. Crombie, 28 years old, of 42 Walter avenue, Brookline, was in Roxbury district court yesterday charged with robbing Dr. Antonio Vrahos, a former resident of Lowell and brutally assaulting Miss Margaret Gavin of South Boston in the Back Bay ten last Friday evening. The accused waived reading of the complaint and being unable to get $3000 bail in each case, was sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

YOUTH ESCAPED

CRAWLED THROUGH REGISTER AND MADE HIS ESCAPE

WINCHESTER, July 1.—Charles Quigley, 15 years of age, a youth of slender build, is the only prisoner who has succeeded in getting out of the Winchester lockup. He was in court in Woburn yesterday morning and was sentenced to the Concord reformatory on a charge of being idle and disorderly. Chief McIntosh brought him back from court shortly before 10 yesterday morning and locked him in the detention room while he attended to some other duties, intending to take the 1 p. m. train for Concord. When the chief returned for his prisoner he found that he had made his escape. This he did by jumping from a chair in the room and pulling himself up on a water pipe near the ceiling of the room. From this he climbed onto a hot air furnace pipe and in this cramped position succeeded in pushing the last section of the furnace pipe and the register up into the town hall auditorium. He was then able to crawl up through the register opening, which measured 10 by 14 1/2 inches in the clear.

Shortly before noon Michael McCawley, the janitor of the town hall, heard someone walking in the hall and on investigation found Quigley crouching in a corner. McCawley seized him. Quigley put up a fight and McCawley pulled him down the back entrance of the hall out onto the walk near the police station. Here the struggle continued. McCawley got him up against the building and held him there for fully 10 minutes, hoping that assistance would arrive. In changing his hold Quigley succeeded in freeing himself and when last seen was going up Washington street toward Montvale.

BABY CARNIVAL

TO BE HELD AT LAKEVIEW JULY 12 AND 13

Babyland in all its splendor will hold full sway at Lakeview park on July 12 and 13, when the babies and little girls of Lowell will have their innings at the annual baby show, decorated baby carriage parade and schoolgirls' white dress floral parade, which is given under the auspices of the Boston & Northern Street Railway company. This season the management of the big event is pleased to announce that Mr. McRivie will be in personal charge of the "carnival of the babe," which is a positive guarantee to the hundreds of mothers and fathers whose children annually take part in the big festival, that everything connected with the show and parade will be of the best of management. Mr. McRivie is the originator of the baby show and conducted the very successful event held at Lowell two seasons ago, but who was unable to be here last summer. Mr. McRivie will make it the biggest affair of the kind ever held in this vicinity. The two-day carnival will begin on July 12 afternoon with the baby show and decorated coach parade and the judging of the baby classes and carriages, and the second day will be devoted to the schoolgirls' white dress parade and the awarding of all prizes. The prize list consists of thirty grand prizes, the value of which is $350. The grand prize to the mother of the most beautiful baby in Lowell will be a high grade sewing machine. Besides the premiums which will be awarded to the babies in the contests, every baby entered in any of the ten classes will receive a beautiful doll, so that all the children taking part will be remembered.

WILLOW DALE

CONCERT SUNDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING BY QUARTET

Next Sunday both afternoon and evening the Apollo Male quartet of Boston will be heard in concerts at Willow Dale. This quartet offers a program of unusual interest and though the singers are highly trained their program is decidedly popular in subjects. The Apollo quartet has been a feature in star course entertainments all over this section of the country for years and they have always been finely received. Their long association with the quality of their work and the engagement at Willow Dale affords music lovers a fine chance to again hear this talented organization under the best possible conditions. No charge will be made for these concerts and every facility for easy and satisfied hearing of them will be provided by the management of Willow Dale.

GAS FRANCHISE

Passed By the Haverhill Board

HAVERHILL, July 1.—After hearing charges and counter charges by various citizens that the proposed franchise for the Haverhill gas light company was a steal, and that politics had been played between the members of the council and the corporation agents, the board of five, by a vote of four to one, granted a new franchise and accepted a new gas agreement for the consumers, with the provisions that gas shall be furnished for 80 cents, a reduction of 10 cents from the present rate. Also at the end of one year, the rate will be further reduced to 85 cents and when the consumption reaches 450,000,000 cubic feet, which it is figured will be from seven and a half to 8.5 years, the rate will be 80 cents. The third in a series of public meetings was held previous to the vote being taken, and for three hours legal talent clashed, prominent and influential citizens spoke both for and against municipal ownership and the situation reached a more acute stage than has ever before been reached. It was finally evident that the crowd stood in favor of having the question of granting a franchise put up to them at the city election, for at every utterance leading to favor that purchase there were loud bursts of applause. Alderman Joe W. Bean was alone in his stand against the granting of the franchise, he having for many weeks attempted to influence his colleagues that the proper course was to allow the people to decide the question. His efforts were in vain, however. Ex-City Solicitor Abbott has threatened to recall the franchise of the council because of their attitudes, and Attorney Essex S. Abbott has filed a legal notice that he will take the case to the equity courts of the commonwealth in an effort to restrain the city government from carrying out its plan. The situation has created a general feeling of unrest, which, it is said, will have its outcome in the declaring of a candidate for mayor who will be pledged to municipal ownership of public utilities. Alderman Bean, who has championed the cause for a long time, is mentioned.

LAKEVIEW THEATRE

The crowds at Lakeview theatre this week have increased steadily, and everyone seems well pleased with the bright, breezy little comedy that is being presented every afternoon and evening for their approval. The story is well told and the situations are strong enough to hold the interest of the audience from the first to the final curtain. Mr. James Thibault, in the leading role of "Ernie Madell," who gets into all sorts of trouble through his getting mixed up in the names of two girls, one with whom he is in love and the other whom he does not know is very funny. The scenic and electrical effects are good and the whole makes a comedy of considerable strength, well staged and acted, and in keeping with the high standard of plays that are being offered this season. Next week a romantic melodrama will be the attraction, called "A Western Romance." It is, as one would imagine from the title, a western piece and is full of thrilling incidents with a delightful love story running all the way through it, which it seems ought to make it highly acceptable and pleasing for the holiday week. The leading role, "Jack o' Diamonds," which was made famous a few years ago by one of America's leading actors, will be played by Mr. James Thibault, who has fully demonstrated that his talents are not confined to the depicting of rural characters, but that he can capably handle any part he may be called upon to enact.

THEATRE VOYONS

Today's feature at the Theatre Voyons, "The Great Train Holdup," is one of the best productions of Pathé's American company, and it has all the thrill and sensation that the best American makes have, together with the careful staging and fine photography of the imported pictures. Herbert LeRoy lectures on the biograph subject and brings out the particularly touching and interesting story of child life. A real comedy and an interesting scenic subject also are on the program and the musical selections are worthy of the attention of anyone. The Theatre Voyons is exclusively showing the best pictures produced by the firms of Pathé, Biograph, Essanay, Lubin, Vitagraph, Edison, Gaiety and Urban. These films are rated as the best in the world and are the most expensive.

COUNT ZEPPELIN GOING AHEAD BUILDING MORE AIRSHIPS NOTWITHSTANDING MANY ACCIDENTS

BERLIN, July 1.—Count Zeppelin promises to give Germany safe air crafts before the summer is over. The count is going to have a hard time convincing a score of newspaper men that riding in the air is still an everyday occurrence. European papers are teeming with adjectives from the 20 correspondents who were the guests of the count when the Deutschland landed in a tree. All the writers agree that they were scared and are willing to let their brother writers take the next trip.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE

Woman Opened the Veins in Her Wrist

ALLENSTEIN, East Prussia, July 1.—Fran Von Schoenbeck Weber, charged with complicity in the murder of her husband, an army officer, attempted suicide today by opening the veins of the wrist. Physicians hope to save her life.

Major Von Schoenbeck was killed on Christmas eve, 1908, by her admirer, Captain Von Goeben, who subsequently confessed and took his own life.

FUNERAL OF BISHOP McVICKAR

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 1.—Many bishops and other clergy and hundreds of lay citizens today honored the memory of Right Rev. William N. McVicker, D. D., L. L. D., Episcopal bishop of Rhode Island. Following several morning services of requiem at various churches and lying in state from noon until 2 p. m., the funeral was held at St. John's church at 2:30 o'clock.

The funeral was conducted by Rt. Rev. Chauncey Bance Brester, D. D., bishop of Connecticut, assisted by Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Gaylor, S. D., bishop of Tennessee; Rt. Rev. Arthur C. A. Hall, D. D., L. L. D., bishop of Vermont, and Rt. Rev. Robert Codman, D. D., bishop of Maine. There was no eulogy. Nearly 2000 persons viewed the features of Bishop McVicker last night and from 12 to 2 p. m. today.

While the body lay in St. John's church, details from twenty of the clergy kept vigil. Over 200 telegrams of condolence have been received in this city from bishops of the Anglican church in all parts of the world.

DEEPER WATERWAYS ASS'N.
PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—Congressman J. ## Hurrah for the Fourth! Hurrah for the Great Sale!

People thought that there was trouble at our store last Saturday night on account of the large number of people that was there at one time. The cause for the big crowd was that we were advertising to sell the latest styles of summer suits for about half what they are charging in other clothing stores, and they were taking advantage of our Big Special Sale, and in their purchases they got what they wanted and saved money enough to have a good time on the Fourth. You can do the same if you call.

WOMAN ARRESTED

It is Alleged That She Attempted Suicide

Mary Plumley, it is said, attempted to end her life about seven o'clock this morning, when she tried to throw herself in the water of the Pawtucket canal in the vicinity of the guard locks of the Locks & Canals corporation in Broadway.

People in the vicinity of the place saw the woman walk into what is known as Thompson's field. There she started to disrobe herself and was about to make the plunge into the water when one of the employees of the Wilson Coal Co. which is located on the opposite side of the street, rushed over and grabbed her.

Word was sent to the police station and the patrol wagon was sent to the scene and she was locked up.

The woman had been following the Barnum & Bailey circus and appeared in police court on June 11, the day after the arrests were made. At that time she was arrested for drunkenness and put up a pitiful plea for clemency and was given three days to leave the city.

Instead of leaving Lowell, however, she went to reside in Tyler street, and it is said that she has been doing work about the city since that time.

When brought into court this morning she presented a very weak appearance, and while other cases were being disposed of she fainted away and had to be carried out of the court room.

The only complaint charged against her was that of drunkenness, and she entered a plea of not guilty. She said that she was sick, but not drunk, but her condition was such that the court decided that a rest would do her good and she was sentenced to three months in jail.

her. The fact that he was unsteady in his aim is the only thing that saved the girl's life. Later when Patrolman Napoleon Provencher went to arrest him he assaulted the officer and the latter now nursing sprains and bruises about the face and lower limbs.

Slain, it is said, has been on a protracted spree and arrived at his home early this morning. He was going about the house like a maniac and his wife and daughters tried to quiet him, but without avail. He was raising such a rumpus that the police in the neighborhood were disturbed in their sleep and later were alarmed to hear the reports of shots from a revolver.

For no apparent reason he seemed to want to revenge himself upon his 14-year old daughter, Ellen F., and when she tried to quiet him he pulled out a 32-caliber revolver and fired two shots at her. The shots imbedded themselves in the wall and immediately afterward the wife and children got out of the house.

Thinking that he might quiet down, neither Mrs. Slain nor the children left the house, but about 2:45 o'clock Slain went on the rampage again and threatened to shoot every occupant of the house. Mrs. Slain then left the house and went in search of a police officer.

When she reached Pawtucket square she met Patrolman Napoleon Provencher, who was on his way home after doing his work on the early night shift. She told him her story and he immediately went to the nearest patrol box and telephoned the police station. He was advised to try to break up the furniture. Patrolman Provencher went around to the door in the rear of the house and after gaining an entrance came across Slain.

Slain, upon seeing the officer, who at that time was in citizen's clothes, made a jump for him and struck him on the nose, on the head and about the body. The two then clinched and went down to the floor and during the scuffle the infuriated man sunk his teeth into Patrolman Provencher's thigh.

Slain, however, was subdued, placed in the patrol wagon and taken to the police station.

Slain when arraigned in court this morning gave every appearance of having been on a long debauch. He was trembling, his voice was coarse and his speech indistinct.

He was charged with drunkenness, assault and battery on a police officer and assault with a pistol. He entered pleas of not guilty to each complaint and asked for a continuance, claiming that he would not be ready for trial until he secured the services of a lawyer.

While he wanted the case continued till tomorrow, the court decided to put the matter over until next Tuesday, holding him under $800 bonds for his appearance.

BOGUS CHECKS

MAY BE ATTEMPTED TO BE PASSED IN THIS CITY

Business people and citizens in general are warned to be on the lookout for bogus checks which may be attempted to be passed in this city. A number of checks were recently stolen from the Osborn Mfg. Co. in New Durham, N. H., and the man who stole them has worked several of them.

The following letter received at the local police station is self-explanatory:

Bogus checks are being circulated in New Hampshire, purporting to be drawn on the Rochester Loan & Banking company, and signed by the Osborn Mfg. Co., E. E. Rice, resident manager, countersigned by B. E. Gleason. Checks are for small amounts, less than $15. The checks are printed on the end, may roll check, not over $15. Some of the checks are numbered, and some are not numbered. All checks that are not numbered are bogus. The following numbers which are printed in red ink, on each check, are bogus, No. 10,001 to 10,109 inclusive No. 12,896 to 12,100 inclusive. The checks are made payable to Edward Blake, Edward Blair, Edward Parker and probably other names.

The checks that are numbered as above were stolen from the office of the Osborn Mfg. Co., New Durham, N. H. Checks that are not numbered were evidently printed by the perpetrator.

He generally operates through merchants by purchasing some small article, represented as 22 or 25 years old, smooth face, 5 lb. 6 to 8 inches tall, weight 150 pounds. Was in Haverhill two or three days ago. Travels from place to place. Good plan to notify your merchants and banks as a protection.

PARR GETS $20,000

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Secretary MacVane today sent to Richard Parr, the New York customs deputy, a treasury warrant for $20,000 in part payment of the award to him of $100,000 for his vigilance in detecting underground rackets at New York. For the sum of $50,000 the secretary will ask congress to make a special appropriation.

HAVERHILL VOTERS

Want to Abolish the School Board of That City

HAVERHILL, July 1.—By operating the initiative clause of the new city charter, 35 per cent. of the voters of the city may have placed upon the ballot at the next city election the question of whether or not the municipal council shall petition the legislature for the abolition of the school board. This fact came to light yesterday when a half dozen or more petitions were put in circulation. The plan, briefly outlined, is that there shall be an educational department within the municipal council and the superintendent of schools shall have full power, with a tenure of office of four years. The plan is to wipe out the present school board of four members, the mayor being a member ex-officio, and in its stead have the municipal council act as a supervisor over the superintendent of schools. In order to divorce politics from the affairs of the educational system it is proposed the superintendent shall be elected for a term of four years, but his salary shall be established every year. The municipal council, according to the provisions of the petition, would direct the expenditures of all large sums of money and there would be an alderman in charge of the department. Attack on Present Board. The petition is an attack on the present school board and the manner it has done business. It charges that recent filibusters of the school committee have tended to unnerve the corps of 200 instructors in the public schools, and that "politics plays an important part in the guiding of the educational system of Haverhill." Continuing, the petition says the undersigned see no reason to believe that these conditions will be checked, at least with the present personnel of the committee. Also the petitioners say that "we regret to perceive that Haverhill, instead of taking a step forward in the educational world, is really going backward."

Those behind the movement say that an effort will be made to get at least 25 per cent. of the voters to sign documents in order that it shall be the duty of the council to put the question on the city ballot. If 10 per cent. of the total number of voters sign the petitions, the matter will have to be settled at the polls, according to the provisions of section 42 of chapter 87A, acts of 1908, although if 25 per cent. is secured the municipal council would have to call a special election if it were demanded. The feeling among the agitators is, however, that the city election would be ample time to press the matter, as by postponing until then the expense of a special election will be saved. The legal procedure necessary, in order to put the petition in effect, would have to be favorably acted upon by a majority of the voters at the next city election; the municipal council then would have to pass the ordinance unchanged and at the opening of the 1911 session of the state legislature a bill covering the points at issue would be offered. Those behind the movement say they have no doubt but what if the people accept the terms of the petition that the legislature will ratify their action.

The petition is an aftermath of the recent troubles that certain sections of the city and certain individuals have had with the committee, and in view of the notoriety that has been given the recent meetings of the board, because of the sensational features that developed, those behind the movement say that they have no doubt the petitions will meet the hearty and instant approval of the voters, as, in their mind, some change is demanded. As far as is known, this case is the first one in New England where there has been an attempt made to abolish the school board, and for that reason many people await with interest what the leading educators of the state think about the proposition. Public opinion seems to be about evenly divided, although everyone admits the petition comes like a thunder burst from a clear sky. They say they see many advantages in the plan as outlined, and although they do not want to go on record now as favoring it, they have made it known that they do favor certain provisions and the general idea.

FIRE AT WIFE

Pet Dog Saved Woman's Life

BOSTON, July 1.—How a pet dog saved the life of his mistress at the expense of his own was told today in the municipal court where Andrew Ella was charged with attempting to kill his wife. Following a dispute last night, Ella is alleged to have drawn a revolver and fired at his wife. The bullet killed a little fox terrier she held in her arms. As it fell to the floor dead, Mrs. Ella, fainting, was rescued by the dog. When Mrs. Ella revived she declared her husband had been acting queerly for several days.

Lomax, who has resigned as general passenger agent of the Union Pacific, to become passenger traffic manager of the Western Pacific. The position of passenger traffic manager is a new one for the Union Pacific.

ECZEMA—A GERM DISEASE—CAN NOW BE CURED.

The medical profession is all agreed that ECZEMA is a germ disease, but the thing that has baffled them is to find some remedy that will get to the germs and destroy them. Zemo, the clean, external treatment has solved this difficulty by drawing the germs to the surface of the skin and destroying the germ life that causes the diseases. The whole method of treatment and cure by ZEMO is explained in an interesting book on the subject issued by the makers of ZEMO. It tells how to cure yourself at home of Eczema, Blackheads, Pimples, Dandruff, and all diseases of the skin and scalp. Call at A. W. Dows & Co.'s drug store for Booklet and learn more about this clean, simple remedy that is now recognized the standard treatment for all diseases of the skin and scalp.

MAN ARRESTED

Is Charged With Attempt to Kill

BOSTON, July 1.—"Baby," a pet fox terrier, was shot and killed by a bullet, probably saving the life of her mistress, Mrs. Julia Ella, who was carrying the animal by the tenement block at 15 Auburn court, shortly before 6 o'clock last night. Immediately following the shooting Andrew Ella was arrested by officers of station 3, charged with assault with a loaded revolver with intent to kill his wife. The arrested man, 38 years old, and according to the police has been acting strangely during the past week. When questioned about the case last night he refused to talk, though he did not appear to fully realize the seriousness of the charge against him. Mrs. Ella is also 38 years old, and has lived with her husband in the Auburn court house for about a year.

"Baby," the dog, was the pet of the Ella family, and last night Mrs. Ella was caressing the animal while she carried it about the kitchen. Her husband became involved at something that was said and drawing a revolver, fired one shot. According to the police the shot was aimed at his wife, but it struck the dog, which was lying in her arms.

Mrs. Ella screamed and fainted, dropping to the floor, while the dog fell at her side, dead. Neighbors were attracted by the shot and notified Lieut. O'Rourke, who was in charge at the Joy street station, a short distance away. Sergt. Brooks and Patrolman Foley ran to the house, where they found the woman lying on the floor and the dog by her side. At first it was thought that the woman had also been shot, but after a few minutes she revived and told her story of the shooting.

Ella was then taken to the station, while neighbors cared for the woman. The dog was also taken in charge by the police. The animal, it was found, had been shot through the heart, receiving the bullet which would probably have killed Mrs. Ella.

CITY HALL NEWS

Matter of the Convenience Station

The special committee on convenience station will meet at the city hall at 8 o'clock tonight. Where to locate the station is the question, and the committee will ask the assistance of the board of health in the matter. Councilman Chapman, chairman of the committee, had a conference with Engineer Mills of the Locks & Canals company relative to a location. It had been suggested that the station might be located over the canal in the rear of the Howe building, but Mr. Mills said that owing to the work that is going on in the canal the station could not be allowed there. The question of location will be thrashed out by the committee tonight.

Mayor Meehan has signed the order for the closing of the office at

TWO ALARMS

LOCAL FIREMEN WERE KEPT ON THE MOVE

An alarm from box 125 shortly after 11 o'clock this morning summoned a portion of the fire department to a slight blaze in a house in Merrimack street opposite Race street. Some person carelessly threw a lighted match into a wood box and in a few moments the contents were ablaze. A stream from the extinguisher quenched the fire. Defective Chimney. At 6.45 o'clock this morning a portion of the department was called to a fire in the building at the corner of Middlesex and Eliot Sts. belonging to John J. Donnelly. The fire was caused by a defective chimney, but before the firemen arrived a bureau and the interior of the room was badly damaged.

CANALS SHOULD BE WELL FENCED IN

Some time ago we intimated the need of better protection along some of the canals. It seems that these swift flowing water-ways are not sufficiently guarded at all points and that as a result there are drownings and accidents that might be avoided. Wherever the fencing of the canals is deficient, the Locks and Canals company can be forced to make the enclosure complete as a protection for children and others.

ABOUT SCHOOL LUNCHEES

There is very keen competition in some places for the privilege of providing school lunches. Where the privilege is not let to some particular party a lot of itinerant vendors are usually given free access to school yards with candy and confectionery that might be guaranteed to produce dyspepsia. This is wrong. The pupils cannot very well be prevented from buying where they please, but they should be cautioned against purchasing from peddlers of cheap candy and ice cream, and urged to patronize only reputable stores.

ROOSEVELT'S SUPPORT FOR LODGE

It is evident that the Roosevelts will go any length for Senator Lodge. Even "Nick" Longworth has been drafted to speak for the senator. Col. Roosevelt has visited the senator at his home and later on will come out with all the emphasis at his command in support of the senator's candidacy for re-election. That will show the Rooseveltian devotion to boss rule; for, with the exception of Speaker Cannon, Senator Aldrich and Congressman Dalzell of Pennsylvania, there is no more uncompromising supporter of the republican machine than Senator Lodge. His defense of the tariff, his efforts to show that neither tariff nor trusts are responsible for the high cost of living are proof of this. His mission is to keep the republican party in power no matter how disastrous that may prove to the country.

NO WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC

The report of the special grand jury of which John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was chairman, goes to show that the white slave traffic does not exist in New York as had been represented. The investigation was very full and complete and while it disclosed the existence of vice and even dens of disrepute, yet the result is not worse, nor quite as bad as might be found in most large cities. It is gratifying to find that the allegations of certain alarmists are not sustained in this respect. The grand jury kept up its investigation until it probed the worst dives in New York, but even then there was nothing to prove that dens of infamy were being maintained under the protection of Tammany Hall, or that white women were bought and sold as slaves to pursue a life of shame for the financial benefit of their masters. Occasional cases do not prove a systematic business nor do they justify the charge that the White Slave traffic is rampant.

THE REMEDY IS EASY

If the tariff were removed from cattle there would be enough cattle come here from Argentina to bring down the price of meat. Either that or an export duty on American cattle is the only remedy. Why do the American people submit to the imposition, knowing that the American beef trust ships cattle on the hoof to England and sells the beef there 25 per cent. cheaper than in this country.

The republican party stands by the trust against any reduction in the tariff. That is why we should have a change in the administration.

Owing to the constitution we cannot have a change for two years more; but if the republicans be elected to power again there is no telling what the great trusts may decide to do. The people are goaded to the breaking point by class privilege and extortion authorized, approved and legalized by the republican party. The people have the power in their own hands, and if they do not use it when the time comes, they will have but themselves to blame. It is now eighteen years since the people dared to vote against the republican party.

THE ROOSEVELT-HUGHES EPISODE

Col. Roosevelt before landing on American soil sent a message to the American public asserting that he would have nothing to say of American politics until a couple of months after his return. He is now home a little over a week and he has already come out flatly in favor of the reform policies advocated by Governor Hughes in New York state. He has made an appeal, he says, as strongly as he could to the officials of New York to uphold the policies of Governor Hughes.

We had our misgivings as to Roosevelt's ability to remain silent so long on political matters and this interference in behalf of Governor Hughes has proved the accuracy of our judgment.

The action of the New York legislature in doing the very thing Col. Roosevelt appealed to them not to do, indicates that the Roosevelt dictatorship will not be accepted. Col. Roosevelt is no longer in office and it is not to be expected that men duly elected will sink their own judgment and allow themselves to be used as mere puppets by a man who has already assumed the role of political dictator and who apparently thinks he is the only man in the country who knows just what should be done. The rebuke administered by the New York legislature is a proper answer to his interference in a political controversy that is best understood by the men on the ground.

It is expected in some quarters that Governor Hughes will reconvene the legislature in order to have the action on the primary election bill reversed, but we do not believe he will dare to. The result might be even a more severe repudiation of the Roosevelt mandate.

SEEN AND HEARD

THE SONG OF THE SOUTHWESTER

(Harry Newhall.)

The sun was lost in a leaden sky
And the shore lay under our feet.
When a great sou'wester hurried high
Came rolling up the sea.
He played with the fleet as a boy with boats.

Till out for the Downs we ran,
And he laughed with the roar of a thousand thunder throats
At the militant ways of man.

Oh, I am the enemy most of might,
The other be you please to call me.
Gunner and gun may all be right,
Flare a-flying and armor tight.
But I am the fellow you're first to fight.

The giant that swings the seas!
Chasing the X they love.
While the table cruised long and slow.

And the lamps were giddy above,
The lesson was all of a slip and a shot.
And some of it may have been true,
But the word they heard and never forgot.

Was the word of the wind that blew—
Oh, I am the enemy most of might,
etc.

The middy with luck is a captain soon;
With luck he may hear one day
His own big guns a-humming the tune,
"Twas in 1776 that I sailed away."
But wherever he goes, with friends or foes,

And whatever may there befall,
He'll have forever a voice he knows,
Forever defying them all—
Oh, I am the enemy most of might,
etc.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Dr. Francis Newton Thorpe has accepted a call to the chair of constitutional history at the Western University of Pennsylvania, at Pittsburgh, to take effect upon his return from a year's trip to Germany, on which he will leave soon with his family. He is a former member of the faculty of the University of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Cecil Sorel, the actress who is described as the best dressed woman in Paris—she holds that $20,000 a year is the lowest sum on which a woman can clothe herself without a loss of self-respect—is adopted a new hobby. At her last in the Avenue des Champs Elysees she keeps two lion cubs, and from contemplation of her green eyed pets she has evolved a scheme of philosophy which is somewhat tinged with misanthropy.

Queen Marguerite of Italy once arrived in a town where great preparations had been made to do her honor. The mayor was on hand to escort her to the room where luncheon was served, but the queen declined to eat anything, saying the air she needed was a glass of water and a sandwich. At the end of this frugal repast she was about to take her handkerchief from her pocket to wipe her lips, when the mayor, misinterpreting her action, bowed and said: "Your majesty, need not trouble yourself. I can assure you the lunch is all paid for."

Robert Herrick, who is quoted as saying that he feels "there is nothing so sophistically speaking, no such thing as true realism in art," thus describes the influences with which he came in contact, until he reached the age of twenty-six, at Harvard University:

There I acquired my first ideals of literature. Flaubert and Dostoevsky were in the air; and when I first began to write I was dominated by the French idea of art, reinforced possibly by certain Gallic traits in my own temperament—not an uncommon thing in the New England stock. Gradually, during the last ten years, as I have written my novels, I have come to repudiate quite fully those French ideals, at least so far as the novel form is concerned. The restriction of the scheme of the novel to a single line of art seems to me not at all characteristic of our race, and I now regard the French influence upon American novelists, largely at second hand—as distinctly deplorable.

Miss Ethel Vipon has the distinction of being what is declared to be the first woman reader to be employed in a cigar factory in Chicago. Following the custom in cigar shops in Cuba and in many other parts of the world, M. Newland, proprietor of a cigar making company, has employed Miss Vipon to read to the men in working hours from the newspapers, popular works of fiction and standard books of different kinds. According to the proprietor, the men like the plan and are able to make more cigars than before the custom was established. Miss Vipon arrives in the morning as early as do the men. When the latter start their work she takes her seat at a table and begins her reading. Often the first story is the account of a baseball game. Then follows the news of the day and fiction of a magazine article.

"Like the work," said Miss Vipon, whose weekly income from her reading consists of $3.00 from the men and 25 cents from each worker, "though it sometimes affects my throat a little. On the whole, however, it is pleasing."

Mrs. Florence Morse Kingsley lives and works for the greater part of the year in a big, old-fashioned house on Staten Island. In a way this house is a historical landmark; it has certainly stood on its present site since the early part of the last century and witnessed the growth of most of the towns and suburbs which make up picturesque Richmond Borough. When the Kingsleys bought it some fifteen years ago it was known as "the old Jewett mansion." A previous tenant had been no other than the redoubtable William Cady, better known as "Buffalo Bill." One may find bits of description of the old house in many of Mrs. Kingsley's stories, all of which, except "Titus," were written under its roof.

Great Britain has three newspapers and two magazines devoted to the interest of woman suffrage. Holland, Denmark, Norway, Germany, Austria, Russia, Finland, Iceland, France, Switzerland, Bulgaria, Hungary and Poland have one paper each, while Belgium and Turkey have each one woman's magazine which advocates giving women the ballot.

Announcement is made by George W. Cable, the author, of Northampton, of the engagement of his daughter, Miss Lucy Lettingwell Cable and Henry Wolf Birkie of Philadelphia. Mr. Birkie is the son of Dr. Philip M. Birkie, dean and professor of Law in Pennsylvania college at Gettysburg. The wedding will take place in the early autumn. Mr. Cable and his daughter recently were visitors at Rocky Neck, East Gloucester.

The anti-suffragists of Illinois have issued a pamphlet in which they say that the men of the country are at last wakening up to the dangers of woman suffrage. Herebefore, they say, men have taken the position that it was a question women should decide for themselves. Now realizing the dangers, they have come out strongly against giving women the ballot. In proof of this statement they point to recent utterances of Senator Elmer Root, Nicholas Murray Butler and the Rev. Jayman Abbott. They also say that a protest is being circulated in Massachusetts which has already been signed by 150 influential men.

Mrs. D. B. Buffum of Roswell, N. M., is said to be the only woman in the country who holds a commission as deputy game warden. She was at one time a teacher in Nebraska and when her health failed she moved to New Mexico with the intention of starting a chicken ranch. Soon after her arrival for shooting quail out of season, and from then on the game laws have been strictly observed in her neighborhood.

The trustees of the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute at Alabama at a meeting in the rooms of the general assembly at the city of New York, added to the board Theodore Roosevelt, Frank Trumbull, chairman of the board of directors of the Chesapeake & Ohio railway, and Charles E. Mason of the firm of S. D. Warren & Co., Boston. The motion to elect Col. Roosevelt as a trustee was made by W. W. Campbell, Alabama banker and vice president of the board. Col. Roosevelt had already signified his willingness to accept membership.

The death of E. H. Harriman has not halted in the least the elaborate plans which he made for the extension and beautifying of his vast estate in Orange county. While Mrs. Harriman has placed in the hands of her daughter, now Mrs. Charles Carey Rumsey, the management of the estate she, of course, still retains the final say concerning the expenditure of money or the purchase of property. Mrs. Harriman is a very active worker through Orange county buying up one farm after another, and since the death of her husband she has added thousands of acres to the estate. The entire property owned by the Harrimans now is estimated at 35,000 acres, 10,000 acres having been given to the state. Mrs. Harriman is expending almost $500,000 a year on the estate at present, and not counting the cost of land, it is estimated that at least $4,000,000 has been spent there. More than 600 men are kept busy building roads through the property.

Herbert C. Collar, principal of the Charlton high school, was elected principal of Holden high school at a special meeting of the school committee. Thirty candidates had applied for the position, but the committee unanimously elected Mr. Collar to fill the position made vacant by the resignation of A. K. Laurel. Mr. Collar's home is in Dorchester. He was graduated from Dartmouth college in the class of '99. He has passed a year in study abroad. He is 34 years old and has had eight years' experience as a teacher. After he was graduated from Dartmouth, he was in business with the American Book Co. He was then engaged as a teacher of modern languages in the Stone school in Boston. Wishing to change from private school life to a public school life he was engaged as principal of the Charlton high school.

LESTER CUSHMAN

PLACED ON TRIAL ON CHARGE OF MANSLAUGHTER

BOSTON, July 1.—The trial of Lester D. Cushman on a charge of manslaughter was commenced at the East Cambridge court house at 3.30 p. m. yesterday. The charge grew out of the death of Miss Myra L. Swift of Medford, a Wellesley College student, who was killed on the night of the Harvard-Dartmouth football game last fall, as the result of injuries received in collision between Cushman's automobile and a coal team on Mystic avenue, Somerville.

Six witnesses were heard during the afternoon session, which continued until nearly 5 o'clock, when Judge Stevens adjourned court to 9.30 a. m. today. The testimony introduced yesterday was chiefly concerning the speed at which the car was being driven when the accident occurred.

COBURN MISSION SOCIABLE

A very pleasant social was held Wednesday night at the Coburn mission in Varnum avenue under the auspices of the Varnum Avenue Improvement association. There was a large attendance, the structure being inadequate to hold all those who desired to attend.

The program carried out was a pleasing one and consisted of piano selections, Miss Carrie Emery; recitation, Master Ormond Marshall; remarks, E. S. Howe; vocal and instrumental music, Mrs. Muldoon; remarks by Mr. Cummings and Mr. Roberts; Peter Clune sang and also gave a couple of recitations; piano selections, Mrs. William Barker; Misses Eva Roberts, Pauline Cummings. Then came an auction sale of food, Geo. W. Cummings acting in capacity of auctioneer. The supper committee was George Emery, chairman, John J. Roberts, Fred Marshall, Mr. Hill and Frank Williams. Mr. Hill had charge of selling the tables, which was very ably conducted.

The officers of the association are D. J. Williams, president; Wm. Barker, vice-president; John H. Roberts, treasurer; Edward Roberts, secretary.

IS AT TOWN FARM

Man Once Had a Great Estate

ATTLEBORO, July 1.—A town meeting, held last night, was called for the purpose of considering the case of Christian G. Uhlig, once a prosperous land owner in the south part of the town and now an inmate of the local town farm.

Years ago Uhlig owned what was known as one of the best farms in this section, but declining years made it necessary for him to turn the property over to other hands. He is said to have decided to do so, with the provision that he should be supported and should live on the farm for the rest of his days.

He alleged that soon after the death was accepted he found himself an unwelcome guest at his former home, and was obliged to seek assistance of the town. He entered the town farm, and for a time relatives paid his board at the institution. Later, it is said, they have refused to do that, and the expense has grown so great that the town determined to take legal action.

FLYING MACHINES

Interesting Lecture at Calvary Baptist Church

H. Angus Connors of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology gave a lecture on aeronautics at the Calvary Baptist church last night. His subject was "New Developments in Aerial Navigation." His lecture was illustrated with many pictures and by several models of aeroplanes of various types.

Mr. Connors proved himself very familiar with his subject and was willing to admit that he is deeply engrossed with it. Many of the machines of home manufacture, he has witnessed in flight, especially those of the Wrights, Curtiss and Harkitt. The work of constructing them, he said, was being perfected all of the time and there is ample room for improvement. He said that the element of danger had not been altogether reduced, but it had been greatly minimized, largely through the skillful use of the planes. A ship model was presented to the boys present by Mr. Connors. During the evening a miscellaneous musical program was given by several of the young people of the church as follows: Emilie A. Hartford, soprano soloist; William Car, whistling soloist; Chester J. Codding, violinist; and the accompanists were Marjorie G. Wright, Edward Judson Mills and Ethel M. Codding.

After the lecture, several of the boys of the church, who have been much interested in aeronautics, met Mr. Connors and gleaned ideas relative to the building of the planes. As a result, they will exercise their ingenuity for the next few days, and at the lawn fête of the church, to be given on the grounds of the George house, July 12, will demonstrate their ideas in the construction of flying machines.

TEXTILE LEADERS

Have Formed Permanent Association

The Lowell Textile association met last night in the rooms formerly occupied by "The Club" in Pollard's block, Palmer street, and formed a permanent organization. The following were elected directors for the first year:

E. D. Robinson of the Shaw Stocking company, W. M. Sherwell of the Appleton company, C. H. Howard of the Hamilton Mfg. Co., T. L. Kirby of the Boot mills, A. M. Chadwick of the Tremont & Suffolk mills, A. E. Gregory of the Massachusetts cotton mills, J. D. Rule of the Lawrence Mfg. Co., Henry Wisley of the Merrimack Mfg. Co., Jesse Whitworth of the Lowell Bleachery.

By-laws were adopted and the board of directors was authorized to secure permanent quarters. The club membership is limited to 200 members and 125 members have already been enrolled.

The directors will meet in a few days to choose officers of the association, appoint committees and lay out the campaign for fall and winter.

EIGHT MARRIAGES

BANGOR, ME., PASTORS WERE KEPT BUSY

BANGOR, Me., July 1.—Eight weddings yesterday in Bangor created a shortage in the back and automobile supply, and a tremendous rush at the churches and forests. Harold Francis Ingraham of Bangor and Miss Jessie Bradford Hammond were married in the morning at the bride's home by Rev. E. F. Pember.

Dr. Harold E. Mongovan and Miss Josephine Teresa Mullen were married in St. Mary's rectory by Rev. Thomas J. O'Dowd at 1:30 p. m. At 3:30, Fr. O'Dowd married Josephine Blinds and Miss Annie Driscoll, both of Bangor, and soon after John Obe and Miss Mary Call were made one by Fr. O'Dowd.

At the same time wedding parties were besieging St. John's church. At 3 o'clock George J. Swain and Miss Margaret Proctor, both of Bangor, were married by Rev. John J. Sullivan. At 4 o'clock Rev. P. J. Garrity married, in the rectory, John A. Turner and Miss Caroline M. Carrow.

At 8 o'clock, Rev. George A. Martin of Grace church married Earl H. Thayer and Miss Marjorie Porter at the home of the bride's parents. At the same hour, Charles Tash and Miss Geneva Emerson, both of Bangor, were married in the Essex Street Free Baptist parsonage by Rev. G. D. Lathrop.

"EDUCATIONAL SUNDAY"

BOSTON, July 1.—Information received at the headquarters of the National Education association indicate that the project making next Sunday an "educational Sunday" has been widely accepted, and that the day will be generally observed in the churches of Greater Boston and at other points in the state. In conformity with the plan, clergymen will deliver sermons on some educational topic to be selected by themselves.

A reception to men visitors will be held on Saturday, July 2, at the Boston City club from 4 to 6 o'clock. State and city officials, officers of the National Education association and other prominent educators will receive.

EXPORT FIGURES

SHOW LOWER PRICES IN ALL THE IMPORTANT ARTICLES

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The recent fall in prices in the United States is sharply illustrated by the bureau of statistics figures covering domestic and foreign trade for the month of May, 1910, in comparison with earlier months of the current fiscal year. The bureau publishes each month a statement of the export prices of about 50 principal articles of the export trade, also the wholesale prices of certain important articles in the domestic trade. The export prices are those prevailing in the wholesale markets at the ports of exportation, since the customs regulations state that "all articles exported shall be valued at their actual cost, or the value which they may truly bear at the time of exportation in the ports of the United States from which they are exported." The domestic prices quoted by the bureau are the wholesale prices of the articles named at certain great centers, chiefly New York, as supplied to the bureau from recognized and reliable authorities.

The May export figures show materially lower prices in practically all the important articles forming the export trade, with the exception of metals which, on the other hand, show higher prices in May than in earlier months of the year. The export price of corn, for example, is stated in the tables which will shortly appear in the forthcoming issue of the "Monthly Summary of Commerce and Finance," as averaging 57.6 cents per bushel in May, against 70.1 cents in February, and 75.6 cents in August of last year.

Wheat shows an average export price in May, 1910, of 96.6 cents per bushel in May, against 70.1 cents in February, and 75.6 cents in August of last year. Wheat shows an average export price in May, 1910, of 96.6 cents per bushel, against 1.06 in January and 1.21 in July of last year. Anthracite coal shows an average export value per ton in May, 1910, of $4.73, against $5.05 in January and $5.11 in September of last year. Copper pigs exported in May were valued at 13c per lb., against 13.4c in March, 1910. Raw cotton shows an average export value in May of 14.5 cents per pound, against 14.9 cents in the first month of the present year. Unbleached cotton cloth shows for May an average export price of 6.5 cents per yard, against 8.1 cents in March, and 8.8 cents in December of last year. Pig iron shows an average value in exports of May of $17.55 per ton, against $19.04 per ton in December of last year; steel billets, $25.55 per ton in May, against $25.54 in April; structural iron and steel, $44.72 per ton in May, against $49.19 per ton in March, and $51.64 in October of last year. Sole leather shows an average export price in May of the current year of 21.5 cents per pound, against 22.7 cents in February last. Crude mineral oil exported in May of the current year is stated at 3 cents per gallon, against 3.4 cents in April, and 3.9 cents in August of last year. Luminating oil is given at 5.1 cents per gallon in May, 1910, against 7.1 cents in May, 1909. Paraffin is reported at 3.9 cents per pound in May, 1910, against 4.4 cents in March, 1910, and 4.8 cents in March and April, 1909.

Metals, on the other hand, show higher prices in practically all cases. The average export price of fresh beef in May, 1910, was 10.8 cents per pound, against 10.1 cents in January, 1910, and 10.2 cents in May of last year. Canned beef in May, 1910, averaged 12.1 cents per pound, against 11.1 cents in January, and 10.7 cents in May of last year. Bacon in May of the current year averaged 15.3 cents per pound, against 13 cents in March, 1910, and 12 cents in August, 1909, and 10.8 cents in May of last year, an advance of practically 50 per cent. in the export price during the year. Hams and shoulders exported in May, 1910, averaged 14.5 cents per pound, against 11.2 cents in May, 1909. Lard exported in May, 1910, averaged 12.7 cents per pound, against 11.1 cents in August and 10.4 cents in May of last year.

In the domestic markets nearly all articles show lower prices in May and June 1910 than in the corresponding period of last year. The bureau of statistics figures of domestic prices come down to an inter period than those of export prices. Of rice the price in the New York market on June 20th was 4 3/8c, per pound, against 5 3/4c per pound in the corresponding period of last year; cotton on June 24th in New Orleans market, 14 7/8c, per pound, against 15 3/4c, per pound in December of last year; washed Ohio XX wool on June 10th was 32c, per pound, against 37c, per pound in November and December, 1909; unwashed Michigan fine wool on June 24th was 21c, per pound, against an average of 26c, in August of last year; scoured territorial fine medium wool of "sable" grade on the 10th of last month, 63c, per pound, against 72c, in the second half of last year; Bessemer pig iron on June 25th, was $16.65 per ton, against $19.90 per ton in January; iron bars, $31 per ton on June 25th, against $34 per ton in November and December of last year; steel bars on June 25th, $36 per ton, against $31 in February and March of the current year; Bessemer steel billets in June $28 per ton, against $29.00 per ton in December of last year; crude Pennsylvania oil $1.30 per barrel in June of the current year, against $1.58 per barrel in June of last year; refined oil per gallon in barrels, 7.65c in June of the current year, against 8.50c, per gallon in June of last year; wheat No. 3 red, in June, 1910, in the New York market, $1.03 per bushel, against $1.23 in January; corn, 67c per bushel last month, against 85c, per bushel in the same month of last year.

WORLD FAMOUS FLYERS AND THEIR PLANS

By CHARLES N. LURIE.

TO try to tell what the aviators are going to do next is like trying to reach a roof from the ground for a better view the moment a cry of "Here he comes!" announces the approach of one of the man birds. By the time you get where there is an unobstructed view the flier is gone. The air records are falling so fast nowadays—much faster and more frequently than the men who make them—that any prediction is open to serious objection that it will be out of date by the time it gets into print.

With these words of explanation, or possibly of apology, let us assert that the great aerial event toward which the persons interested in flying, which means the whole world, are looking is the race between St. Louis and New York over a 1,000 mile course for a prize of $30,000 offered by the New York World and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Of scarcely less interest is the projected Chicago-New York flight of about 800 miles for a $25,000 prize offered by the New York Times and the Chicago Evening Post. In addition to these there are the Washington-New York race, the Detroit-Buffalo flight, the Kansas City-St. Louis contest and many others. The total of the prizes offered by the cities and the newspapers is large enough to bring to America the most famous of the old world's aviators, as well as to engage the attention of our own best men, especially since the vacation of the temporary Wright injunctions left the foreigners free to come. Among those who are interested in these imagination compelling contests are the aviators who have recently brought the world to a realization of the fact that the flying machine has come to take its place among the world's commonplaces with wireless telegraphy, radium, the X rays, the telephone and other inventions. They are Glenn H. Curtiss, who made the air trip from Albany to New York;

Charles K. Hamilton, whose aerial journey from New York to Philadelphia and back gave assurance that such trips can be made hereafter on schedule time; Charles S. Rolls, the Englishman who flew across the English channel to France, turned in the air and returned without alighting in England; Louis Paulhan, who flew from London to Manchester for a $50,000 prize and who held until recently the world's record for height attained in an aeroplane; Grahame White, the plucky Englishman who tried so hard to win the London-Manchester contest and failed only after he had gone the limit of present endurance in the air; the Wrights, pioneer flyers, who have held steadfastly to their view that flying is with them a business proposition, not a sport, and have heretofore refused to engage in merely spectacular tests, although permitting the entry of their machines under the operation of others. All these and others of national and international fame have expressed their intense interest in the coming contests and have asserted their belief that the prizes offered are well worth consideration. In addition to these great events on the future programs of the aviators there are numerous smaller affairs to be held in the United States and abroad. No state or county affair is considered up to date now unless it announces as a part of its list of attractions aerial flights by one or more of the world's flyers. Of course the flyers come high—no pun intended—considered hopelessly behind the times. The old fashioned balloon ascension cannot draw a crowd nowadays, so the fair authorities are falling over one another in their endeavors to get the aviators. The supply of flyers is limited, although it is growing every day, so the men who are able to travel in three dimensions instead of two are taking advantage of their opportunities and demanding stiff prices for their work. Any one who has seen them perform their daring feats in the air will agree that almost any price is too low for the risks they run. The 1910 international aviation meet, which will be the greatest ever held, will take place on Long Island in October. It was brought to this country by Glenn H. Curtiss' victory at Rheims, France, last year.

New Laws Necessary.

With the extension of flying over the world's civilized countries has come the discussion of rules for the government of the flyers when they are in the air. The subject is still in the tentative state, but there has been enough interest manifested in the matter to make it certain that the near future will see the promulgation of a set of rules agreed to by the world's most famous flyers. Speaking on this subject recently, Mr. Frederic R. Coudert, recently returned from a visit to France, said:

"The presence of so many flying machines in France and the complaints of owners of property that aviators are flying over gardens and thus intruding into private domains has caused the calling of a commission of prominent lawyers.

"They have had operators of aeroplanes perform before them, flying both low and high, in order to determine what height is proper. Count Lambert has been one of these demonstrators. Of course there are property owners who assert that their rights extend far up into the sky, but to recognize such rights would mean a stop to all aviation.

"There is not the slightest doubt that a mean height will be determined and that France will be the pioneer country in the framing of laws to apply to tracks in the sky. Property rights will have to be protected. The Frenchman's garden, with its high wall, has been considered safe from prying eyes outside, but now with an aviator swooping near with his machine—well, something must and will be done."

HAMLIN GARLAND, CONSERVATIONIST

WHEN the history of the movement for the conservation of the natural resources of the nation is written high on the roll of honor of the men engaged in the fight on the right side, with those of Roosevelt, Pinchot and others will be that of a teller of tales, Hamlin Garland.

The country contains no more enthusiastic believer in the west, "the new west," and its future than Mr. Garland. His devotion to the cause of intelligent conservation of our mines and forests, our fields and plains, our men and women, requires no explanation. For years in his books and on the lecture platform he has been preaching the gospel of the mission of the west to regenerate, to maintain the nation. In his latest book, "Cavanagh; Forest Ranger," he carries his propaganda a step farther and comes out openly and boldly without reserve in support of the Pinchot forest policy. In the mouth of the hero of the book, Ross Cavanagh, the author puts the words:

"I am glad to be known as a defender of the forest. A tree means much to me. I never mark one for felling without a sense of responsibility for the future."

It is this "sense of responsibility for the future" frankly avowed, together with a most interesting story of life in the new west, that makes up the body of Mr. Garland's latest book. In it he devotes considerable space—not to the detriment of the book as a study, however—to a defense and an exposition of the forest preservation theories of Gifford Pinchot, the recently dismissed chief forester. The latter is depicted as the idol of the body of strong, able, clean living young men whom he trained in the forest service, and his dismissal from the service is described as a severe blow to the personnel of the service. Mr. Pinchot contributes a preface to the book.

For a score of years Mr. Garland has been known to the public through his writing and his lectures, as an ardent believer in America's future. In a book published sixteen years ago he said:

"There is coming in this land the mightiest assertion in art of the rights of man and the glory of the physical universe ever made in the world. It will be done not by one man, but by many men and women. It will be born not of drawing room culture nor of imitation nor of fear of masters, nor will it come from homes of great wealth. It will come from the average American home in the city as well as in the country. It will deal with all kinds and conditions. It will be born of the mingling sens of men in the vast interior of America, because there the problem of the perpetuity of our democracy, the question of the liberty as well as the nationality of our art, will be fought out."

Some idea of the intense, enthusiastic Americanism of the man may be gained from the excerpt just given. He has lived his life up to the present time in harmony with his beliefs. The half century that has passed since his birth on a farm at West Salem, Wis., has served only to deepen and broaden in him the development of a belief in America, its institutions and its resources, its men and women and its future, and he has expressed his belief well in his writings and lectures. More than twenty books from his pen bear witness to his industry.

Among the best known of the Garland books are "Rose of Dutcher's Coolidge," "Hesper," "The Captain of the Gray Horse Troop," "Ulysses Grant" (a biography) and "Prairie Songs" (verse). He was educated in the common schools of Mitchell county, Ia., and was graduated in the literary course of the Cedar Valley seminary, Osage, Ia., in 1881. After teaching school in the west for a short time and farming a claim in Dakota he went to Boston and began to earn his living by his writings. In 1893 Mr. Garland returned to the west and has remained there since for the time he has spent in traveling. He was married in 1899 to Zulma Taft, a sister of the famous sculptor, Lorado Taft, and herself a sculptor and art critic of note. The Garlands make their home in Chicago, but the writer cultivates in the summer his farm in Wisconsin. From his earliest years Mr. Garland manifested an interest in the Indian tribes, and he has made extensive researches into their history, ethnology and present conditions. His activity in their behalf led to his selection several years ago by President Roosevelt as a commissioner to investigate the practicability of resuming all the Indians of the United States, the plan being to give them family names so that any rights they possess in the land might be defined and respected and, perhaps, perpetuated.

AMERICA DEVELOPS VIOLIN GENIUS

RECOGNITION at twenty-one as the greatest living American violinist, worthy to rank with Kreisler, Ysaye, Kube-lik, the European masters of the bow—such is the happy distinction that has come to Albert Spalding of Chicago, who has been entrancing Europeans with his skill on his beautiful instrument.

Spalding returned early in June from a long sojourn in Europe, where he won many plaudits, to spend this summer at Monmouth Beach, N. J., with his family and will go back to the old world in the autumn to begin his 1910-11 concert tour of the European capitals.

Whether or not Spalding is the "future Paganini," as one of his ardent admirers called him, is a matter of possible future revelation. In one respect at least Spalding resembles the famous virtuoso of a century ago—that is, in the instant recognition his genius has won from the critics of foreign lands. As Paganini toured Europe, meeting with appreciation of his genius wherever he went, so Spalding has been hailed in Europe as one of the greatest of living violinists. France, England, Germany, Russia, all have paid tribute to his mastery of technique and the wonderful, indescribable appeal of his tone to the musician and the lay hearer. Throughout there has been but very little unfavorable criticism, and whatever carping of this sort has found its way into print has invariably been modified by words of warmest praise. Probably never before in the history of American music—though that has been lamentably brief and undistinguished—has an instrumentalist from this country met with so favorable a reception by the critics of the old world.

Spalding recently concluded a tour on the continent. He will tour Europe again in the musical season of 1910-11 and will visit America during the season of 1911-12. His triumphs abroad insure him an ovation in his native land, where he has appeared before in concerts. Some extracts from the French critics' comments on his playing read as follows:

"He has classed himself among the greatest violinists of the age."

"Qualities which we noted were sufficient to class the violinist among the greatest."

"Albert Spalding is one of the best violinists of our epoch."

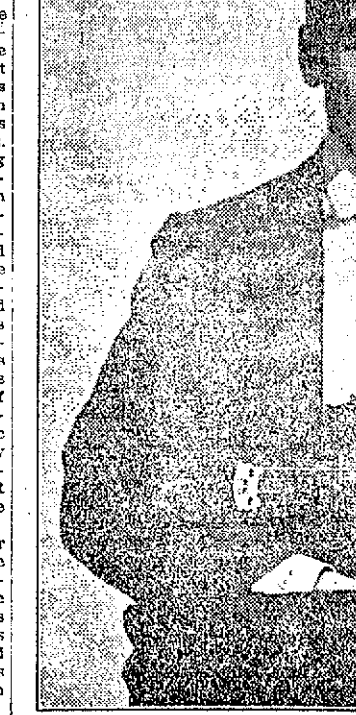

American critics have been equally enthusiastic over their young compatriot. When he played in concert in 1908 in Carnegie hall, in New York, Reginald De Koven, the famous composer and musical critic, said:

"I saw a clean cut, almost typical American youth, good to look upon, without the slightest pose or affectation in his manner, evidently artistic, as evidently whole and sincere. Then he played, and I heard what I must consider violin playing of a high order, distinguished by great finish, refinement and elegance of style."

rather than by force or great breadth, yet displaying rare artistic intelligence and sympathy in conception. Spalding's tone is singularly clear and even, sweet and penetrating, with the sheen and luster of a rich satin rather than the robust sonority of a Wilhelmj or Ysaye. His instrument has evidently no technical secrets for him, whether in bowing, double stopping, octave fore her marriage. A few years ago she said to an interviewer:

"At the very first, when he was a little bit of a fellow, two or three years old, and he would sit so quietly and patiently beside me while I played the piano, I used to assure myself it was because he loved me. It seemed incredible that a child so young could be appealed to so strongly by music."

passages or rarely pure harmonies. Altogether Mr. Spalding must be credited with a distinct success on his merits as an artist, and there seems no reason why maturity and deeper experience of life should not develop what is now remarkable talent into commanding genius."

That was a year and a half ago. European critics before whom Spalding has played since the time when that criticism was penned agree that Spalding's playing now shows greater maturity of tone, more commanding personal force, more ripening into genius of the talent which De Koven noted. Spalding's music comes to him naturally, by inheritance from his mother. She was a finished musician before her marriage. A few years ago she said to an interviewer:

"At the very first, when he was a little bit of a fellow, two or three years old, and he would sit so quietly and patiently beside me while I played the piano, I used to assure myself it was because he loved me. It seemed incredible that a child so young could be appealed to so strongly by music."

THE COBB BILL

For Direct Nominations
Was Defeated

ALBANY, N. Y., July 1.—With the extraordinary session of the Legislature entered upon its final stage today, indications pointed to the failure of the efforts of President Taft, Theodore Roosevelt and Governor Hughes to bring about the passage of the Cobb direct nominations bill. After a bitter debate which lasted until early this morning the senate by a vote of 24 to 23 concurred in the final adjournment at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The defeat of the plan to send the resolution to the finance commission and hold it up for further consideration, leaves only a few hours today in which to consider not only the Cobb bill but the financial measures which it is planned to pass to bolster up the state's revenues.

The caucus last night, decided to amend the Cobb bill as suggested by Lloyd C. Garrison, chairman of the New York county republican committee, by amendments which were endorsed by Colonel Roosevelt, but there seemed little likelihood of passing the bill unless there is an unexpected shift from the opposition. In any event, if the bill is amended, an emergency message from Governor Hughes will be necessary to its consideration.

CLEVER THIEF

GOT AWAY WITH FOUR DIAMOND RINGS

BOSTON, July 1.—An unidentified young man secured four diamond rings valued at $200 in a daylight robbery yesterday afternoon. Strutting up to the showcase of John Weller in the doorway of 384 Washington street, he pried open the door and inserted a wire through the rings. Again closing the door he nonchalantly strolled away through the crowd. A meagre description is all the police have of him.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the undersigned, wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their assistance, words of comfort and beautiful floral tributes, that helped to lighten their sorrow in the recent death of our beloved son and brother, John. Especially to the boys of the Junior Holy Name society of St. Michael's church, the employees of Dickson's ice store, the Assistant selling and Ingram weaving departments of the Bigelow Carpet Co. are we deeply grateful. We also wish to thank the young men who helped to find the body. The kindness of one and all will never be forgotten.

FOR GREATER ECONOMY

WASHINGTON, July 1.—For greater economy the treasury department is considering the counting of the sheets of distinctive paper used in the printing of money at the bureau of engraving and printing. The sheets are counted three different times before they reach the presses.

Assistant Secretary Andrew and Director Ralph of the bureau of engraving and printing expect to make a trip to Dalton, Mass., where the paper is made, next week, with a view of instituting a movement for curtailing the work.

FOR PEOPLE WHO ITCH AND SCRATCH

Get a 10c box of Cadum, the new remedy, at any drug store, and apply a small quantity to any part of the skin which is affected and it will stop the itching at once. It is also good for pimples, rash, blotches, also where there is inflammation, chafing or itching. Inside of a day the trouble will be greatly relieved and often disappear completely. This test will prove better than words the remarkable virtues of this new compound. Cadum is likewise a safe and sure remedy for Eczema, Salt Rheum and other stubborn skin diseases of that nature. The itching stops at once when it is applied, and the healing process is immediately begun. Full-size boxes of Cadum, containing about four times as much as the 10c package, are sold for 25c.

Woman Burned When Clothing Caught Fire

NEW YORK, July 1.—Her light clothing ignited by the flames of an overturned kerosene stove as she was preparing warm milk for her sick baby today, Mrs. Rosa Moskowitz tore every stitch of her blazing garments from her, seized the child in her arms and fled with the infant from the burning room down the fire escape. Neighbors cloaked her and cared for her and her three children. She will recover.

The rescued child, a six month old boy, was named "Teddy" after Colonel Roosevelt.

ON THE CREASE.

What promises to be one of the most exciting cricket games of the season will be played on the Fitchburg cricket grounds on Monday, the Fourth, when two picked teams, one representing the Merrimack Valley Cricket League and the other the Massachusetts Central Cricket League, will meet. Those who remember the last game between the leagues, played on the Bunting grounds here, will easily recall the interest and excitement of that game. These features are sure to be repeated in Monday's game. Of course the valley team expects to win out.

The following will represent the two teams:

Merrimack Valley League: James Barret, captain, Mohairs; W. Haddon, Anderson; W. Croft, Jr.; Zions; James Ogden, Merrimack; Theron Stricks and Hugh O. Wagonough, Lawrence; Hampden Hyde, Mohairs; C. Graydon, Methuen; A. Metcalfe, North Chelmsford; reserves, Ike Shaw and F. Chapman; umpire, C. Morrell; scorer, I. Foster.

Central Massachusetts League: H. Haddon, captain; Haley, Clarke, Gray, Worcester; Smith, Fouldes and Woods, South Barre; Hargreaves and Robuck, Maynard; Proctor and Wilson, Fitchburg; F. Schofield and H. Nicholson; reserves, umpire, Hammond; scorer, Aquilino.

The game will be called at 12 o'clock noon, and the Valley League players will leave Merrimack square at 3.30 a. m.

BOTH KILLED

WOMAN AND BABY STRUCK BY A TRAIN

WATERTOWN, N. Y., July 1.—Mrs. Albert Albertson and her 2-year-old baby were struck by a New York Central freight train at Evans Mills, near here yesterday, and instantly killed. A 4-year-old daughter was seriously injured and may die.

The woman attempted to cross the track in her carriage ahead of the train, when the engine struck the rear of the vehicle and hurled the occupants 30 feet in the air. Mrs. Albertson was 27 years old.

CITY ENGINEER DEAD

BOSTON, July 1.—City Engineer William Jackson died last evening about 10 at his home, 138 Academy Hill road, Brighton, following an attack of appendicitis.

COL. ROOSEVELT

Planned a Visit to Justice Moody

NAHANT, July 1.—The last day of Col. Theodore Roosevelt's visit to Massachusetts found the former president early in the morning at the home of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge in this town, and as on yesterday, the colonel spent an hour before breakfast in walking about the spacious grounds of the Lodge estate and gazing across the wide expanse of ocean that lay at his feet under the rosy clouds. Colonel Roosevelt and Senator Lodge had no callers last night, and it was expected that the former president's privacy would be undisturbed this morning. The plans for the day included a trip to Brookline to visit Associate Justice William H. Moody, who will at a private hospital in town. Colonel Roosevelt expected to return to New York later in the day.

TO WRECK TRAIN

Attempt is Laid to Boys

BOSTON, July 1.—Three little boys, Thomas, Leonard and Robert Bresnahan, the eldest only 14, were brought to this city yesterday morning by an agent of the state board of charities for examination as to their alleged complicity in an attempt at train wrecking, discovered last Tuesday near the Barre Plains station of the Ware River railroad. Tuesday evening, about five minutes before the Palmer express was due to arrive in the Barre Plains station, a station employee discovered about a half mile up the track a pile of stakes and railroad ties secured to the rails in such a way as to derail the first passenger train and send it down the embankment. He ran up the tracks, alerted the engineer to stop and, with the assistance of the train crew, cleared the rubbish from the tracks. Wednesday morning the railroad authorities reported the matter to the Barre police and as a result of their investigations a boy was apprehended yesterday who was charged with complicity in wrecking, for which the three Bresnahan brothers are now held. The fourth boy's name is not revealed by the police. All four were fearful and silent when questioned as to their motives for the attempt, for which the police believe the boys were reading to be responsible. The boys will be taken back next Thursday for examination in the Barre court.

BOB VEAL CASES

FEDERAL AUTHORITIES TO INVESTIGATE ALLEGED SALE
BOSTON, July 1.—Charging that many calves under 25 pounds dressed weight and under 10 days old are shipped to Boston for food purposes from New York state and other places, the federal authorities are to begin an investigation, which probably will result in prosecutions. Asst. U. S. Dist. Atty. Garland said yesterday that there have also been frequent violations of the law regarding the feeding and watering of calves in transit into Massachusetts. Much of the "bob veal" of central New York, a dairy district, it is said, is bought up and sent to Boston for slaughtering for food. The law here prevents the sale of young calves under 25 pounds when dressed with the hide and viscera removed.

SURPLUS OF $9,402,000
WASHINGTON, July 1.—A surplus of $9,402,000 in the ordinary receipts and expenditures against a deficit last year of $57,724,000 was announced by the treasury department today. The total deficit over all which includes Panama canal expenditures and the public debt is today $55,884,000 against $175,783,000 last year.

SCENES AT THE OPENING OF THE PUBLIC PLAYGROUNDS ON THE NORTH COMMON AND LITTLE CANADA

Opened With Male and Female Supervisors Today

"All around the barberry bush, barberry bush, barberry bush. All around the barberry bush, so early in the morning."

More than 100 little voices joined in the singing of these old, old words as they circled on the green in the North common this forenoon. It marked the opening of the playgrounds there and the sight was one long to be remembered. The Little Canada playgrounds in Allen street also opened under supervision at 8.30 o'clock this morning.

ANOTHER FLURRY IN PARASOLS

Owing to the backwardness of the season a leading manufacturer parted with a good share of his surplus stock of Parasols to us at a big sacrifice in price. We have opened these today and with those already in stock have rearranged the different lots and marked all at prices that would sound reasonable for an end-of-the-season sale and really extraordinary for just now when Parasol weather is right with us. These special prices are especially for Fourth of July week and you may benefit by the prices in providing a stylish Parasol for the holiday.

- Children's Parasols—All colors in large variety, were 39c, are now ..... 25c
- 200 Children's Parasols—Every one a beauty, were 58c and 79c, now ..... 49c
- Misses' Parasols—Good size, in plain and fancies, pink and light blue with double ruffle, were $1 and $1.25, now 69c
- All $4.00 and $4.50 fancy Silk Shades, now ..... $3.25
- An all Silk Colored Shade for sun or rain, regularly $3.00, now ..... $1.98 kept up as one of the features for the boys.

Supt. Whittet said he has had a conference with Supt. Putnam of the street watering department, and secured reasonable terms for watering the Little Canada playground, providing the mayor and chairman of the street department will sanction the same.

Miss Elizabeth Kennedy, speaking for the Middlesex Women's club committee, promised moral support and said that the club would be at the disposal of the playground committee and the supervisors, as valuing and rest rooms.
Mrs. J. A. Lambert, representing the College club, said that her committee awaits suggestions from the supervisors, for such apparatus or other supplies as may be needed on the Allen street ground. The funds in their possession, so far as they will go, are available at the call of the park commission and the supervisors.
The playground on the South common will open Wednesday, July 6, at 8.30 a. m., and now apparatus will be installed in all of the playgrounds next week.

PERIN'S HIPPODROME

On the 4th of July at the Hippodrome at Washington park in addition to the big program that will be presented there, a special operator and wire have been installed for the latest and correct returns of the big fight at Reno. These returns will be read from the stage and will be complete in every detail. On the bill for this week will be the world's greatest comedy acrobats, Rice and Prevost; Green and Withers, a full bred Indian and girl in trick bicycle riding, and five other big acts.
Sunday night will be seen a special program of five reels of pictures and singers with new illustrated songs, all of which have never been heard here before.
Every Thursday night is amateur night at the park. Don't miss the fun. There will be three shows at the Hippodrome on Monday, July 4th, the first show starting at 10.30 a. m.

IMMIGRANT ALIENS

WASHINGTON, July 1.—An estimate that the total number of immigrant aliens admitted at all ports of the United States during the past fiscal year reached 1,035,545 was made by Commissioner General Keefe today. This is an increase of 233,759 over the number of immigrant aliens admitted last year.

GIRL WAS KILLED

EXTRA CHILD WAS KILLED

Another Child Badly Injured on the South Common

One child was killed and two were badly injured near the pond on the South common shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon. A limb fell from a tree and struck them. It was an accident hard to understand, as no reason could be advanced for the sudden falling of the limb.

The little girl's skull was fractured and she received a multiplicity of wounds. A man passing in an automobile rendered his services and the little girl was taken to St. John's hospital. The child's life was ebbing fast away and she died in the automobile. Her name, for the present, is unknown. She was about ten years old.

The boy, Samuel Moses, is 9 years old. His home is at 72 Suffolk street. He sustained a compound fracture of the left arm and severe scalp wounds. He was treated by Dr. Randall, who removed him from the scene of the accident to his office in Middlesex street in his automobile. The doctor did not observe any speed laws on his way from the common to his office. It was Dr. Randall who ordered the little girl taken to the hospital. "I do not think she will live," said the doctor, as the little girl was placed in the automobile. Lieut. Connors carried the boy in his arms and rode in Dr. Randall's machine to the doctor's office.

The other victim was Olive Goslin of 696 Middlesex street. It is feared she is injured internally. The police and the hospital authorities are endeavoring in every way to ascertain the name and address of the little girl.

MANY WOUNDED
LEMBERG, Austria-Hungary, July 1.—The Ruthenian and Polish students of the University of Lemberg met again today and many officials and students are seriously wounded.

VERY LITTLE BETTING
NEW YORK, July 1.—There is a deadlock in the betting here on the Jeffries-Johnson championship fight. Jeffries' statement that the contest was an even proposition caused his admirers to hesitate today to put their money down at 10 to 6, while Johnson's friends are sticking out for the short end of 2 to 1.

A round of sporting headquarters today shows the present contest to be unusual in the fact that not one big wager has been made locally on the fight. William Muldoon's declaration that Jeffries' judgment of distance and timing is not good and that he is due to receive a great deal of punishment enheartened the Johnson cohorts today.

INCREASED REVENUE
BOSTON, July 1.—A decided increase in the manufacture of hard liquors or distilled spirits in Massachusetts is shown by the internal revenue figures issued today. Collections in Boston for the year ending June 30 amounted to $5,675,103, compared with $3,631,970. On the increase $1,133,906 was received from distilled spirits and $740,152 from collections under the new corporation law.

LIFE SAVERS MEET
BOSTON, July 1.—A number of the prominent officials of the life saving service gathered here today to examine various devices. In the party were Otto H. Tittman, president of the United States coast survey; Col. D. A. Lytle, inventor of the Lyle Life Saving Gun; Col. Herbert M. Knowles of Wakefield, R. I., of the life saving stations in Rhode Island, Connecticut and Block Island; Captain Silas H. Harding of Portsmouth, superintendent of stations in Maine and New Hampshire; Lieut. Aaron H. Gamble, Lieut. Benjamin Cheswell and E. W. Harkins of the revenue cutter service, and Capt. Bowley of Provincetown.

THE RESOLUTION
The resolution passed by the board of aldermen and granting the New England Telephone and Telegraph company permission to relocate poles in Rogers street has been vetoed by Mayor Meahan. It is the mayor's first veto and the message, which was filed at the city clerk's office this afternoon, reads as follows:

July 1, 1910.
To the Board of Aldermen of the City of Lowell, Mass.
Gentlemen:

I hereby return without my approval the resolution of the board of aldermen entitled:

"Resolution granting the New England Telephone and Telegraph company of Massachusetts permission to relocate poles on Rogers street."

The reasons set forth by the objectors seem to me to be fair and substantial. They contend that the poles are now located on the side of Rogers street where there are no houses, and to move said poles to the opposite side of the street would tend to destroy the trees and become a general nuisance.

Respectfully yours,
John F. Meahan, Mayor.

WAS FOUND DEAD

Frank Hawes Passed Away Suddenly This Morning

Deceased Was a Well Known Resident of Centralville — A Former Assistant Assessor and a Member of Post 185, G. A. R.

The many friends of Former Assessor Frank Hawes, well known in G. A. R. and political circles, will be pained to learn of his death which occurred very suddenly early this morning at his home, 105 Eleventh street.

The deceased was 73 years of age and had been a resident of Lowell for many years. In days gone by he was quite prominent in politics and held the position of assistant assessor from 1893 until 1898, in the days when the assistants were employed throughout the year. Some time after leaving city hall he retired from the active affairs of life. Yesterday morning he took breakfast in Putnam's restaurant and was apparently in the best of health and spirits. He mowed his lawn yesterday afternoon and retired early last night as was his custom feeling nicely. About 2 o'clock this morning he went to his wife's sleeping apartment and awakened her, complaining of pains in the region of his heart and coughing slightly. Mrs. Hawes prepared him a warm drink, after taking which he said he felt better and went back to bed. About 5:30 o'clock this morning Mrs. Hawes awoke and going to her husband's room to inquire as to his condition, found him dead in bed. Heart disease was the probable cause of death. The deceased was a veteran of the Civil war and a member of Post 185, G. A. R. He leaves only his wife, Mrs. Nellie A. Hawes.

MAN WAS ELECTROCUTED

NEWPORT, R. I., July 1.—Installing a telephone system in the summer residence of John Jacob Astor today, Eugene McCrohan, 25 years of age, was instantly electrocuted by touching an electric feed wire.

JAIL SENTENCE MIDWAY SHOWS

For Man Charged With Forgery Will be in Full Blast Tomorrow

The police of this city have received information from Toronto, Canada, to the effect that George Mitchell, alias, who has been in this city, has been sentenced to nine years in the Kingston penitentiary for forgery, the forgery of $400 and uttering a forged document.

The information was sent by H. J. Grasette, chief constable of Toronto, and though the man was sentenced to serve nine years he will have to serve but six, owing to the fact that he was sentenced to three years on each count, the first three years to be succeeded by the second sentence of three years and the third to be concurrent with the first two.

HIS FIRST VETO
Was Filed By the Mayor Today

The resolution passed by the board of aldermen and granting the New England Telephone and Telegraph company permission to relocate poles in Rogers street has been vetoed by Mayor Meahan. FUNERAL NOTICES
SULLIVAN—The funeral of Daniel Sullivan will take place Saturday morning from his late home, 53 North street at 8:15, and a high mass of requiem will be sung at St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock. Undertaker Savage in charge.

GOODWIN—The funeral of John Goodwin will take place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late home, 107 Appleton street. John F. Rogers, undertaker.

Sagunotes at Breezy Point tonight.

FUNERALS

TALBOT—With simple funeral services the body of the late Mrs. Isabella W. Talbot was consigned to its final resting place Wednesday afternoon. The funeral took place from the home of the deceased on Mount Pleasant street in North Billerica. Rev. Paul Revere Frothingham, pastor of the Arlington street church of Boston, officiated at the service in the house, and there was singing by the choir of that church, several appropriate selections being rendered.

There was a profusion of floral offerings. Burial was in the Lowell cemetery under the direction of Undertakers J. B. Currier Co.

GRAY—The funeral of Mrs. Harriet A. Gray took place yesterday afternoon from her residence, 2 Loring street. The services were conducted by Rev. E. Victor Higginson, pastor of the Eliot Congregational church. The bearers were George S. Hull, Edward B. Sergeant, Caleb L. Smith and James Sykes. Burial was in the family lot in Westlawn cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

WIGHT—The funeral of William H. Wight took place yesterday noon from the Lowell cemetery chapel and was largely attended. Rev. St. John Chamber conducted the services. There were many beautiful floral offerings. Burial was in the Lowell cemetery under the direction of J. A. Weinbeck.

ROBINSON—The funeral of Miss Agnes Austin Robinson took place from her residence, 30 Lawrence street, on Thursday afternoon, and was largely attended. There were many beautiful floral offerings. The services were conducted by Rev. C. T. Billings, pastor of the First Unitarian church, and there was appropriate singing by the Unitarian choir, consisting of Mrs. Leahy, Mrs. George Spaulding, Mr. C. D. Page and Mr. A. Munn.

The bearers were Frank Goodall, Henry Pay, Dr. Leonard Huntress and William Farrar. Edward Spaulding had charge of the arrangements, and the burial was in the family lot in the Lowell cemetery, under the direction of Undertakers J. B. Currier Co.

DEATHS

HAWES—Died July 1, in this city, very suddenly, Frank B. Hawes, aged 73 years, at his home, 105 Eleventh street. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Nellie A. Hawes. Mr. Hawes was a member of Post 185, G. A. R. Funeral services will be held at 105 Eleventh street Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Friends are invited to the services without further notice. The burial will be private. The funeral arrangements are in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

FORREST—Mrs. Fannella M. Forrest, formerly of this city, the beloved wife of Mr. William M. Forrest, passed away Friday morning at her home on the Turnpike road, Billerica, aged 74 years. She is survived by her husband, four sisters, Miss Ellen I. Harmon of South Frammingham, Mass., Mrs. B. F. Lane of East Weymouth, Mass., Mrs. E. O. Worthen of Newton Lower Falls and Mrs. Martha Adams of Brunswick, Me., also one brother, George A. Harmon of Franklin, N. H. Funeral notice later. The funeral is in charge of Undertaker J. B. Currier Co.

FARIHA—Manuel Fariha, infant son of John and Virginia Fariha, died last night at the home of his parents, 5 Union street. The funeral took place this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the home of his parents, 3 Union street. The cortege proceeded to St. Anthony's church where at 4 o'clock Rev. Fr. Perrot conducted the services. Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertaker Thomas J. McDermott.

McBRIDE—Miss Sarah J. McBride, a well known resident of Centralville, and a devoted attendant at St. Michael's church, died this morning at her home, 106 Fulton street, aged 42 years. She was an esteemed member of the Young Ladies' Society of St. Michael's church and leaves to mourn her loss besides a host of friends, two sisters, Mrs. Michael Carroll and Miss Mary A. McBride and one brother, Joseph T. McBride, all of Lowell. Funeral notice later.

FERRIN—Ferdinand Ferrin, an old and respected resident of Centralville, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Hyacinthe LeDuc in this village on Thursday morning after a lingering illness, aged 74 years. Besides his sister, Mrs. LeDuc, he leaves two brothers in northern Canada. The deceased was a devout member of St. Catherine's church and a member of the Holy Name society.

GOODWIN—The many friends of Mr. John Goodwin, the well known laborer on Appleton street, will be pained to hear of his death which occurred at his home, 197 Appleton street. He was a well known member of St. Peter's parish. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife.

NAVAL TRIAL BOARD
NEWPORT, R. I., July 1.—The naval trial board assembled at the naval training station here today to try out the Berger, sub-surface torpedo boat in its speed trials. The board was headed by Rear Admiral Cagney Thomas.

FLIM FLAM GAME

Same as Used on Wheelock Tried at No. Chelmsford

An alleged flim-flam artist tried to work his little game on O. M. Green, aged 52 years, of North Chelmsford, the day before yesterday, but the cleverness of Mr. Green's daughter prevented the former carrying out his scheme. Owing to her diatribe tactics in notifying the police, however, the man made his escape.

The man, who is described as being tall, dark complexioned, smooth faced and young, called at Mr. Green's house and represented himself as Mr. Harry Pollard. He said that his father had a couple of volumes of historical works which he was going to give away, one being for Mr. Green and the other for another friend.

The daughter, who knows Mr. Pollard by sight, immediately detected that something was wrong and said that her father was not ready to go out at that time, but that if he would call around a couple of hours later her father would be ready.

The man then drove away, after promising to return at the hour designated by the daughter, but the stealer was not the same.

failed to put in an appearance at the appointed time. About two hours after the man called the daughter notified the local police. Several inspectors were sent out to try to locate the man and it was learned that the horse and carriage which he had used had been hired at Peabody's stable in Warren street, but that the man had returned with the horse and put it up almost an hour before the inspectors arrived. When he hired the outfit he gave the name of Bailey. The police are of the opinion that "Bailey" was going to take Mr. Green for a ride to Lowell, and on the way the former would meet a friend who would be invited to join the party and that Mr. Green would be taken to some place where a very flattering proposition to make money would be made and he would be flim-flamed out of several thousand dollars. The police are also of the opinion that "Bailey" is one of the gang of men who buncoed Andrew C. Wheelock several years ago. At that time the name of Harry Pollard was used. The game was noted by the daughter, but the stealer was not the same.

SERIOUS LABOR TROUBLE

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Demands of the conductors and trainmen on the railroads in the southeastern directory, directly involving about 10,000 men, may develop a serious labor disturbance within the next 24 hours. The situation is regarded as extremely acute. For fifteen days the mediators under the Erdman act, Chairman Knapp of the interstate commerce commission, and Dr. Charles P. Neill, commissioner of labor, have been laboring with the general managers' committee of the roads and with the representatives of the men. After the conference between mediators and representatives of conductors and trainmen of the southeastern roads, it was announced this afternoon that no definite arrangement had been effected. Hope still exists of adjusting the controversy without a strike.

HE KILLED HIMSELF

Frank Weber of Lowell a Suicide in New Bedford

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 1.—Frank Weber, a brewery worker, who came to this city this week from Lowell, committed suicide this afternoon by shooting himself in his room at a north end boarding house. Weber, who was apparently despondent, stated in a pool room at the north end this morning that he was going to kill himself, but no one believed him. An hour later he went to the Oxford House where he had a room and shot himself through the right temple, death being instantaneous.

FORMER ALDERMAN

Says That He Was Offered
Bribe of $2000

SALEM, July 1.—All of the time of the superior criminal court yesterday was occupied in the trial of Mayor William F. White, George Smart, Matthew Burns, Samuel Kress, Ernest Dube and Thomas A. Keegan, charged with a conspiracy to bribe aldermen of the city of Lawrence in connection with the attempted removal of Fire Chief Hamilton last December.

Ex-Alderman Carl A. Woelkel testified that Kress and Smart had each offered him $1000 and police appointments to vote against Hamilton and the aldermanic chamber Keegan came to him and said there was $1000 to vote to oust Hamilton and said "think it over to see on which side there is the most in it for you."

Alderman William Moss, Jr., testified that at a meeting of the aldermen, while waiting in the city clerk's office, Keegan had come to him and said: "I know where there is $1000 to vote to oust Hamilton." He had refused, and a few minutes later Keegan came and said they would double the amount and add appointments of police.

This was the first time in his life that an attempt had been made to bribe him. He did not call the police as he had no proof. Keegan was a stranger to him, he only knowing him

14 NEW NAMES

Added to Board of Trade
Membership Roll

The membership committee of the board of trade held a midday lunch and business meeting at the Park hotel yesterday noon, 14 of the 20 members being in attendance. The committee voted to meet at lunch weekly until the annual outing Aug. 24.

Fourteen new names for membership were brought in at the meeting yesterday. Secretary Murphy had a card list of business men who are not members, and these were distributed among the members present to be interviewed before the meeting to be held next Wednesday. As only members will be given tickets for the annual outing on Aug. 4, it is probable that this will be an inducement to join. The dues are one-half regular rates from now until Jan. 1st. The committee has adopted the slogan "1000 members" and an effort will be made to bring the membership list up to that figure.

Following is a list of the names brought in yesterday:

Henry Shultz, 330 Middlesex street; J. H. Dickey, 321 High street; Frank A. Maloney, North Chelmsford; E. W. Judd, 75 Merrimack street; G. H. Edwards, manager Colonial store; A. Lamontagne, 605 Merrimack street; A. Parent, 15 Sargent street; John B. Kearns, 24 Brooks street; E. B. Barlow, 25 Smith street; George E. Marchant, 8 Brackett avenue; Anthony Walsh, 787 Lakeview avenue; W. S. Watson, William F. Foy, Park hotel; Leveaux Barlow, 17 Chelmsford street; William T. Davis, 629 School street.

FELL TO DEATH

The Parachute Failed to Open

MUNCIE, Ind., July 1.—The parachute in which he was descending falling to open, Ray Bradley, 26 years, dropped 1600 feet to death at Albany, Ind., yesterday. Bradley used two parachutes. With the first he dropped 500 feet from 2000 feet elevation and started earthward in the second, which stuck.

Happy, Happy,
Use TIZ

A Marvel For Sore Feet Acts Right Off

Sore Feet! Never After Using TIZ—Good-bye sore feet, aching feet, swollen feet, sweaty feet, smelly feet, tired feet.

Good-bye corns, callouses and bunions and raw spots.

You've never tried anything like TIZ before for your feet. It is different from anything ever before sold.

It acts at once and makes the feet feel remarkably fresh and sore-proof.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous excretions which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—your feet.

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person.

If you don't find all this true after trying a box of TIZ, you can get your money right back.

TIZ is for sale at all druggists at 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct if you wish from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.

NEW MUSIC ROOM

Dedicated at Home of Organist French

A high class and most delightful musicale was held last evening at the beautiful home of Albert F. French, for many years organist of the First Baptist church, in Parkview avenue. The occasion marked the completion of what he modestly terms his new "music room." This "music room" is something of which perhaps no other residence in Lowell can boast. It consists of a large room and fine organ and in design and appointment is superb.

The music room and organ were conceived and planned by Mr. William B. Goodwin of this city, many detail drawings being executed by Mr. Jones of Boston, a relative of Mr. French, who is to be congratulated on being the owner of this ideal spot for musical study and entertainment.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. French very generously threw their doors open to their neighbors and friends, among them being many of the organists and musicians of the city. The rare beauty of the instrument was displayed in the following program, which had been informally arranged, but was none the less enjoyable for its impromptu character:

The program:

Organ, Andantino ..... Lemare
Miss Harriot Lee.
Anthem, "Sing Alleluia" ..... Buck
Kirk Street Quartet.
Mrs. Spruce, Miss Evelyn Messers.
Wirt and Howard, with Mr.
Spalding at the organ.
Organ, Improvisation,
Mr. Wilfred Kershaw.
Recitations ..... Selected
Miss Esther Stocks.
Solo, "Gloria" ..... Euzai-Pecchia
Anthem, "Sun of My Soul,"
Kirk Street Quartet.
Duet,
"Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah,"
Mrs. Poph and Mr. Hardy with Mr.
French at the organ.
Organ, "March Religieuse," Gullmunt
Mr. A. C. Spalding.
Recitation,
Miss Esther Stocks.
Baritone Solo, "The Two Grenadiers,"
Schumann
Mr. Geo. Drew with Mrs. Drew at the Organ.
Organ,
"Prols Lied from 'Die Meistersinger,'"
Mr. S. R. Fleet.
Piano Solo, Etude ..... Liszt
Miss Caroline White.
Soprano Solo,
"The Penitent" ..... Vanderwater
Mrs. Poph.
With Mr. French Accompanist.
Organ, Largo ..... Handel
Miss Drew.
At the close of the recital refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. French received the hearty congratulations of their friends.

NEW OFFICERS

INSTALLED BY CERCLE ST. LOUIS
LAST EVENING

The new officers of Cercle St. Louis were formally installed at the club rooms in Centralville last evening with most interesting exercises.

The officers installed were: President, Adelard Leguin; vice president, E. P. Chaput; secretary, J. A. N. Chretien; assistant secretary, Hector Dupont; treasurer, Albert Dery; collector, Alfred Elk; master of ceremonies, Geo. Chaput; honorary president, Alphonse Landry; guard, Alfred Hurvey.

The speeches and musical program followed the installation of officers. Refreshments were served under the direction of Caterer William Housseau.

The committee in charge was: President, Alfred Elk; vice president, Hector McDonald; secretary, Antonio Trudeau; aids, William Gagnon and Leo Loiselle; chaplain, Rev. R. A. Fortier.

MRS. VANDERBILT

DECIDED YESTERDAY TO TAKE AN AIR TRIP

NEW YORK, July 1.—Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt went up with Clifford B. Harmon, the amateur aviator, in his aeroplane at Mineola, L. I., yesterday. The flight was very brief, cut short because a spectator got in the way.

Harmon purposely kept close to the ground for safety, and had gone half way around the course when a man cut across ahead. To avoid a possible accident, Harmon rose sharply and attempted to make a long turn and go back to his starting point. But, looking ahead, he saw a tree in his path, and was forced to make a quick descent.

Both he and Mrs. Vanderbilt were jarred in coming down, but neither was injured. The shock loosened several bolts in the machine and slightly damaged the rudder. Mrs. Vanderbilt, thrilled by the experience, walked smilingly back across the field and joined the enthusiastic spectators.

Yesterday Harmon took his wife as passenger.

MONSTER BONFIRE

The residents of Ayer City are to have a monster bonfire on the Fourth. The mammoth pile which is to be burned is 50 ft. high and has been under the process of construction for several days. It is located in the vacant lot bounded by Main, Plain, London and Tanner streets. The frame is constructed by railroad ties. The ties have been placed in log cabin style and a few hours before the match is to be applied the interior of the hollow square will be filled with combustible material.

At 10:00 o'clock on the morning of the Fourth the fuel will be applied and there will be an illumination which will be seen for miles around.

At Graduation of Commercial College in Associate Hall

The 51st annual graduation of the Lowell Commercial college was held last night at Associate Hall. The floral decorations were profuse and artistic and the hall was filled with relatives and friends of the graduates and members of the school. Lavigne's orchestra rendered pleasing selections during the evening.

Harvey B. Greene, president of the board of trade and member of the park commission, was the presiding officer of the evening. During the course of his remarks he said that as an American he was proud of our system of public schools, but he questioned whether our changed commercial conditions do not demand a change in the curriculum of our schools, giving more attention to vocational training.

It is a sad sight to see a young man of 24 or 25 with no special training for life, and in nine cases out of 10, he goes down to ruin. In England, this difficulty is met very largely by the system of apprenticeship, and in Germany the problem is solved more effectively than in any other country, by the introduction of later years, of trade schools, vocational schools. That accounts for Germany's successful competition with England and with us commercially. If we are to hold our own we must adopt some such method of training in our public schools.

The Lowell Commercial college is doing much toward meeting this need for vocational training.

Rev. Caleb E. Fisher, pastor of the First Universalist church, gave the address of the evening. He said that he believed in practical education and he advised the graduates to act their own lives, and think their own thoughts, not an easy thing, he said, to do in this world; but those who do it are the marked men and women today, who are leading in their vocations.

It is a good thing, he said, to do something outside of the regular vocation, to carry a side line. While this is an age of specialization, yet the man or woman who knows but one thing is to be pitied when he goes out into the world.

He believed that in education today we are building too much on the structure, and forgetting to lay the foundations. All colleges men are not educated. We talk about education, but there are none such. A man must grasp the world as he finds it, and enter into other people's lives. Too many colleges and schools send out graduates who have no conception of what life is.

LEDOIT B. KIMBALL
Principal of Commercial College

"Make your word a blessing and not a curse," he said to the graduates; and he proposed as a class motto, "Love, Service, Sacrifice." "It is a good thing to have an ideal; and don't leave out the greatest thing in education, which is common sense."

Rev. Francis G. Kane, the class president, made the presentation for the class of a picture which will be hung on the school wall. It was accepted by Mr. F. A. Spence, treasurer of the school.

Mayor John F. Meehan presented the diploma and said that to his mind education, in its best sense, is the highest development of the faculties of the mind and heart.

He said that for 50 years the Lowell Commercial school has been doing a great and good work in the city. The standard set by the school is very high, and its diploma is a passport to any business house in Lowell or any other city. Hundreds of its graduates are among our most valued citizens. He felt assured that the class of 1910 will measure up to the standard set by those who have preceded.

The officers of the class of 1910 are as follows:

President, Frances G. Kane; vice president, Alden C. Flagg; treasurer, Helen M. Winn; secretary, Mae V. Wade; sergeant-at-arms, William Nebes; assistant sergeant-at-arms, Elizabeth A. Scannell.

Following is the full list of graduates:

FIGHTERS ARE READY

Jeffries and Johnson Have Finished Their Training

RENO, Nev., July 1.—At last the long, hard grueling training seems to be at an end in the camps of both Johnson and Jeffries. Both declared last night that they had done their last bit of strenuous work before the fight. Until the call of time on July 4 they say, they will devote themselves entirely to amusement and very light exercise such as walking.

Each says he is fit, Jeffries, happier, apparently, than he has been since he began the laborious process of making himself physically sound, sixteen months ago, romped like a school boy at his camp at Moana Springs today.

Johnson, smiling as usual, joked with his trainers and reiterated his statement that he is in condition to put up the battle of his life.

Jeff was in good humor last night when a party of friends called up on him. He insisted that they trot down the road with him. But as the majority of them were not in shape to keep up with the swift pace he set, they of fered a compromise by one of the party taking a walk with the fighter.

As the two strolled up the road Jeffries talked at length about his prospects in the battle.

"I am going to win this fight," he said. "I never was in better shape in my life. I will go right after my opponent and knock him out as soon as possible. I expect to take a lot of punishment in order to get to him quickly. But you may depend upon it, I'll inflict a greater amount of more severe punishment in return."

Nobody at the Jeffries' camp knows just what he weighs. It is said he does not know himself. Jim Corbett believes Jeffries will tip the beam between 220 and 225 pounds.

"Jack Johnson," said Tom Managan, his manager, "is in excellent shape and weighs 200 pounds. He will win, first because he is the craftiest man in pugilism, and second, because neither Jeffries nor any other living man can come back after being out of the fighting game as long as he has been."

Both fighters are fit, according to Dr. W. S. Porter, family physician to Jeffries. Although it was a strange thing for him to do, Dr. Porter examined Johnson at his camp yesterday. His went out to see the negro work and while there was spied by the colored man.

"I'm glad to see you, doctor," said Johnson, addressing the physician when he saw him at the ringside just before the beginning of the workout.

"Can I do anything for you?"

The fighter and the physician talked for a few minutes, and then Dr. Porter examined the negro's heart action. After Johnson had gone through his exhibition paces the physician made a second examination. He said he found no signs of palpitation and thought Johnson was in good condition.

Later at Jeffries' camp, Dr. Porter expressed the opinion that Jeffries was in fine fettle.

"He has the appearance of a perfect athlete in the white of his eye," said the doctor. "No man's eyes can look as Jeffries do and not be fit for the battle of his life."

That Johnson thinks mighty well of his chances in the fight is shown by his statement last night that he had $500 to bet on himself.

Betting is extremely light. Several men with money to place are said to be holding aloof because they are of the belief that the arbiter for the battle has not been named finally.

There is warfare on between the two sets of houses where bets may be placed, and this has led to the naming of some peculiar odds. At Tom Roberts' place, officially recognized by the promoters as betting headquarters, the best odds offered are 10 to 6 1-2 on Jeffries and even money that Jeffries does not knock Johnson out within 25 rounds.

But up the street a few doors in an independent house, odds of 10 to 7 1/2 on Jeffries are being megaphoned to the crowds and even money is offered that Jeffries will not knock his opponent out in 18. But neither place is doing any large amount of business. Several bets of $100 to $65 and $75 have been placed. A few have been made at $500 to $850.

Just because there is little betting on the fight is no sign that money is not being spent about the city of Reno in abundance, however. The play at the roulette wheel, faro and crap tables has been so good that the limits are being raised. These games of chance run day and night except on Sunday.

The reason Jeffries is so anxious to have the boxing platform of the arena absolutely immovable is ascribed to the experience he had during his fight with Bob Fitzsimmons nearly a decade ago in San Francisco. The platform built for the contest was hurriedly constructed and it was a bit unstable and shaky for a man of Jeffries' weight. Fitzsimmons being a lighter man and shifter on his feet managed to use the flexible floor as a kind of spring board from which to launch himself on the champion, but with Jeffries the "give" and general insecurity of the structure interfered seriously with his footwork and, as he described it afterward, he felt as if he were wading through a sand pile with every movement he made. As a consequence the active "Janky" Bob contrived to get in many telling blows on his adversary that, Jeffries thinks, would not have reached their mark but for the springy flooring.

PERSONALS

Dr. Joseph Grady, the Boston specialist and wife, formerly of Lowell, sailed today on the Prince Arthur for Yarmouth, N. S. During their month's absence they will visit Halifax, Sydney, C. B., St. Johns, N. F., Charlottetown, P. E. I., Quebec, and Montreal and return home by way of Burlington, Vt., reaching Boston on Tuesday, Aug. 2nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Ready and Master Willie and Miss Helen will spend the Fourth with friends in Holyoke. They went over the road in an automobile.

The Hillsdale church in Dracut, can boast of the youngest organist in these parts and the proud distinction belongs to Miss Minnie Tucker, of 36 Orleans street, this city. She is 13 years old and was only 11 years old when she took charge of the organ at the Hillside church. She has played herself into the hearts of the congregation and those who attend that church are very proud of their youthful organist.

Miss Tucker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John George Tucker. She began the study of the piano when only seven years of age with Miss Minnie E. Davey and after four years' instruction under Miss Davey she took up the study of the organ with Mr. Wilfred Kershaw. Miss Tucker possesses a beautiful soprano voice. She will enter the New England Conservatory next year.

The family of Mr. Thomas E. Foley of 126 Warren street, left today for Revere beach where they will enjoy the next two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis N. White and daughter Viola, of 139 Tremont street, have gone to Westford, Mass., for the next two weeks.

IF SHE GOES TO CONGRESS, PROMISES TO RESIGN IF NOT GOOD

KATE RICHARDS O'HARE

KANSAS CITY, Kan., July 1.—If Mrs. Kate Richards O'Hare is elected to congress from the Second Kansas district she promises to tender her resignation if the voters of her district think she votes in the interests of the trusts. Mrs. O'Hare has already written out her resignation, leaving it undated, the date to be supplied by any of her following who thinks she should have voted "another way on any bill before congress." It doesn't look as though Mrs. O'Hare would hold her seat for long even if she gets enough votes to take a seat by Uncle Joe. Mrs. O'Hare is a member of the Socialist party. She does the family washing between making speeches. She has fifty of these talks to be made within the next month.

more than one a day, and will follow "with more talks—in fact, enough talks to insure my election," she says.

SULTAN OF SULU

Is on His Way to New York

NEW YORK, July 1.—The sultan of Sulu, who is credited with wanting to marry Alice Roosevelt, is on his way to the United States, accompanied by a body guard of 19 servants. Incidentally the sultan has $200,000 in pearls to adorn his person. The sultan left Manila two weeks ago and after a brief visit in England will head direct for New York and promises to make a tour of the country. The sultan of Sulu claims descent from that valiant Dyak Borneo chief, Paganus Tindig, who early in the 16th century conquered the Sulu archipelago, founded the sultanate and opened the way for the introduction therein of the religion of the

For The Day We Celebrate

WHEREVER YOU SPEND THE DAY, WHETHER AT HOME OR AWAY, YOU WILL NEED MANY "SUMMER THINGS" TO HELP MAKE YOU COMFORTABLE. WE PRESENT TODAY A SEASONABLE LIST OF HOT WEATHER GOODS WITH SEASONABLE PRICES. IN MANY CASES BIG SLICES HAVE BEEN TAKEN FROM THE REGULAR PRICE MARKS, AND IF YOU WILL COME HERE FOR YOUR OUTFIT FOR

The Glorious Fourth

YOU WILL BE SURE TO FIND IN OUR LARGE ASSORTMENTS JUST WHAT WILL PLEASE YOU, AND YOU WILL PAY SO MUCH LESS THAN WHAT YOU EXPECTED THAT THERE WILL BE LOTS OF MONEY LEFT FOR MONDAY'S CELEBRATING.

Make the Fourth a Pleasure

By wearing comfortable shoes. When a man buys shoes he buys them for comfort and style, that is, most men do. But women want style first and comfort after. Now we want to tell you that the new oxfords we are just receiving this month combine both these desirable features of style AND comfort. Come and see them—try them on—and you will buy, that is, if you have any possible need for a new pair of shoes.

We speak first of all of the Queen Quality Oxfords and Pumps in Patent Leather, Black and Tan Calf—these are beauties at $3.00 and $3.50. No old styles, every pair brand new and up-to-date.

Boston Favorites are hardly equalled by any other shoe at anywhere near the same price. All kinds at $2.00 and $2.50. White Canvas Pumps and Oxfords are especially good this summer. . . . 98c and $1.49. Misses' and Children's Pumps, tan and black, $1.25 and $1.49.

New Dutch Collars

It is July weather now and time to put away the hot, uncomfortable, laundered collars, and enjoy the pleasures of the loose fitting lace or lingerie neckwear. Dutch Collars are certainly the proper thing for warm weather.

The most beautiful designs in Venice Lace have just been received, all especially priced for Fourth of July week, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00. We never have shown such an attractive line of Linen Dutch Collars with edges wide and narrow of baby Irish lace. One special lot of 25 different styles, many of them regular 50c kinds, are marked for this week's sale only. . . . 25c

These are really such exceptional values at this price that our advice if you want one is to come early.

All the New Things In Belts

There is more snap and style to our Belts for a quarter than we have been able to give before for many a day—of course you know that the Patent Leather ones are the latest notion and ours at a quarter are equal in appearance to many at double the money we have seen on the street lately. It is the wide style with big brass buckle, pointed end, and comes in black and red. These are scarce, but we have plenty for the Fourth at . . . . 25c

Never saw such a variety of Wash Belts, as we are showing just now. There is a style to please every taste, in either linen, pique, crash or mercerized canvas. Some are plain tailored, others embroidered or braided, and you can choose from either lot at . . . 25c or 50c. All have pearl buckles. Some extra good things in White Belts at . . . . 10c each

VACATION WEAR

You can't thoroughly enjoy your vacation unless you are properly clothed for it. At the seashore, the mountains, or in the country your wardrobe will add much to the satisfaction and pleasure of your outing. A visit to our department will help in suggesting needs—it will also show you the thought and care we have given to "Vacation Wear." Just a few hints of some of the good things this week.

TUB SUITS

We can only say of our line of Tub Suits that you will do yourself an injustice if you buy your vacation outfit before seeing the large variety of linen and crash suits we carry. Every grade of all linen, crash, ramie, cloth and repp is here with a price range of $2.98 to $13.00.

Junior Suits of all pure linen, natural, white and combination colors, modeled for growing girls of 13, 15 and 17. A new departure in wash suits, $2.98, $3.98 and $4.98.

At $5.98—All pure linen suit in natural color, with collar and cuff of same or contrasting color, full pleated skirt. The best value for many seasons.

At $7.98—Heavy Linen Suit with 36 inch coat, pearl buttons; also linen crash suit with full pleated skirt, Persian collar and cuffs. Actually worth $10. Our two big leaders this year.

At $10, $11.50 and $12.98—We show the nobbiest suits in the

WASH SKIRTS

Your vacation is probably still ahead and you will be delighted with one or more of the attractive wash skirts we are showing today. Some are pure linen, some are mercerized, white and colors. All are smartly tailored in latest style and neatly finished. Values are remarkable.

At $1.00—The very best tailored skirt ever in Lowell at the price. Tab trimmed with cluster pleats, in plain white, natural linen and navy blue. Extra size waistbands in this same skirt are 50c extra.

At $1.98—Several different styles, all pure linen, with new tunic and overskirt effect, or fine tailor made with cluster pleating. Very attractive models in both white and natural linen.

At $2.98 and $3.98—Over 15 different styles in pure white linen,

WASH DRESSES

You will hardly find in the city a larger or better line of Wash Dresses for your Fourth of July outing than those we show. White and Colored Lawns, Percales, Gingham, Batiste and Linen. You can be sure of being cool and comfortable in any one of them. Prices . . . . 98c to $17.98.

At $3.98—We have a very attractive dress, linen color, lace yoke pointed front and back, tunic skirt, with narrow braid embroidery. Women's and misses' sizes.

At $5.98—We show a Two-Piece Gingham Dress, blue, pink and lavender checks, pointed Dutch neck, three-quarter sleeve, long tunic effect; very exclusive style.

At $6.98—Handsome Lawn 2-Piece Dresses, waist with round low neck, three-quarter sleeves, extra full skirt with overskirt effect; all colors.

SULTAN OF SULU

great prophet. This sultanate, politically regarded as an integral part of the Philippines, came into the possession of the United States as the result of the Spanish-American war. Under the old regime the group of about 140 islands constituted a vassal domain in the suzerainty of the king of Spain. The authority of the sultan is nominal, but the devotion of his subjects is unquestioned. In a material sense he is wanting in nothing. He receives an annual income from the British North Borneo company in lieu of his sovereign rights in Brunel and owns a fine collection of pearls. He is short and thick set. He wears a slight black mustache, and his hair is closely cropped. His eyes are small. His attitude is picturesque. He can be extremely affable, particularly when the subject of his diminishing power is avoided.

BUILDING COLLAPSED

Falling Into Street in New Bedford and Catching Fire

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 1.—At 9.30 this morning the brick wall of the store house occupied by the Weber Lumber company, its trusses weakened by the collapse of the floor last night, crashed into the street, carrying with it a quantity of lumber which was stored on the second floor, the roof caving in on top of the heap. Intensity was added to the excitement when smoke was seen issuing from the building but the blaze, which was caused by burning insulation, was quickly extinguished by the department.

The room in which the lumber was stored was originally intended for a molding room and the floor was not strong enough to bear the weight of three carloads of stock which were yesterday piled on it. At 8.30 last night the floor fell through, pulling the trusses out of position and causing a sag of two or three feet in the roof. The wall was so weakened by the falling of the floor that this morning it collapsed, bringing the roof down with it.

Fortunately no one was injured, though there were several persons in the immediate vicinity of the building when the crash occurred. At the time of the collapse of the floor last night workmen had not been out of the building more than fifteen minutes. The fire which resulted from the accident amounted to little in itself, though a quantity of cotton waste stored in the basement made a serious blaze possible. The estimate of the damage which was confined to the building itself has not been made but it is expected that it will be considerable.

BIRTHDAYS CELEBRATED

EAST NORTHFIELD, Mass., July 1.—The birthdays of the United States and of Canada were celebrated today by the several hundred delegates attending the Northfield conference here. It has been the custom of the American delegates at the convention to observe the patriotic celebrations on the Fourth of July, but this year many early commencements have necessitated the ending of the conference on July 3rd. Because of the early ending of the convention the American delegates decided to join the Canadian delegates in their celebration of the Canadian dominion on July 1 by celebrating the Fourth today.

PRICE OF COAL ADVANCING

The coal dealers have announced an increase of 25 cents per ton in the price of coal. They offer two reasons for the increase. On one reason is that they have agreed to advance the wages of their teamsters $1 a week, and the second reason is that the wholesale price of coal has been advanced 30 cents per ton, the advance taking effect today. The dealers claim the price of coal. They offer two reasons for the increase. One reason June of the present year than in any previous year.

CAPITALIST KILLED BY ELEVATOR

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—John William Hallahan was caught between the floor and car and killed late last night when he stepped from a hotel elevator at Cape May, N. J., after the car had started. He married Florence O'Day, a daughter of the late Daniel O'Day, the Standard Oil millionaire. She is spending the summer at New London, Conn.

MAY BE SUICIDE

MEDFORD, Mass., July 1.—The body of C. S. Sargent, of Somerville, was found today in front of West Hall, Tufts college. A medical examiner said death was due to poison. It is believed he committed suicide.

BOY SHOT DEAD

Accident in Camp Near Stroudwater

PORTLAND, Me., July 1.—Robert Stanley Dufresne, a boy of 13, was shot and instantly killed yesterday afternoon by John Fickett, a boy aged 12, at a camp near Stroudwater, where they had been camping out with two other boys for several days. The Fickett boy had an old revolver and withdrew the cartridges, but when the Dufresne boy said teasingly, "You couldn't hit me," he slipped in a cartridge and, as he thought, moved the chamber so as to bring the hammer opposite a blank space, and said, "What will you bet?" The Dufresne boy said, "My life." He pulled the trigger there was an explosion, and to his horror his friend dropped dead. Police Chief Dresser notified Coroner Martin and Asst. County Atty. Bodys, and an inquest will be held as a matter of form. There was a pathetic scene when Grant Dufresne, the father of the dead boy, met John Fickett and his father, Clarence E. Fickett, at the office of Chief Dresser. The fellow broke down and Mr. Dufresne spoke kindly to him and then he extended his hand to Mr. Fickett and said, "We will bear this together." No complaint will be made against the boy, who left the police station with his father. The boys were very close friends and were generally together.

AIRSHIP AT LAKEVIEW

The unusual picture of an enormous airship flying through the air at the rate of 20 or more miles an hour will be presented at Lakeview park every afternoon and evening during next week, arrangements having been made by the Boston & Northern Street Railway company with Mr. Strobel, who is generally known as the King of the Air, for the exhibition of one of his famous dirigible balloons. Mr. Strobel has, under his management, some of the most famous navigators of the air in the country and one of the best of them, Mr. J. J. Parker of Rochester, N. Y., will be present to operate the machine. Mr. Strobel himself has made many sensational flights but as he has taken on years he has also taken on flesh, which is not particularly conducive to expertness in the operation of the modern airship. Mr. Strobel has perfected the dirigible balloon to the extent that with anything like ordinary weather he is practically sure of making the flight. Of course, in a gale he would not be able to do so. Under ordinary conditions the ship will travel at least 20 miles an hour and has a record of over 10 miles beyond that. It is under the most absolutely perfect control and presents a very unusual and interesting spectacle. The ship which Mr. Strobel will operate and which will be at Lakeview park is one of the largest that has been made in this country, being 55 feet long and 11 1/2 feet in diameter. It is, however, extremely light, the whole outfit including the weight of the operator being not over 350 pounds. If the conditions are right Monday afternoon it is quite probable that the airship will take a little pleasure tour over the city of Lowell itself, although this has not as yet been definitely decided. It will certainly make a flight above Mescalup lake and the neighboring territory.

HARVARD'S DAY

Crimson Oarsmen in Good Shape at the Finish

NEW LONDON, Conn., July 1.—Harvard's varsity crew rowed steadily under the railroad bridge at the end of the four mile course late yesterday afternoon a winner by six lengths over eight tired Ells pulling their oars on sheer nerve. The powerful beat of the Harvard stroke hardly varied from the time that the first spurt of the racing start settled down into the steadier grind. Nor did Yale's efforts, always a trifle faster, let up until the last few hundred yards of the distance. Harvard simply rowed away, winning by power and persistent sticking to a careful plan of action. Yale was beaten, although no one really knew it, when the Harvard shell nosed a trifle ahead at the two mile mark. Yale was really out of the race at the three mile flag, when a length and a half open water rippled between the boats. Even then Ben Wallis, stroking the Blue crew, kept them at it, driving them as fast as they could stand and as fast as his own waning strength would permit. After the boats crossed the line Wallis' hands left the sweep. His arms and back kept up on in the steady rhythm of the rowing motion. Then he keeled over. A minute later he was lifted out and wrapped in blankets aboard the Ellhu Yale. He had given all he had.

Harvard Finishes Sitting Up

When Wallis dropped, Roger Cutler, the Harvard pacemaker, was resting on his oar dashing water on the man behind him with a strong sweep of his hand. The Harvard oarsmen were all of them upright in the boat. They paused a second, splashing each other, then picked up a half paddle and went slowly over to the John Harvard.

So Harvard finished, with a show of endurance that was a credit to their adherence to training conditions unusually strict at the crimson camp this year and to the Wray regime, which has brought Harvard so strongly to the foreground of rowing affairs. It was another clean sweep, another day of Harvard victories from the races to the morning to the overwhelming varsity finish.

MAN IS MISSING

F. M. Burke of 528 Walnut street, Cincinnati, Ohio, is anxious to find Nathaniel H. White, and has written to the local police to endeavor to locate him. The writer says that White is about 52 years of age, bald, stands about five feet, eight inches, and had a brother, William White, in this city.

TRYING TO FIND FATHER

Annie Butler, aged 12 years, residing in Skowhegan, Me., has written to the police asking them to endeavor to locate her father, John Butler, a spinner by occupation. She said that the last time she heard from him he was residing at 15 Linson, Linden or Lincoln street in this city. She writes that she is in a destitute condition and would like to have her father care for her.

Thanks! Thanks!

We heartily thank the people of Lowell and vicinity for their prompt response to our semi-annual price slaughter of Ladies' and Gents' Clothing, Furnishings, Millinery and Shoes. Crowded as we were, from opening time until evening, we fear that some of our customers were not waited on properly. If so, we regret it exceedingly, but if you were here and could not get in, or if you did not get the proper attention, please come today or tomorrow, as we have made every possible preparation to have every customer go home satisfied. Nevertheless we urge you to come early and secure the best bargains. Open every evening this and next week.

HELD IN $6,000*Man Charged With Robbing Lowell Man

BOSTON, July 1.—James P. Crombie, 22 years old, of 42 Walter avenue, Brookline, was in Roxbury district court yesterday charged with robbing Dr. Antonio Vranos, a former resident of Lowell and brutally assaulting Miss Margaret Gavin of South Boston in the Back Bay ten last Friday evening. The accused waived reading of the complaint and being unable to get $3000 bail in each case, was sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

YOUTH ESCAPED*CRAWLED THROUGH REGISTER AND MADE HIS ESCAPE

WINCHESTER, July 1.—Charles Quigley, 18 years of age, a youth of slender build, is the only prisoner who has succeeded in getting out of the Winchester lockup.

He was in court in Woburn yesterday morning and was sentenced to the Concord reformatory on a charge of being idle and disorderly. Chief McIntosh brought him back from court shortly before 10 yesterday morning and looked him in the detention room while he attended to some other duties, intending to take the 1 p. m. train for Concord.

When the chief returned for his prisoner he found that he had made his escape. This he did by jumping from a chair in the room and pulling himself up on a water pipe near the ceiling of the room. From this he climbed onto a hot furnace pipe and in this cramped position succeeded in pushing the last section of the furnace pipe and the register up into the town hall auditorium. He was then able to crawl up through the register opening, which measures 10 by 14 1/2 inches in the clear.

Shortly before noon Michael McCawley, the janitor of the town hall, heard someone walking in the hall and on investigation found Quigley crouching in a corner. McCawley seized him. Quigley put up a fight and McCawley pulled him down the back entrance of the hall out onto the walk near the police station. Here the struggle continued. McCawley got him up against the building and held him there for fully 10 minutes, hoping that someone would arrive. In changing his hold Quigley succeeded in freeing himself and when last seen was going up Washington street toward Montvale.

BABY CARNIVAL*TO BE HELD AT LAKEVIEW JULY 12 AND 13

Babyland in all its splendor will hold full sway at Lakeview park on July 12 and 13, when the babies and little girls of Lowell will have their lunings at the annual baby show, decorated baby carriage parade and schoolgirls' white dress floral parade, which is given under the auspices of the Boston & Northern Street Railway company.

This season the management of the big event is pleased to announce that Mr. L. M. Rich will be in personal charge of the "carnival of the babe," which is a positive guarantee to the hundreds of mothers and fathers whose children annually take part in the big festival, that everything connected with the show and parade will receive the best of management. Mr. Rich is the originator of the baby show and conducted the very successful event held at Lowell two seasons ago, but who was unable to be here last summer. Mr. Rich will make it the biggest affair of the kind ever held in this vicinity.

The two day carnival will begin on July 12 afternoon with the baby show and decorated coach parade and the judging of the baby classes and carriages, and the second day will be devoted to the schoolgirls' white dress parade and the awarding of all prizes. The prize list consists of sixty grand prizes, the value of which is $350. The grand prize to the mother of the most beautiful baby in Lowell will be a high grade sewing machine. Besides the premiums which will be awarded to the babies in the contests, every baby entered in any of the ten classes will receive a beautiful doll, so that all the children taking part will be remembered.

WILLOW DALE*CONCERT SUNDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING BY QUARTET

Next Sunday both afternoon and evening the Apollo quartet of Boston will be heard in concerts at Willow Dale. This quartet offers a program of unusual interest and though the singers are highly trained their program is decidedly popular in subjects. The Apollo quartet has been a feature in star course entertainments all over this section of the country for years and they have always been finely received. Their long association with the quality of its work and the engagement at Willow Dale affords music lovers a fine chance to again hear this talented organization under the best possible conditions. No charge will be made for these concerts and every facility for easy and satisfied hearing of them will be provided by the management of Willow Dale.

GAS FRANCHISE*Passed By the Haverhill Board

HAVERHILL, July 1.—After hearing charges and counter charges by various citizens that the proposed franchise for the Haverhill gas light company was a steal, and that politics had been played between the members of the council and the corporation agents, the board of five, by a vote of four to one, granted a new franchise and accepted a new gas agreement for the consumers, with the provisions that gas shall be furnished for 30 cents, a reduction of 10 cents from the present rate. Also on the 1st of the year, the rate will be further reduced to 25 cents and when the consumption reaches 450,000,000 cubic feet, which it is figured will be from seven and a half to 8 1/2 years, the rate will be 20 cents.

The third in a series of public meetings was held previous to the vote being taken, and for three hours legal talent clashed, prominent and influential citizens spoke both for and against municipal ownership and the situation reached a more acute stage than has ever been noticeable. It was plainly evident that the council stood in favor of having the question of granting a franchise put up to them at the city election, for at every utterance tending to favor that purchase there were loud bursts of applause.

Alderman Joe W. Bean was alone in his stand against the granting of the franchise, he had the only vote in favor of having the question of legal notice that he will take the case to the equity courts of the commonwealth in an effort to restrain the city government from carrying out its plan.

The situation has created a general feeling of unrest which, it is said, will have its outcome in the declaring of a candidate for mayor who will be pledged to municipal ownership of public utilities. Alderman Bean, who has championed the cause for a long time, is mentioned.

Big night Assn. Sat. eve.

LAKEVIEW THEATRE

The crowds at Lakeview theatre this week have increased steadily, and everyone seems well pleased with the bright, breezy little comedy that is being presented every afternoon and evening for their approval. The story is well told and the situations are strong enough to hold the interest of the audience from the first to the final curtain. Mr. James Thatcher in the leading role of "Bruno Madell," who sets out all sorts of trouble through his getting mixed up in the names of two girls, one with whom he is in love and the other whom he does not know is very funny. The scenic and electrical effects are good and the whole makes a comedy of considerable strength, well staged and acted, and keeping with the high standard of plays that are being offered this season.

Next week a romantic melodrama will be the attraction, called "A Western Romance." It is, as one would imagine from the title, a western piece and is full of thrilling incidents with a delightful love story running all the way through it, which it seems ought to make it highly acceptable and pleasing for the holiday week. The leading role, "Jack o' Diamonds," which was made famous a few years ago by one of America's leading actors, will be played by Mr. James Thatcher, who has fully demonstrated that his talents are not confined to the depicting of rural characters, but that he can capably handle any part he may be called upon to enact.

Pacard & Jordan Assn. Sat. eve.

THEATRE VOYONS

Today's feature at the Theatre Voyons, "The Great Train Holdup," is one of the best productions of Pathe's American company, and it has all the thrill and sensation that the best American makes have, together with the careful staging and fine photography of the imported pictures. Herbert LeRoy lectures on the biograph subject and brings out the particularly touching and interesting story of child life. A real comedy and an interesting scenic subject also are on the program and the musical selections are worthy of the attention of anyone. The "Theatre Voyons" is exclusively showing the best pictures produced by the firms of Pathe, Biograph, Essanay, Lubin, Vitagraph, Edison, Glimco and Urban. These films are rated as the best in the world and are the most expensive.

BUILDING COLLAPSED

Falling Into Street in New Bedford and Catching Fire

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 1.—At 9.30 this morning the brick wall of the store house occupied by the Weber Lumber company, its trusses weakened by the collapse of the floor last night, crashed into the street, carrying with it a quantity of lumber which was stored on the second floor, the roof caving in on top of the heap. Intensity was added to the excitement when smoke was seen issuing from the building but the blaze, which was caused by burning insulation, was quickly extinguished by the department.

The room in which the lumber was stored was originally intended for a molding room and the floor was not strong enough to bear the weight of three carloads of stock which were yesterday piled on it. At 8.30 last night the floor fell through, pulling the trusses out of position and causing a sag of two or three feet in the roof. The wall was so weakened by the falling of the floor that this morning it collapsed, bringing the roof down with it.

Fortunately no one was injured, though there were several persons in the immediate vicinity of the building when the crash occurred. At the time of the collapse of the floor last night workmen had not been out of the building more than fifteen minutes. The fire which resulted from the accident amounted to little in itself, though a quantity of cotton waste stored in the basement made a serious blaze possible. The estimate of the damage which was confined to the building itself has not been made but it is expected that it will be considerable.

BIRTHDAYS CELEBRATED

EAST NORTHEFIELD, Mass., July 1.—The birthdays of the United States and of Canada were celebrated today by the several hundred delegates attending the Northfield conference here. It has been the custom of the American delegates at the convention to observe the patriotic celebrations on the Fourth of July, but this year many early commencements have necessitated the ending of the conference on July 3rd. Because of the early ending of the convention the American delegates decided to join the Canadian delegates in their celebration of the Canadian dominion on July 1 by celebrating the Fourth today.

PRICE OF COAL ADVANCING

The coal dealers have announced an increase of 25 cents per ton in the price of coal. They offer two reasons for the increase. On reason is that they have agreed to advance the wages of their teamsters $1 a week, and the second reason is that the wholesale price of coal has been advanced 30 cents per ton, the advance taking effect today. The dealers claim the price of coal. They offer two reasons for the increase. One reason June of the present year than in any previous year.

CAPITALIST KILLED BY ELEVATOR

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—John William Hallahan was caught between the floor and car and killed late last night when he stepped from a hotel elevator at Cape May, N. J., after the car had started. He married Florence O'Day, a daughter of the late Daniel O'Day, the Standard Oil millionaire. She is spending the summer at New London, Conn.

MAY BE SUICIDE

MEDFORD, Mass., July 1.—The body of C. S. Sargent, of Somerville, was found today in front of West Hall, Tufts college. A medical examiner said death was due to poison. It is believed he committed suicide.

BOY SHOT DEAD

Accident in Camp Near Stroudwater

PORTLAND, Me., July 1.—Robert Stanley Dufresne, a boy of 13, was shot and instantly killed yesterday afternoon by John Fickett, a boy aged 12, at a camp near Stroudwater, where they had been camping out with two other boys for several days. The Fickett boy had an old revolver and withdrew the cartridges, but when the Dufresne boy said teasingly, "You couldn't hit me," he slipped in a cartridge and, as he thought, moved the chamber so as to bring the hammer opposite a blank space, and said, "What will you bet?" The Dufresne boy said, "My life."
He pulled the trigger there was an explosion, and to his horror his friend dropped dead. Police Chief Dresser notified Coroner Martin and Asst. County Atty. T. W. and an inquest will be held as a matter of fact.
There was a pathetic scene when Grant Dufresne, the father of the dead boy, met John Fickett and his father, Clarence E. Fickett, at the office of Chief Dresser.
The little fellow broke down and Mr. Dufresne spoke kindly to him and then he extended his hand to Mr. Fickett and said, "We will bear this together."
No complaint will be made against the boy, who left the police station with his father. The boys were very close friends and were generally together.

AIRSHIP AT LAKEVIEW

The unusual picture of an enormous airship flying through the air at the rate of 20 or more miles an hour will be presented at Lakeview park every afternoon and evening during next week. Arrangements having been made by the Boston & Northern Street Railway company with Mr. Strobel, who is generally known as the King of the Air, for the exhibition of one of his famous dirigible balloons. Mr. Strobel has, under his management, some of the most famous navigators of the air in the country and one of the best of them, Mr. E. J. Parker of Rochester, N. Y., will be present to operate the machine. Mr. Strobel himself has made many sensational flights but as he has taken on years he has also taken on flesh, which is not particularly conducive to experience in the operation of the modern airship. Mr. Strobel has perfected the dirigible balloon to the extent that with anything like ordinary weather he is practically sure of making the flight. Of course, in a gale he would not be able to do so. Under ordinary conditions the ship will travel at least 20 miles an hour and has a record of over 10 miles beyond that. It is under the most absolutely perfect control and presents a very unusual and interesting spectacle.
The ship which Mr. Parker will operate and which will be at Lakeview park is one of the largest that has been made in this country, being 65 feet long and 11 1/2 feet in diameter. It is, however, extremely light, the whole outfit including the weight of the operator being not over 350 pounds. If the conditions are right Monday afternoon it is quite probable that the airship will take a little pleasure tour over the city of Lowell itself, although this has not as yet been definitely decided. It will certainly make a flight above Moseupia lake and the neighboring territory.

HARVARD'S DAY

Crimson Oarsmen in Good Shape at the Finish

NEW LONDON, Conn., July 1.—Harvard's varsity crew rowed sturdily under the railroad bridge at the end of the four mile course late yesterday afternoon a winner by six lengths over eight tired Ells pulling their oars on a camp nerve. The powerful beat of the Harvard stroke hardly varied from the time that the first spurt of the racing start settled down into the steadier grind. Nor did Yale's efforts, always a trifle faster, let up until the last few hundred yards of the distance.
Harvard simply rowed away, winning by power and persistent sticking to a careful plan of action. Yale was beaten, although no one really knew it, when the Harvard shell nosed a trifle ahead at the two mile mark. Yale was really out of the race at the three mile flag, when a length and a half open water rippled between the boats.
Even then Ben Wallis, stroking the Blue crew, kept them at it, driving them as fast as they could stand and as fast as his own waning strength would permit. After the boats crossed the line Wallis' hands left the sweep. His arms and back kept up on in the steady rhythm of the rowing motion. Then he keeled over. A minute later he was lifted out and wrapped in blankets aboard the Blinn Yale. He had given all he had.
Harvard Finishes Sitting Up.
When Wallis dropped, Roger Cutler, the Harvard pacemaker, was resting on his oar dashing water on the man behind him with a strong sweep of his hand. The Harvard oarsmen were all of them upright in the boat. They paused a second, splashing each other, then picked up a half paddle and went slowly over to the John Harvard.
So Harvard finished, with a show of endurance that was a credit to their adherence to training conditions unusually strict at the crimson camp this year and to the Way regime, which has brought Harvard so strongly to the foreground of rowing affairs. It was another clean sweep, another day of Harvard victories from the races of the morning to the overwhelming victory finish.

MAN IS MISSING

F. M. Burke of 528 Walnut street, Cincinnati, Ohio, is anxious to find Nathaniel H. White, and has written to the local police to endeavor to locate him. The writer says that White is about 52 years of age, bald, stands about five feet, eight inches, and had a brother, William White, in this city.

TRYING TO FIND FATHER

Annie Butler, aged 12 years, residing in Skowhegan, Me., has written to the police asking them to endeavor to locate her father, John Butler, a spinner by occupation. She said that the last time she heard from him he was residing at 15 Linson, Linden or Lincoln street in this city. She writes that she is in a destitute condition and would like to have her father care for her.

We heartily thank the people of Lowell and vicinity for their prompt response to our semi-annual price slaughter of Ladies' and Gents' Clothing, Furnishings, Millinery and Shoes. Crowded as we were, from opening time until evening, we fear that some of our customers were not waited on properly. If so, we regret it exceedingly, but if you were here and could not get in, or if you did not get the proper attention, please come today or tomorrow, as we have made every possible preparation to have every customer go home satisfied. Nevertheless we urge you to come early and secure the best bargains. Open every evening this and next week.

HELD IN $6,000*Man Charged With Robbing Lowell Man

BOSTON, July 1.—James P. Cronin, 22 years old, of 42 Walter avenue, Brookline, was in Roxbury district court yesterday charged with robbing Dr. Antonio Vranos, a former resident of Lowell and brutally assaulting Miss Margaret Gavin of South Boston in the Back Bay ten last Friday evening. The accused waived reading of the complaint and being unable to get $3000 bail in each case, was sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

YOUTH ESCAPED*CRAWLED THROUGH REGISTER AND MADE HIS ESCAPE

WINCHESTER, July 1.—Charles Quigley, 18 years of age, a youth of slender build, is the only prisoner who has succeeded in getting out of the Winchester lockup.

He was in court in Woburn yesterday morning and was sentenced to the Concord reformatory on a charge of being idle and disorderly. Chief McIntosh brought him back from court shortly before 10 yesterday morning and locked him in the detention room, where he attended to some other duties, intending to take the 1 p. m. train for Concord.

When the chief returned for his prisoner he found that he had made his escape. This he did by jumping from a chair in the room and pulling himself up a water pipe near the ceiling of the room. From this he climbed onto a hot air furnace pipe and in this cramped position succeeded in pushing the last section of the furnace pipe and the register up into the town hall auditorium. He was then able to crawl up through the register opening, which measures 10 by 14 1/2 inches in the clear.

Shortly before noon Michael McCawley, the janitor of the town hall, heard him walking in the hall and on investigation found Quigley crouching in a corner. McCawley seized him. Quigley put up a fight and McCawley pulled him down the back entrance of the hall out onto the walk near the police station. Here the struggle continued. McCawley got him up against the building and held him there for fully 10 minutes, hoping that assistance would arrive. In changing his hold Quigley succeeded in freeing himself and when last seen was going up Washington street toward Montvale.

BABY CARNIVAL*TO BE HELD AT LAKEVIEW JULY 12 AND 13

Babyland in all its splendor will hold full sway at Lakeview park on July 12 and 13, when the babies and little girls of Lowell will have their innings at the annual baby show, decorated baby carriage parade and schoolgirls' white dress floral parade, which is given under the auspices of the Boston & Northern Street Railway company.

This season the management of the big event is pleased to announce that Mr. L. M. Rich will be in personal charge of the "carnival of the babe," which is a positive guarantee to the hundreds of mothers and fathers whose children annually take part in the big festival, that everything connected with the show and parade will receive the best of management. Mr. Rich is the originator of the baby show and conducted the very successful event held at Lowell two seasons ago, but who was unable to be here last summer. Mr. Rich will make it the biggest affair of the kind ever held in this vicinity.

The two day carnival will begin on July 12 afternoon with the baby show and decorated coach parade and the judging of the baby classes and carriages, and the second day will be devoted to the schoolgirls' white dress parade and the awarding of prizes. The prize list consists of thirty grand prizes, the value of which is $350. The grand prize to the mother of the most beautiful baby in Lowell will be a high grade sewing machine. Besides the premiums which will be awarded to the babies in the contests, every baby entered in any of the ten classes will receive a beautiful doll, so that all the children taking part will be remembered.

WILLOW DALE*CONCERT SUNDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING BY QUARTET

Next Sunday both afternoon and evening the Apollo Male quartet of Boston will be heard in concerts at Willow Dale. This quartet offers a program of unusual interest and though the singers are highly trained their program is decidedly popular 'n subjects. The Apollo quartet has been a feature in star course entertainments all over this section of the country for years and they have always been finely received. Their long association, excellent training and beautiful voices all combine to make their singing the best to be heard. The program will be varied and will include several solos as well as the quartet numbers. This quartet has been heard in Lowell and many people are familiar with the quality of its work and the engagement at Willow Dale affords music lovers a fine chance to again hear this talented organization under the best possible conditions. No charge will be made for these concerts and every facility for easy and satisfactory hearing of them will be provided by the management of Willow Dale.

GAS FRANCHISE*Passed By the Haverhill Board

HAVERHILL, July 1.—After hearing charges and counter charges by various citizens that the proposed franchise for the Haverhill gas light company was a steal, and that politics had been played between the members of the council and the corporation agents, the board of five, by a vote of four to one, granted a new franchise and accepted a new gas agreement for the consumers, with the provisions that gas shall be furnished for 90 cents, a reduction of 10 cents from the present rate. Also at the end of one year, the rate will be further reduced to 85 cents and when the consumption reaches 450,000,000 cubic feet, which it is figured will be from seven and a half to 8.8 years, the rate will be 80 cents.

The third in a series of public meetings was held previous to the vote being taken, and for three hours legal talent clashed, prominent and influential citizens spoke both for and against municipal ownership and the situation reached a more acute stage than has ever been noticed. It was plainly evident that the crowd stood in favor of having the question of granting a franchise put up to them at the city election, for at every utterance tending to favor that purchase there were loud bursts of applause.

Alderman Joe W. Bean was alone in his stand against the granting of the franchise, he having for many weeks attempted to influence his colleagues that the proper course was to allow the people to decide the question. His efforts were in vain, however.

Ex-City Solicitor Abbott has threatened to recall the members of the council because of their attitudes, and Attorney Essex S. Abbott has filed a legal notice that he will take the case to the equity courts of the commonwealth in an effort to restrain the city government from carrying out its plan.

The situation has created a general feeling of unrest, which, it is said, will have its outcome in the declaring of a candidate for mayor who will be pledged to municipal ownership of public utilities. Alderman Bean, who has championed the cause for a long time, is mentioned.

LAKEVIEW THEATRE

The crowds at Lakeview theatre this week have increased steadily, and everyone seems well pleased with the bright, breezy little comedy that is being presented every afternoon and evening for their approval. The story is well told and the situations are strong enough to hold the interest of the audience from the first to the final curtain. Mr. James Thatcher in the leading role of "Bruno Madell," who gets into all sorts of trouble through his getting mixed up in the names of two girls, one with whom he is in love and the other whom he does not know is very funny. The scenic and electrical effects are good and the whole makes a comedy of considerable strength, well staged and acted, and in keeping with the high standard of plays that are being offered this season.

Next week a romantic melodrama will be the attraction, called "A Western Romance." It is as one would imagine from the title, a western piece and is full of thrilling incidents with a delightful love story running all the way through it, which it seems ought to make it highly acceptable and pleasing for the holiday week. The leading role, "Jack o' Diamonds," which was made famous few years ago by one of America's leading actors, will be played by Mr. James Thatcher, who has fully demonstrated that his talents are not confined to the depicting of rural characters, but that he can capably handle any part he may be called upon to enact.

Pacard & Jordan Asso. Sat. eve.

THEATRE VOYONS

Today's feature at the Theatre Voyons, "The Great Train Holdup," is one of the best productions of Pathe's American company, and it has all the thrill and sensation that the best American makes have, together with the careful staging and fine photography of the imported pictures. Herbert McRoy lectures on the biograph subject and brings out the particularly touching and interesting story of child life. A real comedy and an interesting scenic subject also are on the program and the musical selections are worthy of the attention of anyone. The Theatre Voyons is exclusively showing the best pictures produced by the firms of Pathe, Biograph, Essanay, Lubin, Vitagraph, Edison, Gaiety and Urban. These films are rated as the best in the world and are the most expensive.

COUNT ZEPPELIN GOING AHEAD BUILDING MORE AIRSHIPS NOTWITHSTANDING MANY ACCIDENTS

BERLIN, July 1.—Count Zeppelin refuses to think that travel by air is unsafe notwithstanding the accident to the Deutschland. Undaunted by this latest accident, he is going ahead to build more and better ships, and he promises to give Germany safe air crafts before the summer is over. The count is going to have a hard time convincing a score of newspaper men that riding in the air is still an everyday occurrence. European papers are teeming with adjectives from the 20 correspondents who were the guests of the count when the Deutschland landed in a tree. All the writers agree that they were scared and are willing to let their brother writers take the next trip.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE

Woman Opened the Veins in Her Wrist

ALLENSTEIN, East Prussia, July 1.—Frau Von Schoenbeck Weber, charged with complicity in the murder of her husband, an army officer, attempted suicide today by opening the veins of the wrist. Physicians hope to save her life.

Major Von Schoenbeck was killed on Christmas eve, 1908, by her admirer, Captain Von Goeben, who subsequently confessed and took his own life.

FUNERAL OF BISHOP McVICKAR

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 1.—Many bishops and other clergy and hundreds of lay citizens today honored the memory of Right Rev. William N. McVicker, D. D., L. L. D., Episcopal bishop of Rhode Island. Following several morning services of requiem at various churches and lying in state from noon until 2 p. m., the funeral was held at St. John's church at 2.30 o'clock.

The funeral was conducted by Rt. Rev. Chamcey Bunce Brester, D. D., bishop of Connecticut, assisted by Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Gaylor, S. D., bishop of Tennessee; Rt. Rev. Arthur C. A. Hall, D. D., L. L. D., bishop of Vermont, and Rt. Rev. Robert Codman, D. D., bishop of Maine. There was no eulogy. Nearly 2000 persons viewed the features of Bishop McVicker last night and from 12 to 2 p. m. today.

While the body lay in St. John's church, details from twenty of the clergy kept vigil. Over 200 telegrams of condolence have been received in this city from bishops of the Anglican church in all parts of the world.

Man Was Found Guilty of Stealing a Roll of $33

There was a variety of cases in police court this morning and as is usual when the weather is the warmest and the humidity high, the session was a long one.

What proved to be a rather amusing case in which the defendant was discharged was that of Margaret Sullivan charged with assault and battery on Catherine Carley. The women in question are neighbors and reside in the rear of 265 Worthen street.

According to the testimony offered Mrs. Sullivan's boy placed an "autumn" egg in the pocket of Mrs. Carley's boy's clothing and then smashed the egg. Needless to say the clothing had to be removed and cleaned.

Mrs. Carley then went to Mrs. Sullivan's house and told her what she thought of her boy and incidentally told her what she thought of her (Mrs. Sullivan's) boy. Then followed a wordy battle and it is alleged that Mrs. Sullivan struck the Carley woman.

Mrs. Sullivan said that when she was told of what her boy had done she told Mrs. Carley she was sorry, but she said that Mrs. Carley called her a vile name and she pushed her off the step.

The court after considering the evidence found the defendant not guilty and ordered her to be discharged.

Stole a Pocketbook

William Jackson, a man who, it is said, calls any place he hangs his hat "Home, Sweet Home," came to Lowell yesterday afternoon from Montreal; but he had been in the city but a short time when he was gathered in by the police, and locked up on a complaint of larceny of $33 from James Dolan.

Dolan was drinking in a saloon when Jackson entered. Dolan then entered a rear room and Jackson followed him. While the pair were there Dolan dropped a pocketbook containing $33 and Jackson, it is alleged, picked it up and walked out of the place. Dolan a few minutes later discovered his loss and happened to think that the man who was in the room with him might have taken it and he rushed into the street. He saw Jackson and charged him with the theft, but the latter denied the allegation.

About this time Patrolman Patrick Sullivan happened to be passing by and upon complaint placed Jackson under arrest. When searched at the police station the pocketbook and $33 were found on his person, the $2 having disappeared in a very mysterious manner. Jackson admitted that he picked the pocketbook up when he saw it lying on the floor but denied that he knew to whom it belonged. He said that he was on his way to Boston when he felt thirsty and got off the train "just to get a few drinks."

He was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $25.

Case Continued

In the cases of Benjamin Shapiro, charged with assault and battery on Clouidia Belanger and Celina Hubert, a continuance was granted till July 8.

Stole Two Milk Bottles

Gideon Matte was arraigned in court on two separate complaints of larceny, it being alleged that he stole two milk bottles at the value of five cents each. One bottle was the property of John Hanlon and the other that of William J. Burbeck. Matte was drunk when arrested, and it is said admitted to Patrolman Joseph Lamoreaux that he had taken the bottles and drunk the contents. He was sentenced to one month in jail. The court in passing sentence in the case spoke of the prevalent stealing of milk bottles by both men employed by dealers and thieves.

Drunk Offenders

James Gallagher, who gave the name of Flaherty when placed under arrest, denied that he had been drinking yesterday. Patrolman Daniel Cogger said that he assisted in arresting the man and that the latter was lying behind the counter in a fruit store at the corner of Gorham and Summer streets. Gallagher is on parole from the state farm and he will be returned to that institution.

Michael Dennigan was fined $5, and one first offender was fined $2.

BOY RESCUED

COMPANION LEAPED FROM BOAT

MANCHESTER, N. H., July 1.—

Charles Lange, 16 years old, of Goff's Falls, was rescued from drowning at Pine Island park yesterday afternoon.

Everett E. Crum of this city, a companion, dragged him ashore after jumping from a boat.

The two young men and a third named O'Brien, who lives in Haverhill, Mass., went out rowing. They went across the pond and visited friends at one of the cottages on the east side.

About noon they started to row across the lake again. While Crum was at the oars Lange tumbled accidentally out of the boat. He cannot swim. Crum dived for him.

O'Brien held out an oar and tried to pull both of them in, but after a hard struggle the rescuer gave up the oar and swam ashore with the boy.

The Money Market

NEW YORK, July 1.—Prime mercantile paper 4 1/2% per cent; sterling exchange weaker at 45 1/2@45 1/4 for sixty day bills, and at 45 1/2% for demand. Commercial bills 43 1/4@43 1/2. Government bonds steady. Railroad bonds firmer.

STOCK MARKET

WAS IRREGULAR AT THE CLOSING HOUR TODAY

Not a Sufficient Demand to Hold the Prices—A Decline Carried Quotations Downward

NEW YORK, July 1.—The opening stock market showed the regular tendency from the extreme depression of yesterday carried over from the late dealings of the day before. General Electric opened at a rebound of 1 3/4; Northern Pacific and Chicago Great Western 1 1/2; Canadian Pacific 1 1/4; Union Pacific, Atchafalpa, Great Northern pld., Reading, Rio Grande, Anaconda and American Car & pulp, and others a substantial fraction.

Stocks which were bought yesterday were sold on the opening advance, causing reactions of a point or more in some of the active stocks and driving a number of issues below yesterday's closing. The copper stocks made the initial display of weakness and were followed in turn by the steel and the Western railroad group. When prices had receded to about where they left off yesterday support began to show and there was some recovery. Dealings were in fair volume and there was an absence of yesterday's exciting features. Baltimore & Ohio, Amalgamated Copper, the American Smelting and Central Leather sold 1/2 below just night and Rock Island 1 1/2. The market showed considerable hesitation at 11 o'clock.

The slow hardening movement carried prices upward, but the advance halted short of the opening high level. The market failed to invite new selling and the market stopped off again.

The more cheerful sentiment was reflected in an active and rising market. Advances of between 1 and 2 points were registered in a score or more stocks, including many of the market leaders.

The market closed irregular. There was not sufficient demand to hold prices and a decline carried quotations downward without much resistance. There was a rebound in the last few minutes, Missouri Pacific rising 3/4.

ST. JOHN'S HOSPITAL

St. John's hospital wishes to announce to the physicians of Lowell and vicinity that an ample supply of antitoxin serum and antiscalding powder is available at the hospital.

Accidents occurring on the 4th of July and after may be referred to the hospital for this form of treatment, or physicians may procure the serum or powder at this institution.

SAGAMORE BEACH CONFERENCE

SAGAMORE BEACH, July 1.—The necessity of the establishing of social justice and the realization of brotherhood in America were some of the questions considered in the platform of the Sagamore Beach Sociological conference, which was held here today. The platform says in part:

"We recognize a growing unrest among the American people and a widespread dissatisfaction with the present conditions, indicating a quickening of conscience.

"It therefore seems to us imperative that all who are desirous of the coming of God's kingdom on earth, the establishment of social justice and the realization of brotherhood should consider such questions as: The fair distribution of the products of labor; the reduction of the hours of labor; the establishment of minimum wage boards; the hygienic conditions of living; the abolition of exploitation of child labor; the problem of unemployment; workmen's compensation for injury to life, health and industry; public ownership of public utilities; compulsory insurance against illness, unemployment, old age and death; marriage and divorce laws; special attention to the education of immigrants; the abolition of privilege and monopoly; income and inheritance taxes; the abolition of taxation of monopoly in land; promotion of all forms of association for mutual help, and social betterment; the bringing together through common interests of the people of different races and religions; the perfecting of our democracy through (a) direct legislation and the referendum and recall; (b) the maintenance of free press, speech and assembly; (c) the conservation of natural and social resources; (d) the enfranchisement of women; and the organization for peace and justice between nations.

TO CLOSE BANK

RICHMOND, Me., July 1.—The stockholders of the Richmond National bank at a special meeting today voted to instruct the directors to close up the affairs of the bank by going into voluntary liquidation on Aug. 1. The bank is one of the oldest in the state, having been organized about 50 years ago and has a capital of $50,000 and a surplus and undivided profits amounting to about $22,000. The loans are small.

MAY AVERT STRIKE

PITTSBURGH, July 1.—The possibility of a coal strike in the Pittsburgh district may be averted if a meeting of the executive board of the district officials of mine workers' organization late today to ratify an agreement between the sub-committees of the operators and miners will be carried out.

WOMAN ARRESTED

It is Alleged That She Attempted Suicide

Mary Plumley, it is said, attempted to end her life about seven o'clock this morning, when she tried to throw herself in the water of the Pawtucket canal in the vicinity of the guard locks of the Locks & Canals corporation in Broadway.

People in the vicinity of the place saw the woman walk into what is known as Thompson's field. There she started to disrobe herself and was about to make the plunge into the water when one of the employees of the Wilson Coal Co., which is located on the opposite side of the street, rushed over and grabbed her.

Word was sent to the police station and the patrol wagon was sent to the scene and she was locked up.

The woman had been following the Barnum & Bailey circus and appeared in police court on June 11, the day after the circus was here. At that time she was arrested for drunkenness and put on a pitiful plea for clemency and was given three days to leave the city. Instead of leaving Lowell, however, she went to reside in Tyler street, and it is said that she has been doing work about the city since that time.

When brought into court this morning she presented a very weak appearance, and while other cases were being disposed of she fainted away and had to be carried out of the court room.

The only complaint charged against her was that of drunkenness, and she entered a plea of not guilty. She said that she was sick, but not drunk, but her condition was such that the court decided that a rest would do her good and she was sentenced to three months in jail.

her. The fact that he was unsteady in his aim is the only thing that saved the girl's life. Later when Patrolman Napoleon Provancher went to arrest him he assaulted the officer and the latter is now nursing severe bruises about the face and lower limbs.

Slain, it is said, has been on a protracted spree and arrived at his home early this morning. He was going about the house like a maniac and his wife and daughters tried to quiet him, but without avail. He was raising such a rumpus that the people in the neighborhood were disturbed in their sleep and later were alarmed to hear the reports of shots from a revolver.

For no apparent reason he seemed to want to revenge himself upon his 14-year old daughter, Ellen F. Slain, when she tried to quiet him he pulled out a 32-calibre revolver and fired two shots at her. The shots imbedded themselves in the wall and immediately afterward the wife and children got out of the sight.

Thinking that he might quiet down, neither Mrs. Slain nor the children left the house, but about 2:45 o'clock Slain went on the rampage again and threatened to shoot every occupant of the house. Mrs. Slain then left the house and went in search of a police officer.

When she reached Pawtucket square she met Patrolman Napoleon Provancher, who was on his way home after doing his work on the early night shift. She told him her story and he immediately went to the nearest patrol box and telephoned the police station. He was advised not to enter the house alone, and to wait until the wagon was sent up. The patrol arrived on the scene about ten minutes later with Sergeant Groux and Wagon Officer Holland.

When the officers reached the house there was a commotion going on. Slain was shouting and trying to break up the furniture. Patrolman Provancher went around to the door in the rear of the house and after gaining an entrance came across Slain.

Slain, upon seeing the officer, who at that time was in citizen's clothes, made a jump for him and struck him over the nose, on the head and about the body. The two then clutched and went down to the floor and during the scuffle the infuriated man sunk his teeth into Patrolman Provancher's thigh.

Slain, however, was subdued, placed in the patrol wagon and taken to the police station.

Slain when arraigned in court this morning gave every appearance of having been on a long debauch. He was trembling, his voice was coarse and his speech indistinct.

He was charged with drunkenness, assault and battery on a police officer and assault with a pistol. He entered pleas of not guilty to each complaint and asked for a continuance, claiming that he would not be ready for trial until he secured the services of a lawyer.

While he wanted the case continued till tomorrow, the court decided to put the matter over until next Tuesday, holding him under $900 bonds for his appearance.

BOGUS CHECKS

MAY BE ATTEMPTED TO BE PASSED IN THIS CITY

Business people and citizens in general are warned to be on the lookout for bogus checks which may be attempted to be passed in this city. A number of checks were recently stolen from the Osborn Mfg. Co. in New Durham, N. H., and the man who stole them has worked several of them.

The following letter received at the local police station is self-explanatory:

Bogus checks are being circulated in New Hampshire, purporting to be drawn on the Rochester Loan & Banking company, and signed by the Osborn Mfg. Co., E. E. Rice, resident manager, countersigned by B. E. Gleason. Checks are for small amounts, less than $15. The checks are printed on the end, pay roll check, not over $15. Some of the checks are numbered, and some are not numbered. All checks that are not numbered are bogus. The following numbers which are printed in red ink on each check, are bogus, No. 10,001 to 10,100 inclusive No. 12,006 to 12,100 inclusive. The checks are made payable to Edward Blake, Edward Blair, Edward Parker and probably other names.

The checks that are numbered as above were stolen from the office of the Osborn Mfg. Co., New Durham, N. H. Checks that are not numbered were evidently printed by the perpetrator.

He generally operates through merchants by purchasing some small article. Represented as 22 or 25 years old, smooth face, 5 ft., 6 to 8 inches tall, weight 150 pounds. Was in Haverhill two or three days ago. Travels from place to place. Good plan to notify your merchants and banks as a protection.

HAVERHILL VOTERS

Want to Abolish the School Board of That City

HAVERHILL, July 1.—By operating the initiative clause of the new city charter, 25 p. c. of the voters of the city may have placed upon the ballot at the next city election the question of whether or not the municipal council shall petition the legislature for the abolition of the school board. This fact came to light yesterday when a half dozen or more petitions were put in circulation. The plan, briefly outlined, is that there shall be an educational department within the municipal council and the superintendent of schools shall have full power, with a tenure of office of four years. The plan is to wipe out the present school board of four members, the mayor being a member ex-officio, and in its stead have the municipal council act as a supervisor over the superintendent of schools. In order to divorce politics from the affairs of the educational system it is proposed the superintendent shall be elected for a term of four years, but his salary shall be established every year.

The municipal council, according to the provisions of the petition, would direct the expenditures of all large sums of money and there would be an auditor in charge of the department. Attack on Present Board. The petition is an attack on the present school board and the manner it has done business. It charges that recent failures of the school committee have tended to unnerve the corps of 200 instructors in the public schools, and that "politics plays an important part in the guiding of the educational system of Haverhill." Continuing, the petition says, the undersigned see no reason to believe that these conditions will be changed, at least with the present personnel of the committee.

Also the petitioners say that "we regret to perceive that Haverhill, instead of taking a step forward in the educational world, is really going backward." Those behind the movement say that an effort will be made to get at least 25 per cent. of the voters to sign the documents in order that it shall be the duty of the council to put the question on the city ballot.

If 10 per cent. of the total number of voters sign the petition, the matter will have to be settled at the polls, according to the provisions of section 42 of chapter 574, acts of 1906, although if 25 per cent. is secured the municipal council would have to call a special election if it were demanded. The feeling among the agitators is, however, that the city election would be ample time to press the matter, as by postponing until then the expense of a special election will be saved.

The legal procedure necessary, in order to put the petition in effect, would be for it to be favorably acted upon by a majority of the voters at the next city election; the municipal council then would have to pass the ordinance unchanged and at the opening of the 1911 session of the state legislature a bill covering the points at issue would be offered. Those behind the movement say they have no doubt but what if the people accept the terms of the petition that the legislature will ratify their action.

The petition is an aftermath of the recent troubles that certain sections of the city and certain individuals have had with the committee, and in view of the notoriety that has been given the recent meetings of the board, because of the sensational features that developed, those behind the movement say that they have no doubt the petition will meet the hearty and instant approval of the voters, as, in their mind, some change is demanded. As far as is known, this case is the first one in New England where there has been an attempt made to abolish the school board, and for that reason many people await with interest what the legislature will do. Public opinion seems to be about evenly divided, although everyone admits the petition comes like a thunder-burst from a clear sky. They say they see many advantages in the plan as outlined, and although they do not want to go on record now as favoring it, they have made it known that they do favor certain provisions and the general idea.

FIRED AT WIFE

Pet Dog Saved Woman's Life. BOSTON, July 1.—How a pet dog saved the life of his mistress at the expense of his own was told today in the municipal court where Andrew Ella was charged with attempting to kill his wife. Following a dispute last night, Ella is alleged to have drawn a revolver and fired at his wife. The bullet killed a little fox terrier she held in her arms. As it fell to the floor dead Mrs. Ella fainted. Neighbors caused the arrest of Ella. When Mrs. Ella revived she declared her husband had been acting queerly for several days.

Friends estimate that he retires with from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000.

FORT ACCEPTS POSITION. CHICAGO, July 1.—Gerritt Fort has accepted the position of passenger traffic manager of the Union Pacific Railroad Co., with headquarters in Omaha. For more than a year he has been general passenger agent for the New York Central railroad with headquarters in New York. He will succeed E. J. Lomax, who has resigned as general passenger agent of the Union Pacific, to become passenger traffic manager of the Western Pacific. The position of passenger traffic manager is a new one for the Union Pacific.

ECZEMA—A GERM DISEASE—CAN NOW BE CURED. The medical profession is all agreed that ECZEMA is a germ disease, but the thing that has baffled them is to find some remedy that will get to the germs and destroy them. Zemo, the clean, external treatment has solved this difficulty by drawing the germs to the surface of the skin and destroying the germ life that causes the diseases. The whole method of treatment and cure by ZEMO is explained in an interesting book on the subject issued by the makers of ZEMO. It tells how to cure yourself at home of Eczema, Blackheads, Pimples, Dandruff, and all diseases of the skin and scalp. Call at A. W. Dows & Co.'s drug store for Booklet and learn more about this clean, simple remedy that is now recognized the standard treatment for all diseases of the skin and scalp.

MAN ARRESTED

Is Charged With Attempt to Kill. BOSTON, July 1.—"Baby," a pet fox terrier, was shot and killed by a bullet, probably saving the life of her mistress, Mrs. Julia Ella, who was carrying the animal in the tenement block at 15 Auburn court, shortly before 6 o'clock last night. Immediately following the shooting Andrew Ella was arrested by officers of station 3, charged with assault with a loaded revolver with intent to kill his wife.

The arrested man is 28 years old, and according to the police has been acting strangely during the past week. When questioned about the case last night he refused to talk, though he did not appear to fully realize the seriousness of the charge against him. Mrs. Ella is also 28 years old, and has lived with her husband in the Auburn court house for about a year. "Baby," the dog, was the pet of the Ella family, and last night Mrs. Ella was caressing the animal while she carried it about the kitchen. Her husband became incensed at something that was said and, drawing a revolver, fired one shot. A cording to the police the shot was aimed at his wife, but it struck the dog, which was lying in her arms. Mrs. Ella screamed and fainted, dropping to the floor, while the dog fell at her side, dead. Neighbors were attracted by the shot and notified Lieut. O'Tourke, who was in charge at the Joy street station, a short distance away. Sergt. Brooks and Patrolman Foley ran to the house, where they found the woman lying on the floor and the dog by her side. At first it was thought that the woman had been shot, but after a few minutes she revived and told her story of the shooting. Ella was then taken to the station, while neighbors cared for the woman. The dog was also taken in charge by the police. The animal, it was found, had been shot through the heart, receiving the bullet which would probably have killed Mrs. Ella.

CITY HALL NEWS

Matter of the Convenience Station. The special committee on convenience station will meet at the city hall at 8 o'clock tonight. Where to locate the station is the question, and the committee will ask the assistance of the board of health in the matter. Councilman Chapman, chairman of the committee, had a conference with Engineer Mills of the Locks & Canals company relative to a location. It had been suggested that the station might be located over the canal in the rear of the Howe building, but Mr. Mills said that owing to the work that is going on in the canal the station could not be allowed there. The question of location will be threshed out by the committee tonight.

Mayor Meehan has signed the joint order for the closing of the offices at city hall on Saturday afternoons during the months of July and August. The mayor has also signed the joint order appropriating $2500 for a new gate at the Edison cemetery and for the purchase of 1720 feet of land at the corner of Gorham and Carlisle streets. A number of joint resolutions for street improvements have been signed by the mayor. The monthly salary draft for June amounted to $10,239.03.

TWO ALARMS

LOCAL FIREMEN WERE KEPT ON THE MOVE. An alarm from box 126 shortly after 11 o'clock this morning summoned a portion of the fire department to a slight blaze in a house in Merrimack street opposite Race street. Some person carelessly threw a lighted match into a wood box and in a few moments the contents were ablaze. A stream from the extinguisher quenched the fire. At 6:45 o'clock this morning a portion of the department was called to a fire in the building at the corner of Middle and Elliot Sts., belonging to John J. Donnelly. The fire was caused by a defective chimney, but before the firemen arrived a bureau and the interior of the room was badly damaged.

CANALS SHOULD BE WELL FENCED IN

Some time ago we intimated the need of better protection along some of the canals. It seems that these swift flowing water-ways are not sufficiently guarded at all points and that as a result there are drownings and accidents that might be avoided. Wherever the fencing of the canals is deficient, the Locks and Canals company can be forced to make the enclosure complete as a protection for children and others.

ABOUT SCHOOL LUNCHEES

There is very keen competition in some places for the privilege of providing school lunches. Where the privilege is not let to some particular party a lot of itinerant vendors are usually given free access to school yards with candy and confectionery that might be guaranteed to produce dyspepsia. This is wrong. The pupils cannot very well be prevented from buying where they please, but they should be cautioned against purchasing from peddlers of cheap candy and ice cream, and urged to patronize only reputable stores.

ROOSEVELT'S SUPPORT FOR LODGE

It is evident that the Roosevelts will go any length for Senator Lodge. Even "Niek" Longworth has been drafted to speak for the senator. Col. Roosevelt has visited the senator at his home and later on will come out with all the emphasis at his command in support of the senator's candidacy for re-election. That will show the Rooseveltian devotion to boss rule; for, with the exception of Speaker Cannon, Senator Aldrich and Congressman Dinkell of Pennsylvania, there is no more uncompromising supporter of the republican machine than Senator Lodge. His defense of the tariff, his efforts to show that neither tariff nor trusts are responsible for the high cost of living are proof of this. His mission is to keep the republican party in power no matter how disastrous that may prove to the country.

NO WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC

The report of the special grand jury of which John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was chairman, goes to show that the white slave traffic does not exist in New York as had been represented. The investigation was very full and complete and while it disclosed the existence of vice and even dens of disrepute, yet the result is not worse, nor quite as bad as might be found in most large cities. It is gratifying to find that the allegations of certain alarmists are not sustained in this respect. The grand jury kept up its investigation until it probed the worst dives in New York, but even then there was nothing to prove that dens of infamy were being maintained under the protection of Tammany Hall, or that white women were bought and sold as slaves to pursue a life of shame for the financial benefit of their masters. Occasional cases do not prove a systematic business nor do they justify the charge that the White Slave traffic is rampant.

THE REMEDY IS EASY

If the tariff were removed from cattle there would be enough cattle come here from Argentina to bring down the price of meat. Either that or an export duty on American cattle is the only remedy. Why do the American people submit to the imposition, knowing that the American beef trust ships cattle on the hoof to England and sells the beef there 25 per cent, cheaper than in this country.

The republican party stands by the trust against any reduction in the tariff. That is why we should have a change in the administration.

Owing to the constitution we cannot have a change for two years more; but if the republicans be elected to power again there is no telling what the great trusts may decide to do. The people are goaded to the breaking point by class privilege and extortion authorized, approved and legalized by the republican party. The people have the power in their own hands, and if they do not use it when the time comes, they will have to themselves to blame. It is now eighteen years since the people dared to vote against the republican party.

THE ROOSEVELT-HUGHES EPISODE

Col. Roosevelt before landing on American soil sent a message to the American public asserting that he would have nothing to say of American politics until a couple of months after his return. He is now home a little over a week and he has already come out flatly in favor of the reform policies advocated by Governor Hughes in New York state. He has made an appeal, he says, as strongly as he could to the officials of New York to uphold the policies of Governor Hughes.

We had our misgivings as to Roosevelt's ability to remain silent so long on political matters and this interference in behalf of Governor Hughes has proved the accuracy of our judgment.

The action of the New York legislature in doing the very thing Col. Roosevelt appealed to them not to do, indicates that the Roosevelt dictatorship will not be accepted. Col. Roosevelt is no longer in office and it is not to be expected that men duly elected will sink their own judgment and allow themselves to be used as mere puppets by a man who has already assumed the role of political dictator and who apparently thinks he is the only man in the country who knows just what should be done. The rebuke administered by the New York legislature is a proper answer to his interference in a political controversy that is best understood by the men on the ground.

It is expected in some quarters that Governor Hughes will reconvene the legislature in order to have the action on the primary election bill reversed, but we do not believe he will dare to. The result might be even a more severe repudiation of the Roosevelt mandate.

SEEN AND HEARD

THE SONG OF THE SOUTHWESTER

(Harry Newbolt.)

The sun was lost in a leaden sky
And the stars lay under our lee;
When a great Sou'wester hurricane high
Came rolling up the sea.
He played with the fleet as a boy with boats.
Till but for the Downs we ran,
And he laughed with the roar of a thousand thunderbolts.
At the militant ways of man.

Oh, I am the enemy most of might,
To you who are at ease in your sleep;
Gunner and gunner may all be right,
Flare a-flying and armor tight.
But I am the fellow you're first to fight.
The giant that swings the seas!

A dozen maddles were down below
Chasing the X they love;
While the table curtseyed long and slow.
And the lamps were giddy above.
The lesson was all of a ship and a
shot.
And some of it may have been true,
But the word they heard and never forgot.

Was the word of the wind that blew—
Oh, I am the enemy most of might,
etc.

The middy with luck is a captain soon;
With luck he may hear one day
His own big guns a-humming the tune,
"Twas in the old days, friends or foes,
But wherever he goes, friends or
foes,
And whatever may there befall,
He'll hear the sea knows,
Forever crying them all—
Oh, I am the enemy most of might,
etc.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Dr. Francis Newton Thorpe has accepted a call to the chair of constitutional history at the Western University of Pennsylvania, at Pittsburgh, to take effect upon his return from a year's trip to Germany, on which he will leave soon with his family. He is a former member of the faculty of the University of Pennsylvania.

Mme. Cecil Sorel, the actress who is described as the best dressed woman in Paris—she holds that $20,000 a year is the lowest sum on which a woman can clothe herself without a loss of self-respect—has adopted a new hobby. At her flat in the Avenue des Champs Elysees she keeps two lion cubs and from contemplation of her green-eyed pets she has evolved a scheme of philosophy which is somewhat tinged with misanthropy.

Queen Marguerite of Italy once arrived in a town where great preparations had been made to do her honor. The mayor was on hand to escort her to the room where luncheon was served, but the queen declined to eat anything, saying that all she needed was a glass of water and an sandwich. At the end of this frugal repast she was about to take her handkerchief from her pocket to wipe her lips, when the mayor, misinterpreting her action, bowed respectfully and said: "Your majesty need not trouble yourself. I can assure you the lunch is all paid for."

Robert Herrick, who is quoted as saying that he feels "there is, philosophically speaking, no such thing as true realism in art," thus described the influences with which he came in contact, until he reached the age of twenty-six, at Harvard University:

There I acquired my first ideals of literature. Plautus and Demosthenes were in the air and when I first began to write I was dominated by the French ideal of art, reinforced possibly by certain Gallic traits in my own temperament and an uncommon thing in the New England stock. Gradually, during the last ten years, as I have written my novels, I have come to repudiate quite fully those French ideals, at least so far as the novel form is concerned. The restricted scope of the Madame Bovary type of story is not at all characteristic of our race, and I now regard the French influence upon American novelists as largely of a second hand—as distinctly deplorable.

Miss Ethel Vipon has the distinction of being what is declared to be the first woman reader to be employed in a cigar factory in Chicago. Following the custom in the cigar shops in Cuba and in many other parts of the world, M. Newman, proprietor of a cigar making company, has employed Miss Vipon to read to the men in working hours from the newspapers, popular works of fiction and standard books of different kinds. According to the proprietor, the men like the plan and are able to make more cigars than before the custom was established. Miss Vipon arrives in the morning as early as do the men. When the latter start their work she takes her seat at a table and begins her reading. "Often," the story is the account of a baseball game. Then follows the news of the day and action of a magazine article.

"I like the work," said Miss Vipon, whose weekly income from her reading consists of $40.00 from the firm and 25 cents from each worker, though it sometimes affects my throat. On the whole, however, it is pleasing."

Mrs. Florence Morse Kingsley lives and works for the greater part of the year in a big, old-fashioned house on Staten Island. In a way the house is a historical landmark; it has certainly stood on its present site since the early part of the last century and witnessed the growth of most of the towns and suburbs which make up picturesque Richmond Borough. When the Kingsleys bought it some fifteen years ago it was known as "the old Jewett mansion." A previous tenant had been no other than the redoubtable William Cady, better known as "Buffalo Bill." One may find bits of description of the old house in many of Mrs. Kingsley's stories, all of which, except "Titus," were written under its roof.

Great Britain has three newspapers and two magazines devoted to the interest of woman's suffrage. Holland, Denmark, Norway, Germany, Austria, Russia, Finland, Iceland, France, Switzerland, Bulgaria, Hungary and Poland have one paper each, while Belgium and Turkey have each one woman's magazine which advocates giving women the ballot.

Announcement is made by George W. Cable, the author, of Northampton, of the engagement of his daughter, Miss Lucy Leffingwell Cable and Henry Wolf Bilde of Philadelphia. Mr. Bilde is the son of Dr. Philip M. Bilde, dean and professor of Latin in Pennsylvania college at Gettysburg. The wedding will take place in the early autumn. Mr. Cable and his daughter recently were visitors at Rocky Neck, East Gloucester.

The anti-suffragists of Illinois have issued a pamphlet in which they say that the men of the country are at last wakening up to the dangers of woman's suffrage. Heretofore, they say, men have taken the position that it was a question women should decide for themselves. Now, realizing the dangers, they have come out strongly against giving women the ballot. In proof of this statement they point to recent utterances of Senator Elihu Root, Nicholas Murray Butler and the Rev. Lyman Abbott. They also say that a protest is being circulated in Massachusetts which has already been signed by 150 influential men.

Mrs. B. R. Buffum of Roswell, N. M., is said to be the only woman in this country who holds a commission as deputy game warden. She was at one time a teacher in Nebraska and when her health failed she moved to New Mexico with the intention of starting a chicken ranch. Soon after her arrival she made her first complaint of the ruthless killing of birds out of season. When the game warden came to investigate she filed another and kept on until she was finally appointed a deputy game warden. Soon after receiving her appointment she arrested two men for shooting quail out of season, and from then on the game laws have been strictly observed in her neighborhood.

The trustees of the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute at Alabama at a meeting in the rooms of the general education board, New York, asked the board Theodore Roosevelt, Frank Trumbull, chairman of the board of directors of Chesapeake & Ohio railway, and Charles E. Mason, of the firm of S. D. Warren & Co., Boston. The motion to elect Col. Roosevelt as a trustee was made by W. W. Campbell, an Alabama banker and vice president of the board. Col. Roosevelt had already signified his willingness to accept membership.

The death of H. H. Harriman has not halted in the least the elaborate plans which he made for the extension and beautifying of his vast estate in Orange county. While Mrs. Harriman has placed in the hands of her daughter, now Mrs. Charles Cary Rumsey, the management of the estate, she, of course, still retains the final say concerning the expenditure of money or the purchase of property. Mrs. Harriman has many agents working through Orange county buying up one farm after another, and since the death of her husband she has added thousands of acres to the estate. The entire property owned by the Harrimans now is estimated at 35,000 acres, 10,000 acres having been given to the state. Mrs. Harriman is expending almost $500,000 a year on the estate at present, and not counting the cost of land, it is estimated that at least $2,000,000 has been spent there. More than 600 men are kept busy building roads through the property.

Herbert C. Collar, principal of the Charlton high school, was elected principal of Holden high school at a special meeting of the school committee. Thirty candidates had applied for the position, but the committee unanimously elected Mr. Collar to fill the position made vacant by the resignation of A. K. Laurel. Mr. Collar's home is in Dorchester. He was graduated from Dartmouth college in the class of '90. He has passed a year in study abroad. He is 34 years of age and had eight years' experience as a teacher. After he was graduated from Dartmouth, he was in business with the American Book Co. He was then engaged as a teacher of modern languages in the Stone school in Boston. He then came to the Charlton school to a public school life he was engaged as principal of the Charlton high school.

DEATH SENTENCE

MAN LAUGHED WHEN HE HEARD IT PRONOUNCED

NEW YORK, July 1.—Upon hearing his sentence to die in the electric chair pronounced yesterday by Judge Foster, Morris M. Lustig, the private detective who was convicted of murdering his wife, smiled and then laughed. The court set the week of Aug. 8 for Lustig's death. As the proceedings were about ended Lustig turned to his counsel and remarked, "That's easy." An appeal is to be made by his lawyers.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. James A. Peck of North Chelmsford and Miss Clara Baird of West Chelmsford were united in marriage Wednesday at the residence of the Rev. Sheldon W. Cummings, pastor of the First Baptist church. The bride was Mrs. A. Franklin Edwards, and the best man was Mr. A. Franklin Edwards. The bride was attired in royal blue messaline and wore a picture hat. The bridesmaid wore a satin foulard. Mr. and Mrs. Peck left by automobile, and will visit Cohasset and Bay-

LESTER CUSHMAN

PLACED ON TRIAL ON CHARGE OF MANSLAUGHTER

BOSTON, July 1.—The trial of Lester D. Cushman on a charge of manslaughter was commenced at the East Cambridge court house at 3.30 p. m. yesterday. The charge grew out of the death of Miss Myra L. Swift of Medford, a Wellesley College student, who was killed on the night of the Harvard-Dartmouth football game last fall, as the result of injuries received in collision between Cushman's automobile and a coal team on Mystic avenue, Somerville.

Six witnesses were heard during the afternoon session, which continued until nearly 5 o'clock, when Judge Stevens adjourned court to 9.30 a. m. today. The testimony introduced yesterday was chiefly concerning the speed at which the car was being driven when the accident occurred.

COBURN MISSION SOCIABLE

A very pleasant social was held Wednesday night at the Coburn mission in Varnum avenue under the auspices of the Varnum Avenue Improvement association. There was a large attendance, the structure being inadequate to hold all those who desired to attend.

The program carried out was a pleasing one and consisted of piano selections, Miss Carrie Emery; recitation, Master Ormond Marshall; remarks, E. S. Howe; vocal and instrumental music, Mrs. Muldoon; remarks by Mr. Cummings and Mr. Roberts; Peter Clune sang and also gave a couple of recitations; piano selections, Mrs. William Barker, Misses Eva Roberts, Pauline Cummings. Then came an auction sale of food, Gen. W. Cummings acting in capacity of auctioneer. The support committee was George Emery, chairman, John H. Roberts, Fred Marshall, Mr. Hill and Frank Williams. Mr. Hill had charge of selling the tables, which was very ably conducted. The officers of the association are J. L. Williams, president; Wm. Barker, vice president; John H. Roberts, treasurer; Edward Roberts, secretary.

IS AT TOWN FARM

Man Once Had a Great Estate

ATTLEBORO, July 1.—A town meeting has been called for next Thursday evening to consider the case of Christian G. Uhlig, once a prosperous land owner in the south part of the town and now an inmate of the local town farm.

Years ago Uhlig owned "what was known as one of the finest farms in this section, but, declining years made it necessary for him to turn the property over to other hands. He is said to have deeded it to a relative, with the understanding that he should be supported and should live on the farm for the rest of his days.

He alleges that soon after the deed was executed he found himself an unwelcome guest at his former home, and was obliged to seek assistance of the town. He entered the town farm, and for a time received paid his board at the institution. Later, it is said, they have refused to do that, and the expense has grown so big that the town determined to take legal action.

FLYING MACHINES

Interesting Lecture at Calvary Baptist Church

H. Angus Connors of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, gave a lecture on aeronautics at the Calvary Baptist church last night. His subject was "New Developments in Aerial Navigation." His lecture was illustrated with many pictures and by several models of aeroplanes, of various types.

Mr. Connors proved himself very familiar with his subject and was willing to admit that he is deeply engrossed with it. Many of the machines of home manufacture he has witnessed in flights, especially those of the Wrights, Curtiss and Hamilton. The work of constructing them, he said, was being perfected all of the time and there is ample room for improvement. He said that the element of danger had not been altogether reduced, but it had been greatly minimized, largely through the skillful use of the planes.

Airsip models were presented to the boys present by Mr. Connors. During the evening a miscellaneous musical program was given by several of the young people of the church as follows: Emile A. Hartford, soprano soloist; William Car, whistling soloist; Chester J. Codding, violinist, and the accompanists were Marjorie G. Wrigley, Edward Judson Dills and Ethel M. Codding.

After the lecture, several of the boys of the church, who have been much interested in aeronautics, met Mr. Connors and gleaned ideas relative to the building of the planes. As a result, they will exercise their ingenuity for the next few days, and at the lawn fête of the church, to be given on the grounds of the George house, Judge will demonstrate their ideas in the construction of flying machines.

TEXTILE LEADERS

Have Formed Permanent Association

The Lowell Textile association met last night in the rooms formerly occupied by "The Club" in Pollard's block, Palmer street, and formed a permanent organization. The following were elected directors for the first year:

E. D. Robinson of the Shaw Stocking company, W. M. Sherrill of the Appleton company; C. H. Howard of the Hamilton Mfg. Co., E. L. Kirby of the Doott mills, A. M. Chadwick of the Tremont & Suffolk mills, A. E. Gregory of the Massachusetts cotton mills, J. D. Rule of the Lawrence Mfg. Co., Henry Wisbey of the Merimack Mfg. Co., Jesse Whitworth of the Lowell Bleachery.

By-laws were adopted and the board of directors was authorized to secure permanent quarters. The club membership is limited to 200 members and 125 members have already been enrolled.

The directors will meet in a few days to choose officers of the association, appoint committees and lay out the campaign for fall and winter.

EIGHT MARRIAGES

BANGOR, ME., PASTORS WERE KEPT BUSY

BANGOR, Me., July 1.—Eight weddings yesterday in Bangor created a shortage in the back and automobile supply, and a tremendous rush at the caterers and florists. Harold Francis Ingraham of Boston and Miss Jessie Bradford Hammond were married in the morning at the bride's home by Rev. E. F. Fember.

Dr. Harold E. Monaghan and Miss Josephine Terese Mullen were married in St. Mary's rectory by Rev. Thomas J. O'Dowd at 1.30 p. m. At 3.30, Fr. O'Dowd married Josiah Hinds and Miss Annie Driscoll, both of Bangor, and soon after John Obeys and Miss Mary Call were made one by Fr. O'Dowd.

At the same time wedding parties were besieging St. John's church. At 3 o'clock George J. Swain and Miss Margaret Proctor, both of Bangor, were married by Rev. John J. Sullivan. At 4 o'clock Rev. P. J. Garrity married, in the rectory, John A. Turner and Miss Caroline.

At 5 o'clock, Rev. George A. Martin of Grace church married Earl H. Church and Miss Marjorie Porter at the home of the bride's parents. At the same hour, Charles Tash and Miss Geneva Emerson, both of Bangor, were married in the Essex Street Free Baptist parsonage by Rev. G. D. Lathrop.

"EDUCATIONAL SUNDAY"
BOSTON, July 1.—Information received at the headquarters of the National Education association indicate that the project making next Sunday an "educational Sunday" has been widely accepted, and that the day will be generally observed in the churches of Greater Boston and at other points in the state. In conformity with the plan, clergymen will deliver sermons on some educational topic to be selected by themselves.

A reception to men visitors will be held on Sunday, July 3, at the Boston City club from 4 to 6 o'clock. State and city officials, officers of the National Education association and other prominent educators will receive.

EXPORT FIGURES

SHOW LOWER PRICES IN ALL THE IMPORTANT ARTICLES

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The recent fall in prices in the United States is sharply illustrated by the bureau of statistics figures covering domestic and foreign trade for the month of May, 1910, in comparison with earlier months of the current fiscal year. The bureau publishes each month a statement of the export prices of about 50 principal articles of the export trade, also the wholesale prices of certain important articles in the domestic trade. The export prices are those prevailing in the wholesale markets at the ports of exportation, since the customs regulations state that "all articles exported shall be valued at their actual cost, or the value which they may truly bear at the time of exportation in the ports of the United States from which they are exported." The domestic prices quoted by the bureau are the wholesale prices of the articles named at certain great centers, chiefly New York, as supplied to the bureau from recognized and reliable authorities.

The May export figures show materially lower prices in practically all the important articles forming the export trade, with the exception of meats which, on the other hand, show higher prices in May than in earlier months of the year. The export prices of corn, for example, is stated in the tables which will shortly appear in the forthcoming issue of the Monthly Summary of Commerce and Finance, as averaging 67.6 cents per bushel in May, against 70.1 cents in February, and 75.6 cents in August of last year.

Wheat shows an average export price in May, 1910, of 96.6 cents per bushel in May, against 70.1 cents in February, and 75.6 cents in August of last year. Wheat shows an average export price in May, 1910, of 96.6 cents per bushel, against $1.00 in January and $1.21 in July of last year. And, while coal shows an average export value per ton in May, 1910, of $4.73, against $5.05 in January and $5.11 in September of last year. Copper pigs exported in May were valued at 13c. per lb., against 13.4c. in March, 1910. Raw cotton shows an average export value in May of 14.5 cents per pound, against 14.9 cents in the first month of the present year. Unbleached cotton cloth shows for May an average export price of 6.5 cents per yard, against 8.1 cents in March, and 8.5 cents in December of last year. Pig iron shows an average value in exports of May of $17.65 per ton, against $19.04 per ton in December of last year; steel billets, $25.55 per ton in May, against $26.94 in April; structural iron and steel, $44.72 per ton in May, against $49.19 per ton in March, and $51.64 in October of last year. Sole leather shows an average export price in May of the current year is stated at 3 cents per gallon, against 3.4 cents in April, and 3.8 cents in August of last year. Illuminating oil is given at 5.1 cents per gallon in May, 1910, against 7.1 cents in May, 1909. Paraffin is reported at 3.3 cents per pound in May, 1910, against 4.4 cents in March, 1910, and 4.8 cents in March and April, 1909.

Meats, on the other hand, show higher prices in practically all cases. The average export price of fresh beef in May, 1910, was 10.8 cents per pound, against 10.1 cents in January, 1910, and 10.2 cents in May of last year. Canned beef in May, 1910, averaged 12.1 cents per pound, against 11.1 cents in January, and 10.7 cents in May of last year. Bacon in May of the current year averaged 15.3 cents per pound, against 13 cents in March, 13 cents in February, 11 cents in August, 1909, and 10.8 cents in May of that year, an advance of practically 50 per cent. in the export price during the year. Hams and shoulders exported in May, 1910, averaged 14.8 cents per pound, against 13.2 cents in May, 1909. Lard exported in May, 1910, averaged 12.7 cents per pound, against 11.1 cents in August and 10.4 cents in May of last year.

In the domestic markets nearly all articles show lower prices in May and June 1910 than in the corresponding period of last year. The bureau of statistics figures of domestic prices come down to a later period than those of export prices. Of rice the price in the New York market on June 20th was 4 3-8c. per pound, against 5 3-4c. per pound in the corresponding period of last year; cotton on June 24th in the New Orleans market, 14 7-8c. per pound, against 15 3-4c. per pound in November and December, 1909; unwashed Michigan fine wool, on June 24th was 21c. per pound, against an average of 26c. in August of last year; scouring territorial fine medium wool of "staple" grade on the 10th of last month, 83c. per pound, against 72c. in the second half of last year; Bessemer pig iron on June 25th, was $18.65 per ton, against $19.90 per ton in January; iron bars, $31 per ton on June 25th, against $34 per ton in November and December of last year; steel bars on June 25th, $30 per ton, against $31 in February and March of the current year; Bessemer steel billets in June $26 per ton, against $29.00 per ton in December of last year; crude Pennsylvania oil $1.30 per barrel in June of the current year, against $1.68 per barrel in June of last year; refined oil per gallon in barrels, 7.65c. in June of the current year, against 8.50c. per gallon in June of last year; wheat No. 2 red, in June, 1910, in the New York market, $1.03 per bushel, against $1.33 in January; corn, 67c. per bushel last month, against 85c. per bushel in the same month of last year.

WORLD FAMOUS FLYERS AND THEIR PLANS

By CHARLES N. LURIE.

TO try to tell what the aviators are going to do next is like trying to reach a roof from the moment a cry of "Here he comes!" announces the approach of one of the man birds. By the time you get where there is an unobstructed view the flier is gone. The air records are falling so fast nowadays—much faster and more frequently than the men who make them—that any prediction is open to serious objection that it will be out of date by the time it gets into print.

With these words of explanation, or possibly of apology, let us assert that the great aerial event toward which the persons interested in flying, which means the whole world, are looking is the race between St. Louis and New York over a 1,000 mile course for a prize of $50,000 offered by the New York World and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Of scarcely less interest is the projected Chicago-New York flight of about $60 miles for a $25,000 prize offered by the New York Times and the Chicago Evening Post. In addition to these there are the Washington-New York race, the Detroit-Buffalo flight, the Kansas City-St. Louis contest and many others. The total of the prizes offered by the cities and the newspapers is large enough to bring to America the most famous of the old world's aviators, as well as to engage the attention of our own best men, especially since the vacation of the temporary Wright injunctions left the foreigners free to come.

Among those who are interested in these imagination compelling contests are the aviators who have recently brought the world to a realization of the fact that the flying machine has come to take its place among the world's commonplaces with wireless telegraphy, radium, the X rays, the telephone and other inventions. They are Glenn H. Curtiss, who made the air trip from Albany to New York;

Charles K. Hamilton, whose aerial journey from New York to Philadelphia and back gave assurance that such trips can be made hereafter on schedule time; Charles S. Rolls, the Englishman who flew across the English channel to France, turned in the air and returned without alighting in England; Louis Paulhan, who flew from London to Manchester for a $50,000 prize and who held until recently the world's record for height attained in an aeroplane; Grahame White, the plucky Englishman who tried so hard to win the London-Manchester contest and failed only after he had gone the limit of present endurance in the air; the Wrights, pioneer flyers, who have held steadfastly to their view that flying is with them a business proposition, not a sport, and have heretofore refused to engage in merely spectacular tests, although permitting the entry of their machines under the operation of others. All these and others of national and international fame have expressed their intense interest in the coming contests and have asserted their belief that the prizes offered are well worth consideration.

In addition to these great events on the future programs of the aviators there are numerous smaller affairs to be held in the United States and abroad. No state or county affair is considered up to date now unless it announces as a part of its list of attractions aerial flights by one or more of the world's flyers. Of course the flyers come high—no pun intended—but the fairs must have them or be considered hopelessly behind the times. The old fashioned balloon ascension cannot draw a crowd nowadays, so the fair authorities are falling over one another in their endeavors to get the aviators. The supply of flyers is limited, although it is growing every day, so the men who are able to travel in three dimensions instead of two are taking advantage of their opportunities and demanding stiff prices for their work. Any one who has seen them perform their daring feats in the air will agree that almost any price is too low for the risks they run. The 1910 international aviation meet, which will be the greatest ever held, will take place on Long Island in October. It was brought to this country by Glenn H. Curtiss' victory at Rheims, France, last year.

New Laws Necessary.

With the extension of flying over the world's civilized countries has come the discussion of rules for the government of the flyers when they are in the air. The subject is still in the tentative state, but there has been enough interest manifested in the matter to make it certain that the near future will see the promulgation of a set of rules agreed to by the world's most famous flyers. Speaking on this subject recently, Mr. Frederic R. Coudert, recently returned from a visit to France, said:

"The presence of so many flying machines in France and the complaints of owners of property that aviators are flying over gardens and thus intruding into private domains has caused the calling of a commission of prominent lawyers.

"They have had operators of aeroplanes perform before them, flying both low and high, in order to determine what height is proper. Count Lambert has been one of these demonstrators. Of course there are property owners who assert that their rights extend far up into the sky, but to recognize such rights would mean a stop to all aviation.

"There is not the slightest doubt that a mean height will be determined and that France will be the pioneer country in the framing of laws to apply to tracks in the sky. Property rights will have to be protected. The Frenchman's garden, with its high wall, has been considered safe from prying eyes outside, but now with an aviator swooping near with his machine—well, something must and will be done."

HAMLIN GARLAND, CONSERVATIONIST

WHEN the history of the movement for the conservation of the natural resources of the nation is written high on the roll of honor of the men engaged in the fight on the right side, with those of Roosevelt, Pinchot and others will be that of a teller of tales, Hamlin Garland.

The country contains no more enthusiastic believer in the west, "the new west," and its future than Mr. Garland. His devotion to the cause of intelligent conservation of our mines and forests, our fields and plains, our men and women, requires no explanation. For years in his books and on the lecture platform he has been preaching the gospel of the mission of the west to regenerate, to maintain the nation. In his latest book, "Cavanagh: Forest Ranger," he carries his propaganda a step farther and comes out openly and boldly without reserve in support of the Pinchot forest policy. In the mouth of the hero of the book, Ross Cavanagh, the author puts the words:

"I am glad to be known as a defender of the forest. A tree means much to me. I never mark one for felling without a sense of responsibility for the future."

It is this "sense of responsibility for the future" frankly avowed, together with a most interesting story of life in the new west, that makes up the body of Mr. Garland's latest book. In it he devotes considerable space—not to the detriment of the book as a study, however—to a defense and an exposition of the forest preservation theories of Gifford Pinchot, the recently dismissed chief forester. The latter is depicted as the idol of the body of strong, able, clean living young men whom he trained in the forest service, and his dismissal from the service is described as a severe blow to the personnel of the service. Mr. Pinchot contributes a preface to the book.

For a score of years Mr. Garland has been known to the public through his writing and his lectures, as an ardent believer in America's future. In a book published sixteen years ago he said:

"There is coming in this land the mightiest assertion in art of the rights of man and the glory of the physical universe ever made in the world. It will be done not by one man, but by many men and women. It will be born not of drawing room culture nor of imitation nor of fear of masters, nor will it come from homes of great wealth. It will come from the average American home in the city as well as in the country. It will deal with all kinds and conditions. It will be born of the mingling of men in the vast interior of America, because there the problem of the perpetuity of our democracy, the question of the liberty as well as the nationality of our art, will be fought out."

Some idea of the intense, enthusiastic Americanism of the man may be gained from the excerpt just given. He has lived his life up to the present time in harmony with his beliefs. The half century that has passed since his birth on a farm at West Salem, Wis., has served only to deepen and broaden in him the development of a belief in America, its institutions and its resources, its men and women and its future, and he has expressed his belief well in his writings and lectures. More than twenty books from his pen bear witness to his industry.

Among the best known of the Garland books are "Rose of Dutcher's Coolery," "Hesper," "The Captain of the Gray Horse Troop," "Ulysses Grant" (a biography) and "Prairie Songs" (verse). He was educated in the common schools of Mitchell county, Ia., and was graduated in the literary course of the Cedar Valley seminary, Osage, Ia., in 1881. After teaching school in the west for a short time and farming a claim in Dakota he went to Boston and began to earn his living by his writings. In 1893 Mr. Garland returned to the west and has remained there save for the time he has spent in traveling. He was married in 1899 to Zulma Taft, a sister of the famous sculptor, Lorado Taft, and herself a sculptor and art critic of note. The Garlands make their home in Chicago, but the writer cultivates in the summer his farm in Wisconsin.

From his earliest years Mr. Garland manifested an interest in the Indian tribes, and he has made extensive researches into their history, ethnology and present conditions. His activity in their behalf led to his selection several years ago by President Roosevelt as a commissioner to investigate the practicability of renaming all the Indians of the United States, the plan being to give them family names so that any rights they possess in the land might be defined and respected and, perhaps, perpetuated.

AMERICA DEVELOPS VIOLIN GENIUS

RECOGNITION at twenty-one as the greatest living American violinist, worthy to rank with Kreisler, Ysaye, Kubelik, the European masters of the bow—such is the happy distinction that has come to Albert Spalding of Chicago, who has been entrancing Europeans with his skill on his beautiful instrument.

Spalding returned early in June from a long sojourn in Europe, where he won many plaudits, to spend this summer at Monmouth Beach, N. J., with his family and will go back to the old world in the autumn to begin his 1910-11 concert tour of the European capitals.

Whether or not Spalding is the "future Paganini," as one of his ardent admirers called him, is a matter of possible future revelation. In one respect at least Spalding resembles the famous virtuoso of a century ago—that is, in the instant recognition his genius has won from the critics of foreign lands. As Paganini toured Europe, meeting with appreciation of his genius wherever he went, so Spalding has been hailed in Europe as one of the greatest of living violinists. France, England, Germany, Russia, all have paid tribute to his mastery of technique and the wonderful, indescribable appeal of his tone to the musician and the lay hearer. Throughout there has been but very little unfavorable criticism, and whatever carping of this sort has found its way into print has invariably been modified by words of warmest praise. Probably never before in the history of American music—though that has been lamentably brief and undistinguished—has an instrumentalist from this country met with so favorable a reception by the critics of the old world.

Spalding recently concluded a tour on the continent. He will tour Europe again in the musical season of 1910-11 and will visit America during the season of 1911-12. His triumphs abroad insure him an ovation in his native land, where he has appeared before in concerts. Some extracts from the French critics' comments on his playing read as follows:

"He has classed himself among the greatest violinists of the age."

"Qualities which we noted were sufficient to class the violinist among the greatest."

"Albert Spalding is one of the best violinists of our epoch."

American critics have been equally enthusiastic over their young compatriot. When he played in concert in 1908 in Carnegie hall, in New York, Reginald De Koven, the famous composer and musical critic, said:

"I saw a clean cut, almost typical American youth, good to look upon, without the smallest pose or affectation in his or manner, evidently artistic, as evidently whole souled and sincere. Then he played, and I heard what I must consider violin playing of a high order, distinguished by great finish, refinement and elegance of style."

rather than by force or great breadth, yet displaying rare artistic intelligence and sympathy in conception. Spalding's tone is singularly clear and even, sweet and penetrating, with the sheen and luster of a rich satin rather than the robust sonority of a Wilhelmj or Ysaye. His instrument has evidently no technical secrets for him, whether in bowing, double stopping, octave fore her marriage. A few years ago she said to an interviewer:

"At the very first, when he was a little bit of a fellow, two or three years old, and he would sit so quietly and patiently beside me while I played the piano, I used to assure myself it was because he loved me. It seemed incredible that a child so young could be appealed to so strongly by music."

ALBERT SPALDING.

passages or rarely pure harmonies. Altogether Mr. Spalding must be credited with a distinct success on his merits as an artist, and there seems no reason why maturity and deeper experience of life should not develop what is now remarkable talent into commanding genius."

That was a year and a half ago. European critics before whom Spalding has played since the time when that criticism was penned agree that Spalding's playing now shows greater maturity of tone, more commanding personal force, more ripening into genius of the talent which De Koven noted.

Spalding's music comes to him naturally, by inheritance from his mother. She was a finished musician be-

Then I was so anxious, so fairly wild for him to love it, that I used to try to argue myself out of the belief that there was anything phenomenal about his evident passion for it. I was dreadfully afraid of getting my hopes up only to suffer disappointment.

"When Albert was seven years old we had returned one afternoon from a concert. He was very quiet and seemed to be thinking. Suddenly he said, 'Mother, I would like a violin.' Of course I was amazed. He was so young to say such a thing. 'You could not play it, my son. If you had it,' I told him, but he answered: 'Yes, I could, I could learn.' Well, as I turned out, he got the violin. That is just about all there is to tell."

CHILD WAS KILLED

Two Other Children Badly Injured on the South Common

One child was killed and two were badly injured near the pond on the South common shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon. A limb fell from a tree and struck them. It was an accident and to understand, as no reason could be advanced for the sudden falling of the limb.

The little girl's skull was fractured and she received a multiplicity of wounds. A man passing in an automobile tendered his services and the little girl was taken to St. John's hospital. The child's life was ebbing fast away and she died in the automobile. At the hospital she was identified as Kathleen Ahern, 10 years old, of Lawrence street. The boy, Samuel Moses, is 6 years old. His home is at 72 Suffolk street. He sustained a compound fracture of the left arm and severe scalp wounds. He was treated by Dr. Randall, who removed him from the scene of the accident to his office in Middlesex street in his automobile. The doctor did not observe any speed laws on his way from the common to his office. It was Dr. Randall who ordered the little girl taken to the hospital. "I do not think she will live to get there," said the doctor, as the little girl was placed in the automobile. Lieut. Connors carried the boy in his arms and rode in Dr. Randall's machine to the doctor's office. The other victim was Olive Gosselin of 688 Middlesex street. It is feared she is injured internally.

JAIL SENTENCE HIS FIRST VETO

For Man Charged With Forgery

The police of this city have received information from Toronto, Canada, to the effect that George Mitchell Atlas, who has been in this city, has been sentenced to nine years in the Kingston penitentiary for forgery, the penalty of $105 and uttering a forged document.

The information was sent by H. J. Grasette, chief constable of Toronto, and thought the man was sentenced to serve nine years he will have to serve but six, owing to the fact that he was sentenced to three years on each count, the first three years to be succeeded by the second sentence of three years and the third to be concurrent with the first two.

Was Filed By the Mayor Today

The resolution passed by the board of aldermen and granting the New England Telephone and Telegram company permission to relocate poles in Rogers street has been vetoed by Mayor Meehan. It is the mayor's first veto and the message, which was filed at the city clerk's office this afternoon, reads as follows:

July 1, 1910.
To the Board of Aldermen of the City of Lowell, Mass.

I hereby return without my approval the resolution of the board of aldermen entitled "Resolution granting the New England Telephone and Telegram company of Massachusetts permission to relocate poles on Rogers street."

The reasons set forth by the objectors seem to me to be fair and substantial. They contend that the poles are now located on the side of Rogers street where there are no houses, and to move said poles to the opposite side of the street would tend to destroy the trees and become a general nuisance.

Respectfully yours,
John F. Meehan, Mayor.

There were about 500 people present at the baseball game between Lowell and Brockton at Spalding park this afternoon. Frank Shannon, formerly of the Lowell, and more recently of the Brockton team, occupied a seat in the grandstand. Wolfgang was on the slab for Lowell and he was hit rather hard during the early part of the game. Umpire O'Brien called the game at three o'clock, the batting order of the teams being as follows:

Lowell
Fitzpatrick, 2b
Tenney, 1b
Conney, 3b
Fluharty, rf
Magee, lf
Huston, c
Bouttes, 3b
Dineen, cf
Wolfgang, p

Brockton
McGovern, 1b
McGovern, 2b
Stankard, 3b
Dulin, cf
Lavinne, lf
Sweeney, p

First Inning
Lowell scored a run in the first inning while the visitors from the Brockton failed to send a man over the plate. Hendrickson opened the inning with a single to left field and went to second on McLane's sacrifice. Lawrence flied to Huston and McGovern hit a grounder to Conney and was out at first.

In the latter half of the inning Fitzpatrick was hit by a pitched ball. Tenney, intending to sacrifice, bunted the ball to Sweeney, who jumped for it and threw to second; but the throw was a bad one and both men were safe. Conney advanced both men with a sacrifice. Fitz scored on a wild pitch. Fluharty flied to Dulin and McGovern hit to Sweeney and was out at first.

Score—Lowell 1, Brockton 0.

Second Inning
The visitors scored two runs in the second inning, while the home team failed to make a tally. Stankard flied to Fluharty and Dulin followed with a single. Pond hit to left center field for three bases, scoring Dulin. On the throw to Bouttes, the latter dropped the ball and Pond also scored. Lawrence hit to Conney and was out at first. Sweeney hit to Fitz and was out at first.

In Lowell's half Huston hit to Lawrence and was out at first. Bouttes hit to right field for a single but when Dineen hit to Sweeney the latter threw to second getting Bouttes and the ball was then thrown to first for a double play.

Score—Lowell 1, Brockton 2.

Third Inning
Neither side scored in the third inning. Hendrickson hit to center field for three bases and McLane followed with a fly to Bouttes. Lawrence hit to Fitzpatrick, who threw home in time to get Hendrickson at the plate. McGovern hit to Wolfgang and failed to reach first.

Fitzpatrick flied to Lavinne. Fitz followed with a single by second base. Sweeney and Lavinne made several unsuccessful attempts to catch Fitz napping but he fooled them and then stole second. Tenney and Conney went out on flies to McLane.

Score—Lowell 1, Brockton 2.

Fourth Inning
Stankard opened the fourth inning by hitting to Conney and dying at first. Pond and Lavinne singled, but Sweeney was third out on a fly to Conney. Lowell tied the score in the latter half of the inning. Fluharty singled and then stole second. Magee hit to Stankard and died at first. Huston knocked a fly to Lawrence but the latter dropped the ball and Fluharty scored. Bouttes hit a line drive which Stankard gathered in and the latter threw to first for a double play.

Score—Lowell 2, Brockton 2.

Fifth Inning
Hendrickson flied to Bouttes. McLane drew a base on balls and stole second. Lavinne flied to Conney and McGovern was third out on strikes.

Lowell forged to the front in the latter half of the fifth by scoring a run. Dineen flied to Lawrence and Wolfgang flied to Pond. Fitzpatrick slammed the ball out for a three bagger and scored on Tenney's two bagger to center field. Conney hit to Sweeney and was out at first.

Score—Lowell 3, Brockton 2.

Sixth Inning
Neither side scored in the sixth inning. Stankard and Dulin hit grounders to Wolfgang and were retired at first. Lavinne went out on strikes. Fluharty flied to McLane, Magee struck out and Huston flied to McLane.

Score—Lowell 3, Brockton 2.

Seventh Inning
In the seventh inning Sweeney singled to right field and Hendrickson hit to Bouttes who threw to second, getting Sweeney. Hendrickson tried to steal second and was thrown out. McLane hit to the center field fence for three bases. Lavinne hit to Fitzpatrick and was out at first.

Bouttes hit to Dulin and was out at first. Dineen flied to Lawrence and Wolfgang was third out on a fly to Dulin.

Score—Lowell 3, Brockton 2.

Eighth Inning
In the eighth inning McGovern flied to Dineen. Stankard hit to Wolfgang and was out at first and Dulin flied to Fitz.

In Lowell's half Fitzpatrick hit to left field for his third single. Tenney bunted along the third base line and beat the ball. Conney bunted and also beat the ball, filling the bases. Fluharty hit to Sweeney, forcing Fitz at the plate. Magee hit a Texas leaguer to short center field, scoring Tenney. Huston hit over Sweeney's head and Conney and Fluharty scored. Bouttes flied to Hendrickson and Magee went to third. Dineen hit to right field, scoring Magee and Huston. Wolfgang hit to Dulin and was third out.

Score—Lowell 5, Brockton 2.

Frank Hawes Passed Away Suddenly This Morning

The many friends of former Assessor Frank Hawes, well known in G. A. R. and political circles, will be pained to learn of his death which occurred very suddenly early this morning at his home, 135 Eleventh street.

The deceased was 73 years of age and had been a resident of Lowell for many years. In days gone by he was quite prominent in politics and held the position of assistant assessor from 1892 until 1895. In the days when the assistants were employed throughout the year, some time after leaving city office he had been retired from the active affairs of life. Yesterday morning he took of breakfast in Putnam's restaurant and 155 O. A. R. He leaves only his wife, was apparently in the best of health Mrs. Nellie A. Hawes.

and spirits. He moved his lawn yesterday afternoon and retired early last night as was his custom feeling fine.

About 2 o'clock this morning he went to his wife's sleeping apartment and awakened her, complaining of pains in the region of his heart and coughing slightly. Mrs. Hawes prepared him a warm drink, after taking which he said he felt better and went back to bed. About 5:30 o'clock this morning Mrs. Hawes awoke and going to her husband's room to inquire as to his condition, found him dead in bed. Heart attack was the probable cause of death. The deceased was a veteran of life. Yesterday morning he took of breakfast in Putnam's restaurant and 155 O. A. R. He leaves only his wife, was apparently in the best of health Mrs. Nellie A. Hawes.

Ninth Inning
Pond singled to left field. Lavinne hit to Conney who threw to Fitz, getting Pond and the ball was sent to first for a double play. McLane went to bat for Sweeney. He struck out.

Score—Lowell 5, Brockton 2.

Errors—Lowell 1, Brockton 1.

MANY WOUNDED
LEMBERG, Austria-Hungary, July 1.—The Ruchenian and Polish students of the University of Lemberg met again today and many officials and students are seriously wounded.

The feud is as old as the university itself. This morning it led to a fierce battle for the possession of the camp. Hundreds of students, some armed with revolvers, were involved.

INCREASED REVENUE
BOSTON, July 1.—A decided increase in the manufacture of hard liquor or distilled spirits in Massachusetts is shown by the internal revenue figures issued today. Collections in Boston for the year ending June 30 amounted to $5,876,103, compared with $3,631,870. On the increase $1,133,000 was received from distilled spirits and $1,416,103 from collections under the new corporation law.

NAVAL TRIAL BOARD
NEWPORT, R. I., July 1.—The naval trial board assembled at the naval training station here today to try the crew of the torpedo boat in its speed trials. The board was headed by Rear Admiral Chauncey Thomas.

EPWORTH LEAGUE
LEWISTON, Me., July 1.—Two hundred delegates from all of the New England states were present at today's sessions of the first general conference district and of the Maine state branch of the Epworth league. Rev. Albert L. Legg, president of the first general conference district, delivered his report and spoke on world evangelism.

FUNERALS
TALBOT.—With simple funeral services the body of the late Mrs. Isabella Talbot was consigned to its final resting place Wednesday afternoon. The funeral took place from the home of the deceased on Mount Pleasant street in North Billerica. Rev. Paul Revere Frothingham, pastor of the Arlington street church of Boston, officiated at the service in the house, and there was singing by the choir of that church, several appropriate selections being rendered.

There was a profusion of floral offerings. Burial was in the Lowell cemetery under the direction of Undertakers J. B. Currier Co.

During the afternoon the Talbot mills shut down and the stores of the North village were also closed out of respect to the deceased.

GRAY.—The funeral of Mrs. Harriet A. Gray took place yesterday afternoon from her residence, 2 Loring street. The services were conducted by Rev. E. Victor Bigelow, pastor of the Eliot Congregational church. The bearers were George S. Hull, Edward E. Sargent, Calob L. Smith and James Sykes. Burial was in the family lot in Westlawn cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

WRIGHT.—The funeral of William H. Wright took place yesterday noon from the Lowell cemetery chapel and was largely attended. Rev. A. St. John Chamber conducted the services. There were many beautiful floral offerings. Burial was in the Lowell cemetery under the direction of J. A. Weinbeck.

ROBINSON.—The funeral of Miss Agnes Austin Robinson took place from her residence, 80 Lawrence street, on Thursday afternoon, and was largely attended. There were many beautiful floral offerings. The services were conducted by Rev. C. T. Billings, pastor of the First Unitarian church, and there was appropriate singing by the Unitarian choir, consisting of Mrs. Leahy, Mrs. George Spaulding, Mr. C. D. Page and Mr. A. Munn.

The bearers were Frank Goodall, Henry Pay, Dr. Leonard Huntress and William Farrar. Edward Spaulding had charge of the arrangements, and the burial was in the family lot in the Lowell cemetery, under the direction of Undertakers J. B. Currier Co.

Same as Used on Wheelock Tried at No. Chelmsford

An alleged flim-flam artist tried to work his little game on O. M. Green, aged 82 years, of North Chelmsford, the day before yesterday, but the cleverness of Mr. Green's daughter prevented the former carrying out his scheme. Owing to her dilatory tactics in notifying the police, however, the man made his escape.

The man, who is described as being tall, dark complexioned, smooth faced and young, called at Mr. Green's house and represented himself as Mr. Harry Pollard. He said that his father had a couple of volumes of historical works which he was going to give away, one being for Mr. Green and the other for another friend.

The daughter, who knows Mr. Pollard by sight, immediately detected that something was wrong and said that her father was not ready to go out at that time, but that if he would call around a couple of hours later her father would be ready.

The man then drove away, after promising to return at the hour designated by the daughter, but the stealer failed to put in an appearance at the appointed time.

About two hours after the man called the daughter notified the local police. Several inspectors were sent out to try to locate the man and it was learned that the horse and carriage which he had used had been hired at Peabody's stable in Warren street, but that the man had returned with the horse and put it up almost an hour before the inspectors arrived. When he hired the outfit he gave the name of Bailey.

The police are of the opinion that "Bailey" was going to take Mr. Green for a ride to Lowell, and on the way the former would meet a friend who would be invited to join the party and that Mr. Green would be taken to some place where a very flattering proposition to make money would be made and he would be firm-famed out of several thousand dollars. The police are also of the opinion that "Bailey" is one of the gang of men who bunched around a couple of hours later her father would be ready.

FORMER ALDERMAN

Says That He Was Offered Bribe of $2000

SALISBURY, July 1.—All of the time of the superior criminal court yesterday was occupied in the trial of Mayor William P. White, George Smart, Matthew Burns, Samuel Kress, Ernest Dubo and Thomas A. Keegan, charged with a conspiracy to bribe aldermen of the city of Lawrence in connection with the attempted removal of Fire Chief Hamilton last December.

Ex-Alderman Carl A. Woskel testified that Kress and Smart had each offered him $1000 and police appointments to vote against Hamilton and he had refused to consider it and that in the aldermanic chamber Keegan came to him and said there was $1000 to vote to oust Hamilton and said "think it over to see on which side there is the most in it for you."

Alderman William Moss, Jr., testified that at a meeting of the aldermen, while waiting in the city clerk's office, Keegan had come to him and said: "I know where there is $1000 to vote to oust Hamilton." He had refused, and a few minutes later Keegan came and said they would double the amount and add appointments of policemen.

This was the first time in his life that an attempt had been made to bribe him. He did not call the police as he had no proof. Keegan was a stranger to him, he only knowing him

14 NEW NAMES

Added to Board of Trade Membership Roll

The membership committee of the board of trade held a midday lunch and business meeting at the Park hotel yesterday noon, 14 of the 20 members being in attendance. The committee voted to meet at lunch weekly until the annual outing Aug. 24.

Fourteen new names for membership were brought in at the meeting yesterday. Secretary Murphy had a card list of business men who are not members, and those were distributed among the members present to be interviewed before the meeting to be held next Wednesday. As only members will be given tickets for the annual outing on Aug. 4, it is probable that this will be an inducement to join. The dues are one-half regular rates from now until Jan. 1st. The committee has adopted the slogan "1000 members," and an effort will be made to bring the membership list up to that figure.

Following is a list of the names brought in yesterday:

Henry Strutz, 230 Middlesex street; E. H. Dickey, 321 High street; Frank A. Maloney, North Chelmsford; R. E. Judd, 79 Merrimack street; G. H. Edwards, manager Colonial store; A. Lamontagne, 605 Merrimack street; A. Parent, 15 Sargent street; John E. Kearns, 24 Brooks street; E. E. Barlow, 35 Smith street; George E. Marchant, 8 Brackett avenue; Anthony Walsh, 787 Lakeview avenue; W. S. Watson, William F. Foye, Park hotel; Irving Barlow, 17 Chelmsford street; William T. Davis, 629 School street.

FELL TO DEATH

The Parachute Failed to Open

MUNCIE, Ind., July 1.—The parachute in which he was descending failing to open, Ray Bradley, 25 years, dropped 1500 feet to death at Albany, Ind., yesterday. Bradley was two persons high. With the first he dropped 500 feet from 2000 feet elevation and started earthward in the second, which stuck.

NEW MUSIC ROOM

Dedicated at Home of Organist French

A high class and most delightful musicale was held last evening at the beautiful home of Albert F. French, for many years organist of the First Baptist church, in Parkview avenue. The occasion marked the completion of what he modestly terms his new "music room." This "music room" is something of which perhaps no other residence in Lowell can boast. It consists of a large room and fine organ and in design and appointment is superb.

The music room organ were conceived and planned by Mr. William B. Goodwin of this city, many detail drawings being executed by Mr. Jones of Boston, a relative of Mr. French, who is to be congratulated on being the owner of this ideal spot for musical study and entertainment.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. French very generously threw their doors open to their neighbors and friends, among them being many of the organists and musicians of the city. The rare beauty of the instrument was displayed in the following program which had been informally arranged, but was none the less enjoyable for its impromptu character:

The program:
Organ, Andantino ..... Lemare
Anthem, "Gloria Alleluia" ..... Buck
Kirk Street Quartet.
Mrs. Spence, Miss Dwyer, Messrs. Wirt and Howard, with Mr. Spaulding at the organ.
Organ, Improvisation.
Recitations ..... Selected
Solo, "Gloria" ..... Buzzi-Pocca
Anthem, "Sun of My Soul" ..... Kirk Street Quartet.

Dust.
"Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah."
Mrs. French and Mr. Hardy with Mr. French at the organ.
Organ, "March Religieuse" ..... Gullmunt
Mr. A. C. Spaulding.
Recitation.
Miss Esther Stocks.
Baritone Solo, "The Two Graciers," Schumann
Mr. Geo. Drew with Mrs. Drew at the organ.

Organ, Frolis Lied from "Die Meistersinger," Mr. S. R. Fleet.
Piano Solo, Etude ..... Liszt
Soprano Solo, "The Penitent" ..... Vandewater
Mrs. Poplin.
With Mr. French Accompanist.
Organ, Largo ..... Handel
Miss Drew.

At the close of the musical refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. French received the hearty congratulations of their friends.

INSTALLED BY CERCLE ST. LOUIS LAST EVENING

The new officers of Cercle St. Louis were formally installed at the club rooms in Centralville last evening with most interesting exercises.

The officers installed were: President, Adolphe Lequin; vice president, E. P. Chaput; secretary, J. A. N. Chretien; assistant secretary, Hector Dupont; treasurer, Albert Dery; collector, Alfred Eli; master of ceremonies, Geo. Chaput; honorary president, Alphonse Landry; guard, Alfred Harvey.

The speeches and musical program followed the installation of officers. Refreshments were served under the direction of Caterer William Rousseau.

The committee in charge was: President, Alfred Eli; vice president, Hector McDonald; secretary, Antonio Trudon; aids, William Gagnon and Leo Lelotte; chaplain, Rev. R. A. Fortier.

MRS. VANDERBILT

DECIDED YESTERDAY TO TAKE AN AIR TRIP

NEW YORK, July 1.—Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt went up with Clifford B. Harmon, the amateur aviator, in his aeroplane at Mineola, L. I., yesterday. The flight was very brief, cut short because a spectator got in the way.

Harmon purposely kept close to the ground for safety, and had gone halfway around the course when a man cut across ahead. To avoid a possible accident, Harmon rose sharply and attempted to make a long turn and go back to his starting point. But, looking ahead, he saw a tree in his path, and was forced to make a quick descent.

Both he and Mrs. Vanderbilt were jarred in coming down, but neither was injured. The shock loosened several bolts in the machine and slightly damaged the rudder. Mrs. Vanderbilt, thrilled by the experience, walked smilingly back across the field and joined the enthusiastic spectators.

Yesterday Harmon took his wife as passenger.

MONSTER BONFIRE

The residents of Ayer City are to have a monster bonfire on the Fourth. The mammoth pile which is to be burned is 50 ft. high and has been under the process of construction for several days. It is located in the vacant lot bounded by Main, Plain, London and Tannor streets. The frame is constructed by railroad ties. The ties have been placed in log cabin style and a few hours before the match is to be applied the interior of the hollow square will be filled with combustible material.

At 12:05 o'clock on the morning of the Fourth the bonfire will be applied and there will be an illumination which will be seen for miles around.

At Graduation of Commercial College in Associate Hall

The 51st annual graduation of the Lowell Commercial college was held last night at Associate hall. The floral decorations were profuse and artistic and the hall was filled with relatives and friends of the graduates and members of the school. Lavigne's orchestra rendered pleasing selections during the evening.

Harvey B. Greene, president of the board of trade and member of the park commission, was the presiding officer of the evening. During the course of his remarks he said that as an American he was proud of our system of public schools, but he questioned whether our changed commercial conditions do not demand a change in the curriculum of our schools, giving more attention to vocational training.

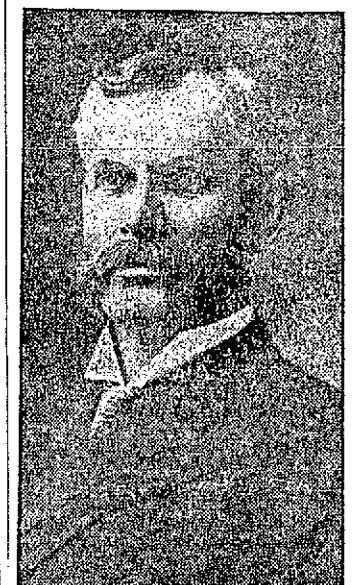

It is a sad sight to see a young man of 24 or 25 with no special training for life and in nine cases out of 10 he goes down to ruin. In England, this difficulty is met very largely by the system of apprenticeship, and in Germany the problem is solved more effectively than in any other country, by the introduction in later years, of trade schools—vocational schools. That accounts for Germany's successful competition with England and with us, commercially. If we are to hold our own we must adopt some such method of training in our public schools.

The Lowell Commercial college is doing much toward meeting this need for vocational training.

Rev. Caleb E. Fisher, pastor of the First Universalist church, gave the address of the evening. He said that he believed in practical education and he advised the graduates to act their own lives, and think their own thoughts—not an easy thing, he said, to do in this world; but those who do it are the marked men and women today, who are leading in their vocations.

It is a good thing, he said, to do something outside of the regular vocation—to carry a side line. While this is an age of specialization, yet the man or woman who knows but one thing is to be pitied when he goes out into the world.

He believed that in education today we are building too much on the structure, and forgetting to lay the foundations. All college men are not educated. We talk about self-made men, but there are none such. A man must grasp the world as he finds it, and enter into other people's lives. Too many colleges and schools send out graduates who have no conception of what life is.

"Make your word a blessing and not a curse," he said to the graduates; and he proposed as a class motto, "Love, Service, Sacrifice." "It is a good thing to have an ideal, and don't leave out the greatest thing in education, which is common sense."

Miss Frances G. Kane, the class president, made the presentation for the class of a picture which will be hung on the school wall. It was accepted by Mr. F. A. Spence, treasurer of the school.

Mayor John F. Meehan presented the diplomas and said that to his mind education, in its best sense, is the highest development of the faculties of the mind and heart.

He said that for 60 years the Lowell Commercial school has been doing standard and good work in the city. The standard set by the school is very high, and its diploma is a passport to any business house in Lowell or any other city. Hundreds of its graduates are among our most valued citizens. He felt assured that the class of 1910 will measure up to the standard set by those who have preceded.

The officers of the class of 1910 are as follows:

President, Frances G. Kane; vice president, Alden C. Flagg; treasurer, Helen M. Winn; secretary, Max V. Wade; sergeant-at-arms, William Nebes; assistant sergeant-at-arms, Elizabeth A. Scannell.

Following is the full list of graduates:

FIGHTERS ARE READY

Jeffries and Johnson Have Finished Their Training

RENO, Nev., July 1.—At last the long, hard grueling training seems to be at an end in the camps of both Johnson and Jeffries. Both declared last night that they had done their last bit of strenuous work before the fight. Until the call of time on July 4 they say, they will devote themselves entirely to amusement and very light exercise such as walking.

Each says he is fit, Jeffries, happier, apparently, than he has been since he began the laborious process of making himself physically sound, sixteen months ago, romped like a school boy at his camp at Mouna Springs today.

Johnson, smiling as usual, joked with his trainers and reiterated his statement that he is in condition to put up the battle of his life.

Jeff was in good humor last night when a party of friends called upon him. He insisted that they trot down the road with him. But as the majority of them were not in shape to keep up with the swift pace he set, they affected a compromise by one of the party taking a walk with the fighter.

As the two strolled up the road Jeffries talked at length about his prospects in the battle.

"I am going to win this fight," he said. "I never was in better shape in my life. I will go right after my opponent and knock him out as soon as possible. I expect to take a lot of punishment in order to get to him quickly. But you may depend upon it, I'll inflict a greater amount of more severe punishment in return."

Nobody at the Jeffries camp knows just what he weighs. It is said he does not know himself. Jim Corbett believes Jeffries will tip the beam between 220 and 225 pounds.

"Jack Johnson," said Tom Flanagan, his manager, "is in excellent shape and weighs 200 pounds. He will win, first because he is the craftiest man in pugilism, and second, because neither Jeffries nor any other living man can come back after being out of the fighting game as long as he has been."

Both fighters are fit, according to Dr. W. S. Porter, family physician to Jeffries. Although it was a strange thing for him to do, Dr. Porter examined Johnson at his camp yesterday. He went out to see the negro work and while there was spied by the colored man.

"I'm glad to see you, doctor," said Johnson, addressing the physician when he saw him at the ringside just before the beginning of the workout. "Can I do anything for you?"

The fighter and the physician talked for a few minutes, and then Dr. Porter examined the negro's heart action. After Johnson had gone through his exhibition paces the physician made a second examination. He said he found no signs of palpitation and thought Johnson was in good condition.

Later at Jeffries' camp, Dr. Porter expressed the opinion that Jeffries was in fine fettle.

"He has the appearance of a perfect athlete in the white of his eye," said the doctor. "No man's eyes can look as Jeffries do and not be fit for the battle of his life."

That Johnson thinks mighty well of his chances in the fight is shown by his statement last night that he had $5000 to bet on himself.

Betting is extremely light. Several men with money to place are said to be holding aloof because they are of the belief that the arbiter for the battle has not been named finally.

There is warfare on between the two sets of houses where bets may be placed, and this has led to the naming of some peculiar odds. At Tom Roberts' place, officially recognized by the promoters as betting headquarters, the best odds offered are 10 to 6 1-2 on Jeffries and even money that Jeffries does not knock Johnson out within 25 rounds.

But up the street a few doors in an independent house, odds of 10 to 7 1/2 on Jeffries are being magnified to the crowds and even money is offered that Jeffries will not knock his opponent out in 15. But neither place is doing any large amount of business. Several bets of $100 to $50 and $75 have been placed. A few have been made at $500 to $350.

Just because there is little betting on the fight is no sign that money is not being spent about the city of Reno in abundance, however. The play at the roulette wheel, faro and crap tables has been so good that the limits are being raised. These games of chance run day and night except on Sunday.

The reason Jeffries is so anxious to have the boxing platform of the arena absolutely immovable, is assigned to the experience he had during his fight with Bob Fitzsimmons nearly a decade ago in San Francisco. The platform built for the contest was hurriedly constructed and it was a bit unstable and shaky for a man of Jeffries' weight. Fitzsimmons being a lighter man and shifter on his feet managed to use the flexible floor as a kind of spring board from which to launch himself on the champion, but with Jeffries the "give" and general insecurity of the structure interfered seriously with his footwork and, as he described it afterward, he felt as if he were wading through a sand pile with every movement he made. As a consequence the active "lanky" Bob contrived to get in many telling blows on his adversary that, Jeffries thinks, would not have reached their mark but for the springy flooring.

PERSONALS

Dr. Joseph Grady, the Boston specialist, and wife, formerly of Lowell, sailed today on the Prince Arthur for Yarmouth, N. S. During their month's absence they will visit Halifax, Sydney, C. B., St. John's, N. F., Charlottetown, P. E. I., Quebec, and Montreal and return home by way of Burlington, Vt., reaching Boston on Tuesday, Aug. 2nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Ready and Master Willie and Miss Helen will spend the Fourth with friends in Holyoke. They went over the road in an automobile.

The Hillside church in Draught, can boast of the youngest organist in these parts and the proud distinction belongs to Miss Minnie Tucker, of 35 Orleans street, this city. She is 13 years old and was only 11 years old when she took charge of the organ at the Hillside church. She has played herself into the hearts of the congregation and those who attend that church are very proud of their youthful organist. Miss Tucker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John George Tucker. She began the study of the piano when only seven years of age with Miss Minnie M. Davey and after four years' instruction under Miss Davey she took up the study of the organ with Mr. Wilfred Kershaw. Miss Tucker possesses a beautiful soprano voice. She will enter the New England Conservatory next year.

The family of Mr. Thomas E. Foley of 135 Warren street, left today for Revere beach where they will enjoy the next two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis N. White and daughter Viola, of 189 Tremont street, have gone to Westford, Mass., for the next two weeks.

IF SHE GOES TO CONGRESS,
PROMISES TO RESIGN IF NOT GOOD

KATE RICHARDS O'HARE

KANSAS CITY, Kan., July 1.—If Mrs. Kate Richards O'Hare is elected to congress from the Second Kansas district she promises to tender her resignation if the voters of her district think she votes in the interests of the trusts. Mrs. O'Hare has already written out her resignation, leaving it undated, the date to be supplied by any of her following who thinks she should have voted "another way on any bill before congress." It doesn't look as though Mrs. O'Hare would hold her seat for long even if she gets enough votes to take a seat by Uncle Joe. Mrs. O'Hare is a member of the Socialist party. She does the family washing between making speeches. She has fifty of these talks to be made within the next month.

SULTAN OF SULU

Is on His Way to New York

NEW YORK, July 1.—The sultan of Sulu, who is credited with wanting to marry Alice Roosevelt, is on his way to the United States, accompanied by a body-guard of 19 servants. Incidentally the sultan has $250,000 in pearls to adorn his person. The sultan left Manila two weeks ago and after a brief visit in England will head direct for New York and promises to make a tour of the country. The sultan of Sulu claims descent from that valiant Dyak Borneo chief, Pagulan Tindig, who early in the 16th century conquered the Sulu archipelago, founded the sultanate and opened the way for the introduction thereof of the religion of the front prophet. This sultanate, politically regarded as an integral part of the Philippines, came into the possession of the United States as the result of the Spanish-American war. Under the old regime the group of about 140 islands constituted a vassal domain in the suzerainty of the king of Spain. The authority of the sultan is nominal, but the devotion of his subjects is unquestioned. In a material sense he is a wealthy man. He receives an annual income from the British North Borneo company in lieu of his sovereign rights in Brunei and owns a fine collection of pearls. He is short and thick set. He wears a slight black mustache, and his hair is closely cropped. His eyes are small. His attire is picturesque. He can be extremely affable, particularly when the subject of his diminishing power is avoided.

For The Day We Celebrate

WHEREVER YOU SPEND THE DAY, WHETHER AT HOME OR AWAY, YOU WILL NEED MANY "SUMMER THINGS" TO HELP MAKE YOU COMFORTABLE. WE PRESENT TODAY A SEASONABLE LIST OF HOT WEATHER GOODS WITH SEASONABLE PRICES. IN MANY CASES BIG SLICES HAVE BEEN TAKEN FROM THE REGULAR PRICE MARKS, AND IF YOU WILL COME HERE FOR YOUR OUTFIT FOR

The Glorious Fourth

YOU WILL BE SURE TO FIND IN OUR LARGE ASSORTMENTS JUST WHAT WILL PLEASE YOU, AND YOU WILL PAY SO MUCH LESS THAN WHAT YOU EXPECTED THAT THERE WILL BE LOTS OF MONEY LEFT FOR MONDAY'S CELEBRATING.

Make the Fourth a Pleasure

By wearing comfortable shoes. When a man buys shoes he buys them for comfort and style, that is, most men do. But women want style first and comfort after. Now we want to tell you that the new oxfords we are just receiving this month combine both these desirable features of style AND comfort. Come and see them—try them on and—you will buy, that is, if you have any possible need for a new pair of shoes.

We speak first of all of the Queen Quality Oxfords and Pumps in Patent Leather, Black and Tan Calf—these are beauties at $3.00 and $3.50. No old styles, every pair brand new and up-to-date.

Boston Favorites are hardly equalled by any other shoe at anywhere near the same price. All kinds at $2.00 and $2.50.

White Canvas Pumps and Oxfords are especially good this summer. . . . 98c and $1.49.

Misses' and Children's Pumps, tan and black, Barefoot Sandals, 49c and 59c up to $1.49.

New Dutch Collars

It is July weather now and time to put away the hot, uncomfortable, humdrum collars, and enjoy the pleasures of the loose fitting lace or lingerie neckwear. Dutch Collars are certainly the proper thing for warm weather.

The most beautiful designs in Venice Lace have just been received, all especially priced for Fourth of July week, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00.

We never have shown such an attractive line of Linen Dutch Collars with edges wide and narrow of baby Irish lace. One special lot of 25 different styles, many of them regular 50c kinds, are marked for this week's sale only. . . . 25c.

These are really such exceptional values at this price that our advice if you want one is to come early. See special display in doorway.

All the New Things In Belts

There is more snap and style to our Belts for a quarter than we have been able to give before for many a day—of course you know that the Patent Leather ones are the latest notion and ours at a quarter are equal in appearance to many at double the money we have seen on the street lately. It is the wide style with big brass buckle, pointed end, and comes in black and red. These are scarce, but we have plenty for the Fourth at . . . . 25c.

Never saw such a variety of Wash Belts, as we are showing just now. There is a style to please every taste, in either linen, pique, crash or mercerized canvas. Some are plain tailored, others embroidered or beaded, and you can choose from either lot at . . . 25c or 50c.

All have pearl buckles. Some extra good things in White Belts at . . . . 10c each.

VACATION WEAR

You can't thoroughly enjoy your vacation unless you are properly clothed for it. At the seashore, the mountains, or in the country your wardrobe will add much to the satisfaction and pleasure of your outing. A visit to our department will help in suggesting needs—it will also show you the thought and care we have given to "Vacation Wear." Just a few hints of some of the good things this week.

TUB SUITS

We can only say of our line of Tub Suits that you will do yourself an injustice if you buy your vacation outfit before seeing the large variety of linen and crash suits we carry. Every grade of all linen, crash, ramie cloth and repp is here with a price range of $2.98 to $13.00.

Junior Suits of all pure linen, natural, white and combination colors, modeled for growing girls of 13, 15 and 17. A new departure in wash suits, $2.98, $3.98 and $4.98.

At $5.98—All pure linen suit in natural color, with collar and cuff of same or contrasting color, full pleated skirt. The best value for many seasons.

At $7.98—Heavy Linen Suit with 36 inch coat, pearl buttons; also linen crash suit with full pleated skirt, Persian collar and cuffs. Actually worth $10. Our two big leaders this year.

At $10, $11.50 and $12.98—We show the noblest suits in the

WASH SKIRTS

Your vacation is probably still ahead and you will be delighted with one or more of the attractive wash skirts we are showing today. Some are pure linen, some are mercerized, white and colors. All are smartly tailored in latest style and neatly finished. Values are remarkable.

At $1.00—The very best tailored skirt ever in Lowell at the price. Tab trimmed with cluster pleats, in plain white, natural linen and navy blue. Extra size waistbands in this same skirt are 50c extra.

At $1.98—Several different styles, all pure linen, with new tunic and overskirt effect, or fine tailor made with cluster pleating. Very attractive models in both white and natural linen.

At $2.98 and $3.98—Over 15 different styles in pure white linen,

WASH DRESSES

You will hardly find in the city a larger or better line of Wash Dresses for your Fourth of July outing than those we show. White and Colored Lawns, Percales, Gingham, Batiste and Linen. You can be sure of being cool and comfortable in any one of them. Prices. . . . 98c to $17.98.

At $3.98—We have a very attractive dress, linen color, lace yoke pointed front and back, tunic skirt, with narrow braid embroidery. Women's and misses' sizes.

At $5.98—We show a Two-Piece Gingham Dress, blue, pink and lavender checks, pointed Dutch neck, three-quarter sleeve, long tunic effect; very exclusive style.

At $6.98—Handsome Lawn 2-Piece Dresses, waist with round low neck, three-quarter sleeves, extra full skirt with overskirt effect; all colors.

Commencing Next Week Our Store Closes Every Thursday at 12.30 Until October

ON THURSDAY, JULY 14, WE CLOSE ALL DAY, to allow our Clerks' Association to enjoy the entire day at their Annual Outing at Nantasket Beach.

A NEW HAT FOR THE HOLIDAY

If you are looking for a place where a dollar can buy two hundred cents worth of merchandise you will find it right here in our Millinery Department. We take advantage of the busy days before the Fourth and will endeavor to make them still busier by marking every trimmed hat on our counters at special prices for Friday and Saturday. In all the low prices of the past weeks nothing has equalled those we make today. This is the time you have been looking for—buy your outing and vacation hats this week at the lowest prices of the entire season.

Auto Bonnets of Batavia cloth, taffeta silk and crash, trimmed with ties and chiffon veils, all colors, worth $6.98, for . . . . $2.98.

Also Java braid.

White Pique Hats, trimmed with silk, velvet and wings, for . . . . $1.98.

Black Rough Straw Sailors, Cambridge, Bar Harbor, Niagara and Iroquois, with gros-grain ribbon bands, for . . . . 49c, 69c, 98c, $1.49 and $1.69.

Splendid Shirt Waists for Your Holiday

Shirt Waist comfort in the hot weather depends largely on the kind of shirt waists you wear. The comfort giving kind—waists that are crisp, fresh, stylish and perfect fitting—waists that not only look cool but are cool have been gathered together for a grand two days' sale, gathered from the best makers in such numbers and at such prices that you simply won't be able to resist. We call attention to the waists we have to sell at $1.98 (many are regular $3.00 numbers)—they are extraordinary values, but not more so than waists we have marked at 98c, $1.49 and $2.98 for this week's sale.

SPECIAL AT $1.98

Waist of Sheer Lawn—Entire front fine valenciennes insertion and blind embroidery in narrow panels, crosses way panel in center. Back of baby tucks and insertion. Sleeve entire length of lace and tucks. One of our regular $3.00 numbers. Special this week. $1.98.

Waist of All Over Embroidered Batiste—Back, front and sleeve square neck, Dutch collar with fine valenciennes insertion. Three-quarter sleeve. A very attractive model. This week . . . . $1.98.

Waist of Lingerie Batiste—Round yoke, back and front of lace and ragotting with six real Irish crochet medallions, three-quarter sleeve, baby tucked front. Another $3.00 value. This week . . . . $1.98.

Waist of Mercerized Batiste—Low neck, pointed yoke of valenciennes lace and bonading and fine embroidered panels, back and sleeve with fine baby tucks, sleeve three-quarter length, narrow lace trimmed cuff. From our regular $3.00 models. This week . . . . $1.98.

Waist of Fine Batiste—Yoke of cluny lace and hand embroidered panels, front of fine tucks, panel blocked off with cluny tucks, sleeve three-quarter length. . . . $1.98.

HAMMOCK WEATHER

And there will be plenty more of it. What greater comfort than to swing in a cool oosy Hammock? The porch now becomes the living room so make it attractive with one or more of our specially good Hammocks. We have a large variety to choose from with a price range of 79c to $10 each. Here are two numbers that are of more than ordinary value—

SPECIAL HAMMOCK AT 79c

OUR HAMMOCK LEADER $1.98

Large line of colors, strongly woven bed, loose pillow, spreader and set of ropes—a particularly good number.

Hot Weather Comforts

For the Man of the House

High Class Negligee Shirts of fine quality, colorings and designs, to please particular men. Dressy and cool—the proper shirt for any occasion that does not call for evening dress. A great opportunity for vacation goers. Regular $1.00 numbers. This week. . . . 69c.

Soft Collar Negligee Shirts in white, champagne and blue chambray. Wear one of these on the Fourth and be comfortable. All sizes. This week 50c.

Thin Underwear

There's cool comfort being retailed in big packages from our underwear counter these warm days. This section has gathered over a hundred different kinds of the silky, gauzy underwear that mean only comfort for the wearer. Come and take your pick; you will surely be suited in both quality and price, for you know we never sell the trashy kind at any price, and the reliable, well fitting and good wearing kinds can be bought here at prices that will always appeal to prudent buyers. Our window today shows some very attractive numbers—see these and others at the counter. Don't be so uncomfortable these hot days when just a little money can secure comforts such as these.

Gauze Lisle, all kinds, plain and fancy yokes, 12 1-2c, 19c, 25c, 50c.

Silk Lisle, hand crocheted yokes. 75c, $1, $1.25 and $1.50.

Summer Hosiery

There is comfort in knowing that one wears fine hosiery, tasty, perfect fitting, fit to be seen any time. It is gratifying too, to know that it is possible to get fine hosiery of this character at moderate cost. We ask particular attention to the variety of kinds of Fine Gauze Lisle Hose we sell at 50c. Beautifully mercerized, so they look and feel just like silk and the triple heel and toe and garter tops give them wear equal to the less attractive cotton hose at the same price. Black, Tan, White and colors, plain gauze and lace ankle patterns, all at . . . . 50c.

Mercerized Silk Lisle Hose, double sole, Black, Tan and all colors, especially good value at 25c.

Falling Into Street in New Bedford and Catching Fire

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 1.—At 9.30 this morning the brick wall of the store house occupied by the Weber Lumber company, its trusses weakened by the collapse of the floor last night, crashed into the street, carrying with it a quantity of lumber which was stored on the second floor, the roof caving in on top of the heap. Intensity was added to the excitement when smoke was seen issuing from the building but the blaze, which was caused by burning insulation, was quickly extinguished by the department.

The room in which the lumber was stored was originally intended for a molding room and the floor was not strong enough to bear the weight of three carloads of stock which were yesterday piled on it. At 8.30 last night the floor fell through, pulling the trusses out of position and causing a sag of two or three feet in the roof. The wall was so weakened by the falling of the floor that this morning it collapsed, bringing the roof down with it.

Fortunately no one was injured, though there were several persons in the immediate vicinity of the building when the crash occurred. At the time of the collapse of the floor last night workmen had not been out of the building more than fifteen minutes. The fire which resulted from the accident amounted to little in itself, though a quantity of cotton waste stored in the basement made a serious blaze possible. The estimate of the damage which was confined to the building itself has not been made but it is expected that it will be considerable.

BIRTHDAYS CELEBRATED

EAST NORTHFIELD, Mass., July 1.—The birthdays of the United States and of Canada were celebrated today by the several hundred delegates attending the Northfield conference here. It has been the custom of the American delegates at the convention to observe the patriotic celebrations on the Fourth of July, but this year many early commencing have necessitated the ending of the conference on July 3rd. Because of the early ending of the convention the American delegates decided to join the Canadian delegates in their celebration of the Canadian dominion on July 1 by celebrating the Fourth today.

PRICE OF COAL ADVANCING

The coal dealers have announced an increase of 25 cents per ton in the price of coal. They offer two reasons for the increase. On reason is that they have agreed to advance the wages of their teamsters $1 a week, and the second reason is that the wholesale price of coal has been advanced 30 cents per ton, the advance taking effect today. The dealers claim the price of coal. They offer two reasons for the increase. One reason June of the present year than in any previous year.

CAPITALIST KILLED BY ELEVATOR

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—John William Hallahan was caught between the floor and car and killed late last night when he stepped from a hotel elevator at Capo May, N. J., after the car had started. He married Florence O'Day, a daughter of the late Daniel O'Day, the Standard Oil millionaire. She is spending the summer at New London, Conn.

MAY BE SUICIDE

MEDFORD, Mass., July 1.—The body of C. S. Sargent, of Somerville, was found today in front of West Hall, Tufts college. A medical examiner said death was due to poison. It is believed he committed suicide.

REDUCE YOUR COST OF LIVING

How? By following out what Ben. Franklin said: "A PENNY SAVED IS A PENNY EARNED." We can help you save many a penny if you come to this store where you will get more for same money than elsewhere.

In as convincing a way as it is possible for us to tell you, in all sincerity we say to you if you will take a little time and compare the values we give with what you get elsewhere you will agree with us when we make the claim of being the store for a big dollar's worth. As makers of the majority of all the clothing we handle you buy direct from manufacturer to purchaser, there being no middleman's profit, hence you save this difference.

If you intend to do any buying for the Fourth, read the items below and let us save you some money.

BOY SHOT DEAD

Accident in Camp Near Stroudwater

PORTLAND, Me., July 1.—Robert Stanley Dufresne, a boy of 13, was shot and instantly killed yesterday afternoon by John Fickett, a boy aged 12, at a camp near Stroudwater, where they had been camping out with two other boys for several days. The Fickett boy had an old revolver and withdrew the cartridges, but when the Dufresne boy said teasingly, "You couldn't hit me," he slipped to a cartridge and, as he thought, moved the chamber so as to bring the hammer opposite a blank space, and said, "What will you bet?" The Dufresne boy said, "My life." He pulled the trigger there was an explosion, and to his horror his friend dropped dead. Police Chief Dresser notified Coroner Martin and Asst. County Atty. Bodge, and an inquest will be held as a matter of form. There was a pathetic scene when Grant Dufresne, the father of the dead boy, met John Fickett and his father, Charles Fickett, at the office of Chief Dresser. The little fellow broke down and Mr. Dufresne spoke kindly to him and then he extended his hand to Mr. Fickett and said, "We will bear this together." No complaint will be made against the boy who left the police station with his father. The boys were very close friends and were generally together.

AIRSHIP AT LAKEVIEW

The unusual picture of an enormous airship flying through the air at the rate of 20 or more miles an hour will be presented at Lakeview park every afternoon and evening during next week, arrangements having been made by the Boston & Northern Street Railway company with Mr. Strobel, who is generally known as the King of the Air, for the exhibition of one of his famous dirigible balloons. Mr. Strobel has, under his management, some of the most famous navigators of the air in the country and one of the best of them, Mr. E. J. Parker of Rochester, N. Y., will be present to operate the machine. Mr. Strobel himself has made many sensational flights but as he has taken on years he has also taken on flesh, which is not particularly conducive to expertness in the operation of the modern aldsip. Mr. Strobel has perfected the dirigible balloon to the extent that with anything like ordinary weather he is practically sure of making the flight. Of course, in a gale he would not be able to do so. Under ordinary conditions the ship will travel at least 20 miles an hour and has a record of over 10 miles beyond that. It is under the most absolutely perfect control and presents a very unusual and interesting spectacle. The ship which Mr. Parker will operate and which will be at Lakeview park is one of the largest that has been made in this country, being 55 feet long and 11 1/2 feet in diameter. It is, however, extremely light, the whole outfit including the weight of the operator being not over 350 pounds. If the conditions are right Monday afternoon it is quite probable that the airship will take a little pleasure tour over the city at least, although this has not as yet been definitely decided. It will certainly make a flight above Maccusip lake and the neighboring territory.

HARVARD'S DAY

Crimson Oarsmen in Good Shape at the Finish

NEW LONDON, Conn., July 1.—Harvard's varsity crew rowed sturdily under the railroad bridge at the end of the four mile course late yesterday afternoon a winner by six lengths over eight tired Elis pulling their oars on sheer nerve. The powerful boat of the Harvard stroke hardly varied from the time that the first spurt of the racing start settled down into the steadier grind. Nor did Yale's efforts, always a trifle faster, let up until the last few hundred yards of the distance. Harvard simply rowed away, winning by power and persistent sticking to a careful plan of action. Yale was beaten, although no one really knew it, when the Harvard shell nosed a trifle ahead at the two mile mark. Yale was really out of the race at the three mile flag, when a length and a half open water divided between the boats. Even then Den Wallis, stroking the Blue crew, kept them at it, driving them as fast as they could stand and as fast as his own waning strength would permit. After the boats crossed the line Wallis' hands left the sweep. His arms and back kept up on in the steady rhythm of the rowing motion. Then he keeled over. A minute later he was lifted out and wrapped in blankets aboard the Elihu Yale. He had given all he had. Harvard Finishes Sitting Up When Wallis dropped, Roger Cutler, the Harvard pacemaker, was resting on his oar dashing water on the man behind him with a strong sweep of his hand. The Harvard oarsmen were all of them upright in the boat. They paused a second, splashing each other, then picked up a half paddle and went slowly over to the John Harvard. So Harvard finished, with a show of endurance that was a credit to their adherence to training conditions usually strict at the crimson camp this year and to the Wray regime, which has brought Harvard so gloriously to the foreground of rowing affairs. It was another clean sweep, another day of Harvard victories from the races to the morning to the overwhelming victory finish.

MAN IS MISSING

F. M. Burke of 528 Walnut street, Cincinnati, Ohio, is anxious to find Nathaniel H. White, and has written to the local police to endeavor to locate him. The writer says that White is about 52 years of age, bald, stands about five feet, eight inches, and had a brother, William White, in this city.

TRYING TO FIND FATHER

Annie Butler, aged 12 years, residing in Skowhegan, Me., has written to the police asking them to endeavor to locate her father, John Butler, a spinner by occupation. She said that the last time she heard from him he was residing at 15 Linson, Linden or Lincoln street in this city. She writes that she is in a destitute condition and would like to have her father care for her.

The accused waived reading of the complaint and being unable to get $6,000 bail in each case, was sent to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

YOUTH ESCAPED*CRAWLED THROUGH REGISTER AND MADE HIS ESCAPE

WINCHESTER, July 1.—Charles Quigley, 18 years of age, a youth of slender build, is the only prisoner who has succeeded in getting out of the Winchester lockup.

He was in court in Woburn yesterday morning and was sentenced to the Concord reformatory on a charge of being idle and disorderly. Chief McIntosh brought him back from court shortly before 10 yesterday morning and looked him in the detention room, while he attended to some other duties, intending to take the 1 p. m. train for Concord.

When the chief returned for his prisoner he found that he had made his escape. This he did by jumping from a chair in the room and pulling himself up on a water pipe near the ceiling of the room. From this he climbed onto a hot air furnace pipe and in this cramped position succeeded in pushing the last section of the furnace pipe and the register up into the town hall auditorium. He was then able to crawl up through the register opening, which measures 10 by 14 1/2 inches in the clear.

Shortly before noon Michael McCawley, the janitor of the town hall, heard someone found Quigley crouching in a corner. McCawley seized him. Quigley put up a fight and McCawley pulled him down the back entrance of the hall out onto the walk near the police station. Here the struggle continued. McCawley got him up against the building and held him there for fully 10 minutes, hoping that assistance would arrive. In changing his hold Quigley succeeded in freeing himself and when last seen was going up Washington street toward Montvale.

BABY CARNIVAL*TO BE HELD AT LAKEVIEW JULY 12 AND 13

Babyland in all its splendor will hold full sway at Lakeview park on July 12 and 13, when the babies and little girls of Lowell will have their innings at the annual baby show, decorated baby carriage parade and schoolgirls' white dress floral parade, which is given under the auspices of the Boston & Northern Street Railway company.

This season the management of the big event is pleased to announce that Mr. L. M. Rich will be in personal charge of the "carnival of the babe," which is a positive guarantee to the hundreds of mothers and fathers whose children annually take part in the big festival, that everything connected with the show and parade will receive the best of management. Mr. Rich is the originator of the baby show and conducted the very successful event held at Lowell two seasons ago, but who was unable to be here last summer. Mr. Rich will make it the biggest affair of the kind ever held in this vicinity.

The two day carnival will begin on July 12 afternoon with the baby show and decorated coach parade and the judging of the baby classes and carriages, and the second day will be devoted to the schoolgirls' white dress parade and the awarding of all prizes. The prize list consists of thirty grand prizes, the value of which is $350. The grand prize to the mother of the most beautiful baby in Lowell will be a high grade sewing machine. Besides the premiums which will be awarded to the babies in the contests, every baby entered in any of the ten classes will receive a beautiful doll, so that all the children taking part will be remembered.

WILLOW DALE*CONCERT SUNDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING BY QUARTET

Next Sunday both afternoon and evening the Apollo Male quartet of Boston will be heard in concerts at Willow Dale. This quartet offers a program of unusual interest and though the singers are highly trained their program is decidedly popular in subjects. The Apollo quartet has been a feature in star course entertainments all over this section of the country for years and they have always been finely received. Their long association, excellent training and beautiful voices all combine to make their singing the best to be heard. The program will be varied and will include several solos as well as the quartet. Willow Dale concert has been heard in Lowell and many people are familiar with the quality of its work and the engagement at Willow Dale affords music lovers a fine chance to again hear this talented organization under the best possible conditions. Charge will be made for these concerts and every facility for easy and satisfied hearing of them will be provided by the management of Willow Dale.

GAS FRANCHISE*Passed By the Haverhill Board

HAVERHILL, July 1.—After hearing charges and counter charges by various citizens that the proposed franchise for the Haverhill gas light company was a steal, and that politics had been played between the members of the council and the corporation agents, the board of five, by a vote of four to one, granted a new franchise and accepted a new gas agreement for the consumers, with the provision that gas shall be furnished for 90 cents, a reduction of 10 cents from the present rate. Also at the end of one year, the rate will be further reduced to 85 cents and when the consumption reaches 450,000,000 cubic feet, which it is figured will be from seven and half to 8 1/2 years, the rate will be 80 cents.

The third in a series of public meetings was held previous to the vote being taken, and for three hours legal talent clashed, prominent and influential citizens spoke both for and against municipal ownership, and the situation reached a more acute stage than has ever been noticeable. It was plainly evident that the crowd stood in favor of having the question of granting a franchise put up to them at the city election, for at every utterance tending to favor that purchase there were loud bursts of applause.

Alderman Joe W. Bean was alone in his stand against the granting of the franchise, he having for many weeks attempted to influence his colleagues that the proper course was to allow the people to decide the question. His efforts were in vain, however.

Mr. City Solicitor Abbott has threatened to recall the four members of the council because of their attitudes, and Attorney Essex S. Abbott has filed a legal notice that he will take the case to the equity courts of the commonwealth in an effort to restrain the city government from carrying out its plan.

The situation has created a general feeling of unrest, which, it is said, will have its outcome in the declaring of a candidate for mayor who will be pledged to municipal ownership of public utilities.

Alderman Bean, who has championed the cause for a long time, is mentioned.

Big night Asso. Sat. eve.

LAKEVIEW THEATRE

The crowds at Lakeview theatre this week have increased steadily, and everyone seems well pleased with the bright, breezy little comedy that is being presented every afternoon and evening for their approval. The story is well told and the situations are strong enough to hold the interest of the audience from the first to the final curtain. Mr. James Thatcher in the leading role of "Bruno Madell," who gets into all sorts of trouble through his getting mixed up in the names of two girls, one with whom he is in love and the other whom he does not know is very funny.

The scenic and electrical effects are good and the whole makes a comedy of considerable strength, well staged and acted, and in keeping with the high standard of plays that are being offered this season.

Next week a romantic melodrama will be the attraction, called "A Western Romance." It is as one would imagine from the title, a western piece and is full of thrilling incidents with a delightful love story running all the way through it, which it seems ought to make it highly acceptable and pleasing for the holiday week. The leading role, "Jack O' Diamonds," which was made famous a few years ago by one of America's leading actors, will be played by Mr. James Thatcher, who has fully demonstrated that his talents are not confined to the depicting of rural characters, but that he can capably handle any part he may be called upon to enact.

Pacard & Jordan Asso. Sat. eve.

THEATRE VOYONS

Today's feature at the Theatre Voyons, "The Great Train Holdup," is one of the best productions of Pathe's American company, and it has all the thrill and sensation that the best American makes have, together with the careful staging and fine photography of the imported pictures. Herbert LeRoy lectures on the biograph subject and brings out the particularly touching and interesting story of child life. A real comedy and an interesting scenic subject also are on the program and the musical selections are worthy of the attention of anyone. The Theatre Voyons is exclusively showing the best pictures produced by the firms of Pathe, Biograph, Essanay, Lubin, Vitaphone, Glenside, and Grand National. These films are rated as the best in the world and are the most expensive.

COUNT ZEPPELIN GOING AHEAD BUILDING MORE AIRSHIPS NOTWITHSTANDING MANY ACCIDENTS

BERLIN, July 1.—Count Zeppelin promises to give Germany safe air crafts before the summer is over. The count is going to have a hard time convincing a score of newspaper men that riding in the air is still an everyday occurrence. European papers are teeming with adjectives from the 20 correspondents who were the guests of the count when the Deutschland landed in it here. All the writers agree that they were scared and are willing to let their brother writers take the next trip.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE

Woman Opened the Veins in Her Wrist

ALLENSTEIN, East Prussia, July 1.—Frau Von Schoenbeck Weber, charged with complicity in the murder of her husband, an army officer, attempted suicide today by opening the veins of the wrist. Physicians hope to save her life.

Major Von Schoenbeck was killed on Christmas eve, 1908, by her admirer, Captain Von Goeben, who subsequently confessed and took his own life.

FUNERAL OF BISHOP McVICKAR

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 1.—Many bishops and other clergy and hundreds of lay citizens today honored the memory of Right Rev. William N. McVicker, D. D., L. L. D., Episcopal bishop of Rhode Island. Following several morning services of requiem at various churches and lying in state from noon until 2 p. m., the funeral was held at St. John's church at 2.30 o'clock.

The funeral was conducted by Rt. Rev. Chauncey Bunce Brester, D. D., bishop of Connecticut, assisted by Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Gaylor, S. D., bishop of Tennessee; Rt. Rev. Arthur C. A. Hall, D. D., L. L. D., bishop of Vermont, and Rt. Rev. Robert Codman, D. D., bishop of Maine. There was no eulogy. Nearly 2000 persons viewed the features of Bishop McVicker last night and from 12 to 2 p. m. today.

DEEPER WATERWAYS AG'S N. PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—Congressman J. ## Hurrah for the Fourth! Hurrah for the Great Sale!

People thought that there was trouble at our store last Saturday night on account of the large number of people that was there at one time. The cause for the big crowd was that we were advertising to sell the latest styles of summer suits for about half what they are charging in other clothing stores, and they were taking advantage of our Big Special Sale, and in their purchases they got what they wanted and saved money enough to have a good time on the Fourth. You can do the same if you call.

HE WAS FINED $25 Man Was Found Guilty of Stealing a Roll of $33

There was a variety of cases in police court this morning and as is usual when the weather is the warmest and the humidity high, the season was a long one.

What proved to be a rather amusing case in which the defendant was discharged was that of Margaret Sullivan charged with assault and battery on Catherine Curley. The women in question are neighbors and reside in the rear of 259 Worthen street.

According to the testimony offered Mrs. Sullivan's boy placed an "accident" egg in the pocket of Mrs. Curley's boy's clothing and then smashed the egg. Needless to say the clothing had to be removed and cleansed.

Mrs. Curley then went to Mrs. Sullivan's house and told her what she thought of her boy and incidentally told her what she thought of her (Mrs. Sullivan). Then followed a wordy battle and it is alleged that Mrs. Sullivan struck the Curley woman.

Mrs. Sullivan said that when she was told of what her boy had done she told Mrs. Curley she was sorry, but she said that Mrs. Curley called her a vile name and she pushed her off the step.

The court after considering the evidence found the defendant not guilty and ordered her to be discharged.

Stole a Pocketbook

William Jackson, a man who, it is said, calls any place he hangs his hat "Home, Sweet Home," came to Lowell yesterday afternoon from Montreal; but he had been in the city but a short time when he was gathered in by the police, and locked up on a complaint of larceny of $33 from James Dolan.

Dolan was drinking in a saloon when Jackson entered. Dolan then entered a rear room and Jackson followed him. While the pair were there Dolan dropped a pocketbook containing $33 and Jackson, it is alleged, picked it up and walked out of the place. Dolan a few minutes later discovered his loss and happened to think that the man who was in the room with him might have taken it and he rushed into the street. He saw Jackson and charged him with the theft, but the latter denied the allegation.

About this time Patrolman Patrick Sullivan happened to be passing by and upon complaint placed Jackson under arrest. When searched at the police station the pocketbook and $31 were found on his person, the $2 having disappeared in a very mysterious manner. Jackson admitted that he picked the pocketbook up when he saw it lying on the floor but denied that he knew to whom it belonged. He said that he was on his way to Boston when he felt

He was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $25.

Case Continued

In the cases of Benjamin Shapiro charged with assault and battery on Cloufia Belanger and Celina Hubert, a continuance was granted till July 6.

Stole Two Milk Bottles

Gideon Matte was arraigned in court on two separate complaints of larceny. It being alleged that he stole two milk bottles at the value of five cents each. One bottle was the property of John Hamilton and the other that of William J. Burbeck. Matte was drunk when arrested, and it is said admitted to Patrolman Joseph Lamoreaux that he had taken the bottles and drunk the contents. He was sentenced to one month in jail. The court in passing sentence in the case spoke of the prevalent stealing of milk bottles by both men employed by dealers and thieves.

Drunken Offenders

James Gallagher, who gave the name of Flaherty when placed under arrest, denied that he had been drinking yesterday. Patrolman Daniel Cogger said that he assisted in arresting the man and that the latter was lying behind the counter in a fruit store at the corner of Gorham and Summer streets. Gallagher is on parole from the state farm and he will be returned to that institution.

Michael Dennigan was fined $5, and one first offender was fined $2.

COMPANION LEAPED FROM BOAT AND SAVED HIM

MANCHESTER, N. H., July 1.—Charles Laugel, 16 years old, of Goffs Falls, was rescued from drowning at Pine Island park yesterday afternoon. Everett E. Crum of this city, a companion, dragged him ashore after jumping from a boat.

The two young men and a third named O'Brien, who lives in Haverhill, Mass., went out rowing. They went across the pond and visited friends at one of the cottages on the east side. About noon they started to row across the lake again. While Crum was at the oars Laugel tumbled accidentally out of the boat. He cannot swim. Crum dived for him.

O'Brien held out an oar and tried to pull both of them in, but after a hard struggle the rescuer gave up the oar and swam ashore with the boy.

STOCK MARKET

WAS IRREGULAR AT THE CLOSING HOUR TODAY

Not a Sufficient Demand to Hold the Prices—A Decline Carried Quotations Downward

NEW YORK, July 1.—The opening stock market showed the resiliency tendency from the extreme depression of yesterday carried over from the late dealings of the day before. General Electric opened at a rebound of 1-4; Northern Pacific and Chicago Great Western 1-2; Canadian Pacific 1-4; Union Pacific, Atchafalaya, Great Northern pf, Reading, Rio Grande, Anaconda and American Car & point, and others a substantial fraction.

Stocks which were bought yesterday were sold on the opening advance, causing reactions of a point or more in some of the active stocks and driving a number of issues below yesterday's closing. The copper stocks made the initial display of weakness and were followed in turn by Reading and the Western railroad group. When prices had receded to about where they left off yesterday support began to show and there was some recovery. Dealings were in fair volume and there was an absence of yesterday's exciting features. Bethlehem & Chicago, Amalgamated Copper, American Smelting and Central Leather sold 1-2 below last night and Rock Island 1-8. The market showed considerable hesitation at 11 o'clock.

The slow hardening movement carried prices upward, but the advance halted short of the closing high level. This seemed to invite new selling and the market slipped off again.

The more cheerful sentiment was reflected in an active and rising market. Advances of between 1 and 2 points were registered in a score or more stocks, including many of the market leaders.

The market closed irregular. There was not sufficient demand to hold prices and a decline carried quotations downward without much resistance. There was a rebound in the last few minutes, Missouri Pacific rising 3-4.

SAGAMORE BEACH CONFERENCE

SAGAMORE BEACH, July 1.—The necessity of the establishing of social justice and the realization of brotherhood in America were some of the questions considered in the platform of the Sagamore Beach conference today. The platform says in part: "We recognize a growing unrest among the American people and a widespread dissatisfaction with the present conditions, indicating a quickening of conscience.

"If therefore seems to us imperative that all who really desire the coming of God's kingdom on earth, the establishment of social justice and the realization of brotherhood should consider such questions as: The fair distribution of the products of labor; the restoration of the hours of labor; the establishment of minimum wage boards; the hygienic conditions of living; the abolition of exploitation of child labor; the problem of unemployment; workmen's compensation for injury to life, health and industry; public ownership of public utilities; compulsory insurance against illness, unemployment, old age and death; marriage and divorce laws; special attention to the education of immigrants; the abolition of privilege and monopoly; income and inheritance taxes; the abolition of taxation of monopoly in land; promotion of all forms of association for mutual help, and social betterment; the bringing together through common interests of the people of different races and religions; the perfecting of our democracy through (a) direct legislation and the referendum and recall; (b) the maintenance of free press, speech and assembly; (c) the conservation of natural and social resources; (d) the enfranchisement of women; and the organization for peace and justice between nations.

TO CLOSE BANK

RICHMOND, Me., July 1.—The stockholders of the Richmond National bank at a special meeting today voted to instruct the directors to close up the affairs of the bank by going into voluntary liquidation on Aug. 1. The bank is one of the oldest in the state, having been organized about 50 years ago and has a capital of $26,000 and a surplus and undivided profits amounting to about $22,000. The loans are small.

WOMAN ARRESTED

It is Alleged That She Attempted Suicide

Mary Plumley, it is said, attempted to end her life about seven o'clock this morning, when she tried to throw herself in the water of the Pawtucket canal in the vicinity of the guard locks of the Locke & Canals corporation in Broadway.

People in the vicinity of the place saw the woman walk into what is known as Thompson's field. There she started to disrobe herself and was about to make the plunge into the water when one of the employees of the Wilson Coal Co., which is located on the opposite side of the street, rushed over and grabbed her.

Word was sent to the police station and the patrol wagon was sent to the scene and she was locked up.

The woman had been following the Barnum & Bailey circus and appeared in police court on June 11, the day after the circus was here. At that time she was arrested for drunkenness and put up a pitiful plea for clemency and was given three days to leave the city. Instead of leaving Lowell, however, she went to reside in Tyler street, and it is said that she has been doing work about the city since that time.

When brought into court this morning she presented a very weak appearance, and while other cases were being disposed of she fainted away and had to be carried out of the court room.

The only complaint charged against her was that of drunkenness, and she entered a plea of not guilty. She said that she was sick, but not drunk, but her condition was such that the court decided that a rest would do her good and she was sentenced to three months in jail.

CRAZED BY DRINK

Pawtucketville Man Tried to Shoot His Young Daughter

Dominick Slain, an iron moulder residing at 14 Adams avenue, Pawtucketville, while crazed by drink early this morning, attempted to kill his daughter, Ellen F., aged 14 years, by firing two shots from a revolver at her. The fact that he was unsteady in his aim is the only thing that saved the girl's life. Later when Patrolman Napoleon Provencher went to arrest him he assaulted the officer and the latter is now nursing severe bruises about the face and lower limbs.

Slain, it is said, has been on a protracted spree since he arrived at his home early this morning. He was going about the house like a maniac and his wife and daughters tried to quiet him, but without avail. He was raising such a rumpus that the people in the neighborhood were disturbed in their sleep and later were alarmed to hear the reports of shots from a revolver.

For no apparent reason upon his 14-year old daughter, Ellen F., and when she tried to quiet him he pulled out a 32-calibre revolver and fired two shots at her. The shots imbedded themselves in the wall and immediately afterward the wife and children got out of his sight.

Thinking that he might quiet down, neither Mrs. Slain nor the children left the house, but about 2:45 o'clock Slain went on the rampage again and threatened to shoot every occupant of the house. Mrs. Slain then left the house and went in search of a police officer.

When she reached Pawtucket square she met Patrolman Napoleon Provencher, who was on his way home after doing his work on the early night shift. She told him her story and he immediately went to the nearest patrol box and telephoned the police station. He was advised not to enter the house alone, and to wait until the wagon was sent up. The patrol arrived on the scene about ten minutes later with Sergeant Giroux and Wagon Officer Holland.

When the officers reached the house there was a commotion going on. Slain was shouting and trying to break up the furniture. Patrolman Provencher went around to the door in the rear of the house and after gaining an entrance came across Slain.

Slain, upon seeing the officer, who at that time was in citizen's clothes, made a jump for him and struck him over the nose, on the head and about the body. The two then clinched and went down to the floor and during the scuffle the infuriated man sunk his teeth into Patrolman Provencher's thigh.

Slain, however, was subdued, placed in the patrol wagon and taken to the police station.

Slain when arraigned in court this morning gave every appearance of having been on a long debauch. He was trembling, his voice was coarse and his speech indistinct.

He was charged with drunkenness, assault and battery on a police officer and assault with a pistol. He entered pleas of not guilty to each complaint and asked for a continuance, claiming that he would not be ready for trial until he secured the services of a lawyer.

While he wanted the case continued till tomorrow, the court decided to put the matter over until next Tuesday, holding him under $300 bonds for his appearance.

BOGUS CHECKS

MAY BE ATTEMPTED TO BE PASSED IN THIS CITY

Business people and citizens in general are warned to be on the lookout for bogus checks which may be attempted to be passed in this city. A number of checks were recently stolen from the Osborn Mfg. Co. in New Durham, N. H., and the man who stole them has worked several of them.

The following letter received at the local police station is self-explanatory:

Bogus checks are being circulated in New Hampshire, purporting to be drawn on the Rochester Loan & Banking company, and signed by the Osborn Mfg. Co., E. E. Rice, resident manager, countersigned by E. E. Gleason. Checks are for small amounts, less than $15. The checks are printed on the end, pay roll check, not over $15. Some of the checks are numbered, and some are not numbered. All checks that are not numbered are bogus. The following numbers which are printed in red ink, on each check, are bogus, No. 10,001 to 10,100 inclusive No. 12,096 to 12,100 inclusive.

The checks are made payable to Edward Blake, Edward Blair, Edward Parker and probably other names.

The checks that are numbered as above were stolen from the office of the Osborn Mfg. Co., New Durham, N. H. Checks that are not numbered were evidently printed by the perpetrator.

HAVERHILL VOTERS

Want to Abolish the School Board of That City

HAVERHILL, July 1.—By operating the initiative clause of the new city charter, 25 p. c. of the voters of the city may have placed upon the ballot at the next city election the question of whether or not the municipal council shall petition the legislature for the abolition of the school board. This fact came to light yesterday when a half dozen or more petitions were put in circulation. The plan, briefly outlined, is that there shall be an educational department within the municipal council and the superintendent of schools shall have full power, with a tenure of office of four years.

The plan is to wipe out the present school board of four members, the mayor being a member ex-officio, and in its stead have the municipal council act as a supervisor over the superintendent of schools. In order to divorce politics from the affairs of the educational system it is proposed the superintendent shall be elected for a term of four years, but his salary shall be established every year.

The municipal council, according to the provisions of the petition, would direct the expenditures of all large sums of money and there would be an auditor in charge of the department.

Attack on Present Board

The petition is an attack on the present school board and the manner it has done business. It charges that recent flibusters of the school committee have tended to unnerve the corps of 200 instructors in the public schools, and that "politics plays an important part in the guiding of the educational system of Haverhill." Continuing, the petition says the undersigned see no reason to believe that these conditions will be checked, at least with the present personnel of the committee.

Also the petitioners say that "we regret to perceive that Haverhill, instead of taking a step forward in the educational world, is really going backward."

Those behind the movement say that an effort will be made to get at least 25 per cent of the voters to sign the documents in order that it shall be the duty of the council to put the question on the city ballot.

If 10 per cent of the total number of voters sign the petitions, the matter will have to be settled at the polls, according to the provisions of section 42 of chapter 57A, acts of 1908, although if 25 per cent is secured the municipal council would have to call a special election if it were demanded.

The feeling among the agitators is, however, that the city election would be ample time to press the matter, as by postponing until then the expense of a special election will be saved.

The legal procedure necessary, in order to put the petition in effect, would be for it to be favorably acted upon by a majority of the voters at the next city election; the municipal council then would have to pass the ordinance unchanged and at the opening of the 1911 session of the state legislature a bill covering the points at issue would be offered. Those behind the movement say they have no doubt but what if the people accept the terms of the petition that the legislature will ratify their action.

The petition is an aftermath of the recent troubles that certain sections of the city and certain individuals have had with the committee, and in view of the notoriety that has been given the recent meetings of the board, because of the sensational features that developed, those behind the movement say that they have no doubt the petition will meet the hearty and instant approval of the voters, as, in their mind, some change is demanded.

As far as is known, this case is the first one in New England where there has been an attempt made to abolish the school board, and for that reason many people await with interest what the leading educators of the state think about the proposition. Public opinion seems to be about evenly divided, although everyone admits the petition comes like a thunder burst from a clear sky. They say they see many advantages in the plan as outlined, and although they do not want to go on record now as favoring it, they have made it known that they do favor certain provisions and the general idea.

FIRED AT WIFE

Pet Dog Saved Woman's Life

BOSTON, July 1.—How a pet dog saved the life of his mistress at the expense of his own was told today in the municipal court where Andrew Ella was charged with attempting to kill his wife. Following a dispute last night, Ella is alleged to have drawn a revolver and fired at his wife. The bullet killed a little fox terrier she held in her arms. As it fell to the floor dead, Mrs. Ella fainted. Neighbors caused the arrest of Ella. When Mrs. Ella revived she declared her husband had been acting queerly for several days.

Friends estimate that he retires with from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000.

FORT ACCEPTS POSITION

CHICAGO, July 1.—Gerritt Fort has accepted the position of passenger traffic manager of the Union Pacific Railroad Co., with headquarters in Omaha. For more than a year he has been general passenger agent for the New York Central railroad with headquarters in New York. He will succeed R. L. Lomax, who has resigned as general passenger agent of the Union Pacific, to become passenger traffic manager of the Western Pacific. The position of passenger traffic manager is a new one for the Union Pacific.

ECZEMA—A GERM DISEASE—CAN NOW BE CURED.

The medical profession is all agreed that ECZEMA is a germ disease, but the thing that has baffled them is to find some remedy that will get to the germs and destroy them.

Zemo, the clean, external treatment has solved this difficulty by drawing the germs to the surface of the skin and destroying the germ life that causes the diseases. The whole method of treatment and cure by ZEMO is explained in an interesting book on the subject issued by the makers of ZEMO. It tells how to recognize yourself at home of Eczema, Blackheads, Pimples, Dandruff, and all diseases of the skin and scalp. Call at A. W. Dows & Co.'s drug store for Booklet and learn more about this clean, simple remedy that is now recognized the standard treatment for all diseases of the skin and scalp.

MAN ARRESTED

Is Charged With Attempt to Kill

BOSTON, July 1.—"Baby," a pet fox terrier, was shot and killed by a bullet, probably saving the life of her mistress, Mrs. Julia Ella, who was carrying the animal in the tenement block at 15 Auburn court, shortly before 6 o'clock last night. Immediately following the shooting Andrew Ella was arrested by officers of station 3, charged with assault with a loaded revolver with intent to kill his wife.

The arrested man is 28 years old, and according to the police has been acting strangely during the past week. When questioned about the case last night he refused to talk, though he did not appear to fully realize the seriousness of the charge against him. Mrs. Ella is also 28 years old, and has lived with her husband in the Auburn court house for about a year.

"Baby," the dog, was the pet of the Ella family, and last night Mrs. Ella was carrying the animal while she carried it about the kitchen. Her husband became incensed at something that was said and, drawing a revolver, fired one shot. According to the police the shot was aimed at his wife, but it struck the dog, which was lying in her arms.

Mrs. Ella screamed and fainted, dropping to the floor, while the dog fell at her side, dead. Neighbors were attracted by the shot and notified Lieut. O'Rourke, who was in charge at the Joy street station, a short distance away. Sergeant Brooks and Patrolman Foley ran to the house, where they found the woman lying on the floor and the dog by her side. At first it was thought that the woman had also been shot, but after a few minutes she revived and told her story of the shooting.

Ella was then taken to the station, while neighbors cared for the woman. The dog was also taken in charge by the police. The animal, it was found, had been shot through the heart, receiving the bullet which would probably have killed Mrs. Ella.

CITY HALL NEWS

Matter of the Convenience Station

The special committee on convenience station will meet at the city hall at 8 o'clock tonight. Where to locate the station is the question, and the committee will ask the assistance of the board of health in the matter. Councilman Chapman, chairman of the committee, had a conference with Engineer Mills of the Locks & Canals company relative to a location. It had been suggested that the station might be located over the canal in the rear of the Howe building, but Mr. Mills said that owing to the work that is going on in the canal the station could not be allowed there. The question of location will be thrashed out by the committee tonight.

Mayor McLean has signed the final order for the closing of the offices at

CANALS SHOULD BE WELL FENCED IN

Some time ago we intimated the need of better protection along some of the canals. It seems that these swift flowing water-ways are not sufficiently guarded at all points and that as a result there are drownings and accidents that might be avoided. Wherever the fencing of the canals is deficient, the Locks and Canals company can be forced to make the enclosure complete as a protection for children and others.

ABOUT SCHOOL LUNCHEES

There is very keen competition in some places for the privilege of providing school lunches. Where the privilege is not let to some particular party a lot of itinerant vendors are usually given free access to school yards with candy and confectionery that might be guaranteed to produce dyspepsia. This is wrong. The pupils cannot very well be prevented from buying where they please, but they should be cautioned against purchasing from peddlers of cheap candy and ice cream, and urged to patronize only reputable stores.

ROOSEVELT'S SUPPORT FOR LODGE

It is evident that the Roosevelts will go any length for Senator Lodge. Even "Nick" Longworth has been drafted to speak for the senator. Col. Roosevelt has visited the senator at his home and later on will come out with all the emphasis at his command in support of the senator's candidacy for re-election. That will show the Rooseveltian devotion to boss rule; for, with the exception of Speaker Cannon, Senator Aldrich and Congressman Daleell of Pennsylvania, there is no more uncompromising supporter of the republican machine than Senator Lodge. His defense of the tariff, his efforts to show that neither tariff nor trusts are responsible for the high cost of living are proof of this. His mission is to keep the republican party in power no matter how disastrous that may prove to the country.

NO WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC

The report of the special grand jury of which John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was chairman, goes to show that the white slave traffic does not exist in New York as had been represented. The investigation was very full and complete and while it disclosed the existence of vice and even dens of disrepute, yet the result is not worse, nor quite as bad as might be found in most large cities. It is gratifying to find that the allegations of certain alarmists are not sustained in this respect. The grand jury kept up its investigation until it probed the worst dives in New York, but even then there was nothing to prove that dens of infamy were being maintained under the protection of Tammany Hall, or that white women were bought and sold as slaves to pursue a life of shame for the financial benefit of their masters. Occasional cases do not prove a systematic business nor do they justify the charge that the White Slave traffic is rampant.

THE REMEDY IS EASY

If the tariff were removed from cattle there would be enough cattle come here from Argentina to bring down the price of meat. Either that or an export duty on American cattle is the only remedy. Why do the American people submit to the imposition, knowing that the American beef trust ships cattle on the hoof to England and sells the beef there 25 per cent. cheaper than in this country.

The republican party stands by the trust against any reduction in the tariff. That is why we should have a change in the administration.

Owing to the constitution we cannot have a change for two years more; but if the republicans be elected to power again there is no telling what the great trusts may decide to do. The people are grieved to the breaking point by class privilege and extortion authorized, approved and legalized by the republican party. The people have the power in their own hands, and if they do not use it when the time comes, they will have but themselves to blame. It is now eighteen years since the people dared to vote against the republican party.

THE ROOSEVELT-HUGHES EPISODE

Col. Roosevelt before landing on American soil sent a message to the American public asserting that he would have nothing to say of American politics until a couple of months after his return. He is now home a little over a week and he has already come out flatly in favor of the reform policies advocated by Governor Hughes in New York state. He has made an appeal, he says, as strongly as he could to the officials of New York to uphold the policies of Governor Hughes.

We had our misgivings as to Roosevelt's ability to remain silent so long on political matters and this interference in behalf of Governor Hughes has proved the accuracy of our judgment.

The action of the New York legislature in doing the very thing Col. Roosevelt appealed to them not to do, indicates that the Roosevelt dictatorship will not be accepted. Col. Roosevelt is no longer in office and it is not to be expected that men duly elected will sink their own judgment and allow themselves to be used as mere puppets by a man who has already assumed the role of political dictator and who apparently thinks he is the only man in the country who knows just what should be done. The rebuke administered by the New York legislature is a proper answer to his interference in a political controversy that is best understood by the men on the ground.

It is expected in some quarters that Governor Hughes will reconvene the legislature in order to have the action on the primary election bill reversed, but we do not believe he will dare to. The result might be even a more severe repudiation of the Roosevelt mandate.

SEEN AND HEARD

THE SONG OF THE SOUTHWESTER

(Harry Newhall.)

The sun was just in a leaden sky
And the shore was under our lee;
When a great Sou'wester hurricane high
Came pellicking up the sea.
He played with the fleet as a boy with boats.
"Till out for the Downs we ran,
And he laughed with the roar of a thousand throats.
At the militant ways of man.

Oh, I am the enemy most of might,
The other be who you please;
Gunner and guns may all be right,
Flaags-a-lying and armor light.
But I am the fellow you're first to fight.
The giant that swings the sea!

A dozen middies were down below
Chasing the X they love
While the table curtseyed long and slow.
And the lamps were giddy above.
The lesson was all of a ship and a
shot.
And some of it may have been true,
But the word they heard and never forgot
Was the word of the wind that blew—
"Till out for the Downs we ran,
And he laughed with the roar of a thousand throats.
At the militant ways of man.

Oh, I am the enemy most of might,
The other be who you please;
Gunner and guns may all be right,
Flaags-a-lying and armor light.
But I am the fellow you're first to fight.
The giant that swings the sea!

The middy with luck is a captain soon;
With luck he may hear one day
His "X" in Trafalgar Bay.
But wherever he goes, with friends or
foes,
And whatever may there befall,
He'll hear forever a voice he knows,
Forever defying them all—
"Till out for the Downs we ran,
And he laughed with the roar of a thousand throats.
At the militant ways of man.

Oh, I am the enemy most of might,
The other be who you please;
Gunner and guns may all be right,
Flaags-a-lying and armor light.
But I am the fellow you're first to fight.
The giant that swings the sea!

Great Britain has three newspapers and two magazines devoted to the interest of woman suffrage. Holland, Denmark, Norway, Germany, Austria, Russia, Finland, Iceland, France, Switzerland, Bulgaria, Hungary, and Poland have one paper each, while Belgium and Turkey have each one woman's magazine which advocates giving women the ballot.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Dr. Francis Newton Thorpe, has accepted a call to the chair of constitutional history at the Western University of Pennsylvania, at Pittsburg, to take effect upon his return from a year's trip to Germany, on which he will leave soon with his family. He is a former member of the faculty of the University of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Cecil Sorel, the actress who is described as the best dressed woman in Paris—she holds that $20,000 a year is the lowest sum on which a woman can live without a loss of self-respect—has adopted a new hobby. At her flat in the Avenue des Champs Elysees she keeps two lion cubs, and from contemplation of her green-eyed pets she has evolved a scheme of philosophy which is somewhat tinged with misanthropy.

Queen Marguerite of Italy once arrived in a town where great preparations had been made to do her honor. The mayor was on hand to escort her to the room where luncheon was served, but the queen declined to eat anything, saying that all she needed was a glass of water and a sandwich. At the end of this frugal repast she was about to take her handkerchief from her pocket to wipe her lips, when the mayor, who was expecting her to bow and respectfully say "Your majesty need not trouble yourself. I can assure you the lunch is all paid for."

Robert Herrick, who is quoted as saying that he feels "there is, philosophically speaking, no such thing as true realism in art," thus describes the influences with which he came in contact, until he reached the age of twenty-six, at Harvard University: "There I acquired my first ideals of literature. Plautus and Deliaupassant were in the air; and when I first began to write I was dominated by the French ideal of the novel, reinforced possibly by certain Gallic traits in my own temperament—not an uncommon thing in the New England stock. Gradually, during the last ten years, as I have written my novels, I have come to repudiate quite fully those French ideals, at least so far as the novel form is concerned. The restricted scope of the French novel, two of art seems to me not at all characteristic of our race, and I now regard the French influence upon American novelists largely at second hand—as distinctly deplorable."

Miss Ethel Vipon has the distinction of being the first woman reader to be employed in a cigar factory in Chicago. Following the custom in cigar shops in Cuba and in many other parts of the world, M. Newland, proprietor of a cigar making company, has employed Miss Vipon to read to the men in working hours from the newspapers, popular works of fiction and standard books of different kinds. According to the proprietor, the men like the plan and are able to make more cigars than before the custom was established. Miss Vipon arrives in the morning as early as do

WOMAN ESCAPES OPERATION

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Elwood, Ind.—"Your remedies have cured me and I have only taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was sick three months and could not walk. I suffered all the time. The doctors said I could not get well without an operation, for I could hardly stand the pains in my sides, especially my right one, and down my right leg. I began to feel better when I had taken only one bottle of Compound, but kept on as I was afraid to stop too soon."—Mrs. SARAH MULLEN, 2728 N. B. St., Elwood, Ind.

Why will women take chances with an operation when they can be cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine, made exclusively from roots and herbs. n

the men. When the latter start their work she takes her seat at a table and begins her reading. Often the first story is the account of a baseball game. Then follows the news of the day and action of a magazine article.

"I like the work," said Miss Vipon, whose weekly income from her reading consists of $2.00 from the firm and 25 cents from each worker, "though it sometimes affects my throat a little. On the whole, however, it is pleasing."

Mrs. Florence Morse Kingsley lives and works for the greater part of the year in a big, old-fashioned house on Staten Island. In a way this house is a historical landmark; it has certainly stood on its present site since the early part of the last century and witnessed the growth of most of the towns and suburbs which make up picturesque Richmond Borough. When the Kingsleys bought it some fifteen years ago it was known as "the old Jewett mansion." A previous tenant had been a man named Jewett, a notable William Coby, better known as "Buffalo Bill." One may find bits of description of the old house in many of Mrs. Kingsley's stories, all of which, except "Titus," were written under its roof.

Announcement is made by George W. Cable, the author of "Northampton," of the engagement of his daughter, Miss Lucy Leffingwell Cable, to Henry Volck Biele of Philadelphia. Mr. Biele is the son of Dr. Philip M. Biele, dean and professor of Latin in Pennsylvania college at Gettysburg. The wedding will take place in the early autumn. Mr. Cable and his daughter recently were visitors at Rocky Neck, East Gloucester.

The anti-suffragists of Illinois have issued a pamphlet in which they say that the men of the country are at last wakening up to the dangers of woman suffrage. They say that the women have taken the position that it was a question women should decide for themselves. Now realizing the dangers, they have come out strongly against giving women the ballot. In proof of this statement they point to recent utterances of Senator Elihu Root, Nicholas Murray Butler and the Rev. Lyman Abbott. They also say that a protest is being circulated in Massachusetts which has already been signed by 150 influential men.

Mrs. B. R. Buffum of Roswell, N. M., is said to be the only woman in this country who holds a commission as deputy game warden. She was at one time a teacher in Nebraska and when her health failed she moved to New Mexico with the intention of being a citizen ruler. Soon after her arrival she made her first complaint of the ruthless killing of birds out of season. When this complaint received no attention she filed another and kept on until she was finally appointed a deputy game warden. Soon after receiving her appointment she arrested two men for shooting quail out of season, and from then on the game laws have been strictly observed in her neighborhood.

The trustees of the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute at Alabama at a meeting held in New York, added to the board Theodore Roosevelt, Frank Trumbull, chairman of the board of directors of the Chesapeake & Ohio railway, and Charles E. Mason of the firm of S. D. Warren & Co., Boston. The motion to elect Col. Roosevelt as trustee was carried. Mr. Roosevelt is an Alabama banker and vice president of the board. Col. Roosevelt had already signified his willingness to accept membership.

The death of E. H. Harriman has not halted in the least the elaborate plans which in made for the extension and beautifying of his vast estate in Orange county. While Mrs. Harriman has placed in the hands of her daughter, now Mrs. Charles Carey Rumsey, the management of the estate she, of course, still retains the final say concerning the expenditure of money or the purchase of property. Mrs. Harriman has many agents working through Orange county buying up one farm after another, and since the death of her husband she has added thousands of acres to the estate. The entire property owned by the Harrimans now is estimated at 35,000 acres, 10,000 acres having been given to the state. Mrs. Harriman is expending almost $500,000 a year on the estate at present, and, not counting the cost of land, it is estimated that at least $4,000,000 has been spent there. More than 600 men are kept busy building roads through the property.

Herbert C. Collar, principal of the Charlton high school, was elected principal of Holden high school at a special meeting of the school committee. Thirty candidates had applied for the position, but the committee unanimously elected Mr. Collar to fill the position made vacant by the resignation of A. K. Laurens. Mr. Collar's home is in Dorchester. He was graduated from Dartmouth college in the class of '89. He has passed a year in study abroad. He is 34 years old and has had eight years' experience as a teacher. After he was graduated from Dartmouth, he was in business with the American Book Co. He was then engaged as a teacher of modern languages in the Stone school in Boston. Wishing to change from private school life to a public school life he was engaged as principal of the Charlton high school.

DEATH SENTENCE

MAN LAUGHED WHEN HE HEARD IT PRONOUNCED

NEW YORK, July 1.—Upon hearing his sentence pronounced by Judge Foster, Morris M. Lustig, the private detective who was convicted of murdering his wife, smiled and then laughed. The court set the wack of Aug. 8 for Lustig's death.

As the proceedings were about ended, Lustig turned his countenance and remarked, "That's easy." An appeal is to be made by his lawyers.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. James A. Peck of North Chelmsford and Miss Clara Baird of West Chelmsford were united in marriage Wednesday at the residence of the Rev. Edwin W. Cummings, pastor of the First Baptist church. The bridegroom was Mrs. A. Franklin Edwards, and the best man was Mr. A. Franklin Edwards. The bride was attired in royal blue messaline and wore a peltate hat. The bridesmaid wore a satin tunic.

Mr. and Mrs. Peck left by automobile, and will visit Cohasset and Bev-

LESTER CUSHMAN

PLACED ON TRIAL ON CHARGE OF MANSLAUGHTER

BOSTON, July 1.—The trial of Lester C. Cushman on a charge of manslaughter was commenced at the East Cambridge court house at 3.30 p. m. yesterday. The charge grew out of the death of Miss Myra L. Swift of Medford, a Wellesley College student, who was killed on the night of the Harvard-Dartmouth football game last fall, as the result of injuries received in collision between Cushman's automobile and a coal team on Myrtle avenue, Somerville.

Six witnesses were heard during the afternoon session, which continued until nearly 5 o'clock, when Judge Stevens adjourned court to 9.30 a. m. today. The testimony introduced yesterday was chiefly concerning the speed at which the car was being driven when the accident occurred.

A very pleasant social was held Wednesday night at the Coburn mission in Varnum avenue under the auspices of the Varnum Avenue Improvement association. There was a large attendance, the structure being inadequate to hold all those who desired to attend.

The program carried out was a pleasing one and consisted of piano selections, Miss Carrie Emory; recitation, Master Ormond Marshall; remarks, E. S. Howe; vocal and instrumental music, Mrs. Muldoon; remarks by Mr. Cummings and Mr. Roberts; Peter Clune sang and also gave a couple of recitations; piano selections, Mrs. William Barker, Misses Eva Roberts, Pauline Cummings. Then came an auction sale of food, Geo. W. Cummings acting in capacity of auctioneer. The supper committee was George Emery, chairman, John H. Roberts, Fred Marshall, Mr. Hill and Frank Williams. Mr. Hill had charge of setting the tables, which was very ably conducted.

The officers of the association are D. J. Williams, president; Wm. Barker, vice president; John H. Roberts, treasurer; Edward Roberts, secretary.

WORLD FAMOUS FLYERS AND THEIR PLANS

By CHARLES N. LURIE.

TO try to tell what the aviators are going to do next is like trying to reach a roof from the ground for a better view the moment a cry of "Here he comes!" announces the approach of one of the man birds. By the time you get where there is an unobstructed view the flier is gone. The air records are falling so fast nowadays—much faster and more frequently than the men who make them—that any prediction is open to serious objection that it will be out of date by the time it gets into print.

With these words of explanation, or possibly of apology, let us assert that the great aerial event toward which the persons interested in flying, which means the whole world, are looking is the race between St. Louis and New York over a 1,000 mile course for a prize of $30,000 offered by the New York World and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Of scarcely less interest is the projected Chicago-New York flight of about 960 miles for a $25,000 prize offered by the New York Times and the Chicago Evening Post. In addition to these there are the Washington-New York race, the Detroit-Buffalo flight, the Kansas City-St. Louis contest and many others. The total of the prizes offered by the cities and the newspapers is large enough to bring to America the most famous of the old world's aviators, as well as to engage the attention of our own best men, especially since the vacation of the temporary Wright injunctions left the foreigners free to come. Among those who are interested in these imagination compelling contests are the aviators who have recently brought the world to a realization of the fact that the flying machine has come to take its place among the world's commonplaces with wireless telegraphy, radium, the X rays, the telephone and other inventions. They are Glenn H. Curtiss, who made the air trip from Albany to New York;

Charles K. Hamilton, whose aerial journey from New York to Philadelphia and back gave assurance that such trips can be made hereafter on schedule time; Charles S. Rolls, the Englishman who flew across the English channel to France, turned in the air and returned without alighting to England; Louis Paulhan, who flew from London to Manchester for a $50,000 prize and who held until recently the world's record for height attained in an aeroplane; Grahame White, the plucky Englishman who tried so hard to win the London-Manchester contest and failed only after he had gone the limit of present endurance in the air; the Wrights, pioneer fliers, who have held steadfastly to their view that flying is with them a business proposition, not a sport, and have heretofore refused to engage in merely spectacular tests, although permitting the entry of their machines under the operation of others. All these and others of national and international fame have expressed their intense interest in the coming contests and have asserted their belief that the prizes offered are well worth consideration.

In addition to these great events on the future programs of the aviators there are numerous smaller affairs to be held in the United States and abroad. No state or county affair is considered up to date now unless it announces as a part of its list of attractions aerial flights by one or more of the world's fliers. Of course the fliers come high—no pun intended—considered hopelessly behind—the times. The old fashioned balloon ascension cannot draw a crowd nowadays, so the fair authorities are falling over one another in their endeavors to get the aviators. The supply of fliers is limited, although it is growing every day, so the men who are able to travel in three dimensions instead of two are taking advantage of their opportunities and demanding stiff prices for their work. Any one who has seen them perform their daring feats in the air will agree that almost any price is too low for the risks they run. The 1910 international aviation meet, which will be the greatest ever held, will take place on Long Island in October. It was brought to this country by Glenn H. Curtiss' victory at Rheims, France, last year.

New Laws Necessary. With the extension of flying over the world's civilized countries has come the discussion of rules for the government of the fliers when they are in the air. The subject is still in the tentative state, but there has been enough interest manifested in the matter to make it certain that the near future will see the promulgation of a set of rules agreed to by the world's most famous fliers. Speaking on this subject recently, Mr. Frederic R. Coudert, recently returned from a visit to France, said: "The presence of so many flying machines in France and the complaints of owners of property that aviators are flying over gardens and thus intruding into private domains has caused the calling of a commission of prominent lawyers.

"They have had operators of aeroplanes perform before them, flying both low and high, in order to determine what height is proper. Count Lambert has been one of these demonstrators. Of course there are property owners who assert that their rights extend far up into the sky, but to recognize such rights would mean a stop to all aviation.

"There is not the slightest doubt that a mean height will be determined and that France will be the pioneer country in the framing of laws to apply to tracks in the sky. Property rights will have to be protected. The Frenchman's garden, with its high wall, has been considered safe from prying eyes outside, but now with an aviator swooping near with his machine—well, something must and will be done."

HAMLIN GARLAND, CONSERVATIONIST

WHEN the history of the movement for the conservation of the natural resources of the nation is written high on the roll of honor of the men engaged in the fight on the right side, with those of Roosevelt, Pinchot and others will be that of a teller of tales, Hamlin Garland.

The country contains no more enthusiastic believer in the west, "the new west," and its future than Mr. Garland. His devotion to the cause of intelligent conservation of our mines and forests, our fields and plains, our men and women, requires no explanation. For years in his books and on the lecture platform he has been preaching the gospel of the mission of the west to regenerate to maintain the nation. In his latest book, "Cavanaugh; Forest Ranger," he carries his propaganda a step further and comes out openly and boldly without reserve in support of the Pinchot forest policy. In the mouth of the hero of the book, Ross Cavanaugh, the author puts the words:

"I am glad to be known as a defender of the forest. A tree means much to me. I never mark one for felling without a sense of responsibility for the future."

It is this "sense of responsibility for the future" frankly avowed, together with a most interesting story of life in the new west, that makes up the body of Mr. Garland's latest book. In it he devotes considerable space—not to the detriment of the book as a study, however—to a defense and an exposition of the forest preservation theories of Gifford Pinchot, the recently dismissed chief forester. The latter is depicted as the idol of the body of strong, able, clean living young men whom he trained in the forest service, and his dismissal from the service is described as a severe blow to the personnel of the service. Mr. Pinchot contributes a preface to the book.

For a score of years Mr. Garland has been known to the public through his writing and his lectures, as an ardent believer in America's future. In a book published sixteen years ago he said:

has lived his life up to the present time in harmony with his beliefs. The half century that has passed since his birth on a farm at West Salem, Wis., has served only to deepen and broaden in him the development of a belief in America, its institutions and its resources, its men and women and its future, and he has expressed his belief well in his writings and lectures. More than twenty books from his pen bear witness to his industry.

Among the best known of the Garland books are "Rose of Dutcher Cooley," "Hesper," "The Captain of the Gray Horse Troop," "Ulysses Grant" (a biography) and "Prairie Songs" (verse). He was educated in the common schools of Mitchell county, Ia., and was graduated in the literary course of the Cedar Valley seminary, Osage, Ia., in 1881. After teaching school in the west for a short time and farming a claim in Dakota he went to Boston and began to earn his living by his writings. In 1893 Mr. Garland returned to the west and has remained there save for the time he has spent in traveling. He was married in 1899 to Zulma Taft, a sister of the famous sculptor, Lorado Taft, and herself a sculptor and art critic of note. The Garlands make their home in Chicago, but the writer cultivates in the summer his farm in Wisconsin. From his earliest years Mr. Garland manifested an interest in the Indian tribes, and he has made extensive researches into their history, ethnology and present conditions. His activity in their behalf led to his selection several years ago by President Roosevelt as a commissioner to investigate the practicability of renaming all the Indians of the United States, the plan being to give them family names so that any rights they possess in the land might be defined and respected and, perhaps, perpetuated.

AMERICA DEVELOPS VIOLIN GENIUS

RECOGNITION at twenty-one as the greatest living American violinist, worthy to rank with Kreisler, Ysaye, Kubelek, the European masters of the bow—such is the happy distinction that has come to Albert Spalding of Chicago, who has been entrancing Europeans with his skill on his beautiful instrument.

Spalding returned early in June from a long sojourn in Europe, where he won many plaudits, to spend this summer at Monmouth Beach, N. J., with his family and will go back to the old world in the autumn to begin his 1910-11 concert tour of the European capitals.

Whether or not Spalding is the "future Paganini," as one of his ardent admirers called him, is a matter of possible future revelation. In one respect at least Spalding resembles the famous virtuoso of a century ago—that is, in the instant recognition his genius has won from the critics of foreign lands. As Paganini toured Europe, meeting with appreciation of his genius wherever he went, so Spalding has been hailed in Europe as one of the greatest of living violinists. France, England, Germany, Russia, all have paid tribute to his mastery of technique and the wonderful, indescribable appeal of his tone to the musician and the lay hearer. Throughout there has been but very little unfavorable criticism, and whatever carping of this sort has found its way into print has invariably been modified by words of warmest praise. Probably never before in the history of American music—though that has been lamentably brief and undistinguished—has an instrumentalist from this country met with so favorable a reception by the critics of the old world.

Spalding recently concluded a tour on the continent. He will tour Europe again in the musical season of 1910-11 and will visit America during the season of 1911-12. His triumphs abroad insure him an ovation in his native land, where he has appeared before in concerts. Some extracts from the French critics' comments on his playing read as follows:

"He has classed himself among the greatest violinists of the age."

"Qualities which we noted were sufficient to class the violinist among the greatest."

"Albert Spalding is one of the best violinists of our epoch."

American critics have been equally enthusiastic over their young compatriot. When he played in concert in 1908 in Carnegie hall, in New York, Reginald De Koven, the famous composer and musical critic, said:

"I saw a clean cut, almost typical American youth, good to look upon, without the smallest pose or affectation in his or manner, evidently artistic, as obviously whole souled and sincere. Then he played, and I heard what I must consider violin playing of a high order, distinguished by great finish, refinement and elegance of style."

rather than by force or great breadth, yet displaying rare artistic intelligence and sympathy in conception. Spalding's tone is singularly clear and even, sweet and penetrating, with the sheen and luster of a rich satin rather than the robust sonority of a Wilhelmj or Ysaye. His instrument has evidently no technical secrets for him, whether in bowing, double stopping, octave fore her marriage. A few years ago she said to an interviewer:

"At the very first, when he was a little bit of a fellow, two or three years old, and he would sit so quietly and patiently beside me while I played the piano, I used to assure myself it was because he loved me. It seemed incredible that a child so young could be appealed to so strongly by music."

passages or rarely pure harmonics. Altogether Mr. Spalding must be credited with a distinct success on his merits as an artist, and there seems no reason why maturity and deeper experience of life should not develop what is now remarkable talent into commanding genius."

That was a year and a half ago. European critics before whom Spalding has played since the time when that criticism was penned agree that Spalding's playing now shows greater maturity of tone, more commanding personal force, more ripening into genius of the talent which De Koven noted. Spalding's music comes to him naturally, by inheritance from his mother. She was a finished musician be-

Then I was so anxious, so fairly wild for him to love it, that I used to try to argue myself out of the belief that there was anything phenomenal about his evident passion for it. I was dreadfully afraid of getting my hopes up only to suffer disappointment.

"When Albert was seven years old we had returned one afternoon from a concert. He was very quiet and seemed to be thinking. Suddenly he said, 'Mother, I would like a violin.' Of course I was amazed. He was so young to say such a thing. 'You could not play it, my son, if you had it,' I told him, but he answered: 'Yes, I could. I could learn.' Well, as it turned out, he got the violin. That is just about all there is to tell."

THE COBB BILL

Was Defeated

ALBANY, N. Y., July 1.—With the extraordinary session of the legislature entered upon its final stage today, indications pointed to the failure of the efforts of President Taft, Theodore Roosevelt and Governor Hughes to bring about the passage of the Cobb direct nominations bill. After a bitter debate which lasted until early this morning the senate by a vote of 24 to 22 concurred in the assembly resolution fixing the hour for final adjournment at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The defeat of the plan to send the resolution to the finance commission and hold it up for further consideration, leaves only a few hours today in which to consider not only the Cobb bill but the financial measures which it is planned to pass to bolster up the state revenues.

The caucus last night decided to amend the Cobb bill as suggested by Lloyd C. Griscom, chairman of the New York county republican committee, by amendments which were endorsed by Colonel Roosevelt, but there seemed little likelihood of passing the bill in time for an unexpected shift from the opposition. In any event, if the bill is amended, an emergency message from Governor Hughes will be necessary to its consideration.

CLEVER THIEF

GOT AWAY WITH FOUR DIAMOND RINGS

BOSTON, July 1.—An unidentified young man secured four diamond rings valued at $300 in a daring daylight robbery yesterday afternoon. Striding up to the showcase of Jason Weller in the doorway of 384 Washington street, he pried open the door and inserted a wire through the rings. Again closing the door he nonchalantly strode away through the crowd. A meagre description is all the police have of him.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the undersigned, wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their assistance, words of comfort and beautiful floral tributes, that helped to lighten our sorrow in the recent death of our beloved son and brother, John. Especially to the boys of the Junior Holy Name society of St. Michael's church, the employees of Dickson's tea store, the Amhurst setting and Ingram weaving departments of the Bigelow Carpet Co. are we deeply grateful. We also wish to thank the young men who helped to carry the casket. The kindness of one and all will never be forgotten.

NEW YORK, July 1.—Her light clothing ignited by the flames of an overturned kerosene stove as she was preparing warm milk for her sick baby today, Mrs. Rosa Moskowitz lost every stitch of her blazing garments from her, seized the child in her arms and fled with the infant from the burning rooms down the fire escape. Neighbors cloaked her and cared for her and her three children. She will recover. The rescued child, a six month old boy, was named "Teddy" after Colonel Roosevelt.

COL. ROOSEVELT

HAS BEEN INVITED TO THE BIG FIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—Colonel Roosevelt has been invited by wire to attend the Reno fight. Jack Gleason extended the invitation. The message is as follows:
"Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, Oyster Bay, N. Y."

"With sincerest hope in your ability to attend, I extend you an invitation to be present at the boxing contest between Jeffries and Johnson at Reno, Nev., July 4. This is but a slight token of my appreciation for the many courtesies extended by you to me while visiting Washington during your occupancy at the White House. With best wishes,

NORTH CHELMSFORD

The club house of the North Chelmsford cricket club was broken into this week and a few insignificant articles were stolen.

ON THE CREASE.

What promises to be one of the most exciting cricket games of the season will be played on the Fitchburg cricket grounds on Monday, the Fourth, when two picked teams, one representing the Merrimack Valley Cricket League and the other the Massachusetts Central Cricket League, will meet.

Those who remember the last game between the leagues, played on the Bunting grounds here, will easily recall the interest and excitement of that day. Those features are sure to be repeated in Monday's game. Of course the valley team expects to win out.

The following will represent the two teams:
Merrimack Valley League: James Barrett, captain; Mohairs; W. Haddon, Andover; W. Croft, Jr., Zions; James Ogden, Merrimacks; Theron Stricks and Hugh Rudden, Buntings; W. Plith and O. Wannought, Lawrence; Hampden Hyde, Mohairs; C. Graydon, Alden; A. Metcalf, North Chelms; J. Schuchard, Frodoer and Wilson, Fitchburg; J. Schuchard and H. Nicholson, reserves; umpire, C. Morrell; scorer, I. Foster.

Central Massachusetts League: H. Marsden, captain; Haley, Clarke, Gray, Worcester, Smith, Fouldes and Woods, South Barre; Hargreaves and Robuck, Maynard; Frodoer and Wilson, Fitchburg; J. Schuchard and H. Nicholson, reserves; umpire, Hammond; scorer, Asquith.

The game will be called at 12 o'clock noon, and the Valley League players will leave Merrimack square at 8.30 a. m.
